Just you...

It's just you that keeps me on my toes and makes me wonder, how I always think about you when I slumber. It's just you that brings all my thought to life, like how I can't wait for you to be my wife. It's just you that can make any day turn into a party, I get drunk over you without any bacardi. It's just you that can make the biggest impact over me, how you make me feel it's hard to see. It's just you, its just you, the feelings I have for you must be true, cause I can't breathe and I can't speak, the thought of you makes me weak.

Why?

You always make me feel like I'm more, looking into the future I can't wait to see what's in store... You picked me off the shelf like I belonged, the love from you it makes my blood pump faster and strong. You always seem 2 bring a smile out, can't imagine how I ever lived without. So just hold my hand and grip tight for the ride, How did I ever become lucky enough for you too let me inside....

I'll wait !

I'll wait for the day that you can see, how much our love means to me... I'll wait on the winds to change and blow, til I get the courage to tell you so... I'll wait forever if I can't muster the strength to speak, to tell you how my heart makes me think... I'll wait cause you are the rock my love grips ahold, before you came along my feelings were running cold.... I'll wait and eventually you will know and understand, I'm very lucky to be your man.....

Us

The unusual aroma connects us both, the taste of your skin, the softness of your caress. We're both entranced in each others glance, the brown glowing brightly in your eyes. So much passion in our embrace, enjoying each other's warmth. Uncontrolled burst of colors, stars burning in every hue. Dreaming of another encounter, the slumber of a fool in love....

Never know

And this is why I live day by day..... You never know when it's your time, it might be yours it might be mine. Just sit back and enjoy the sunshine, cause you will never know when the devil will dine.

Mass emotion

For that pain that never seems to subside, for all the anguish on your face that's impossible to hide. For the hurt that you feel deep in your marrow, for all the tears and the sorrow. For the way you turn your sadness into positive vibes, like waves sand and tides. For the mass ocean of love hate and other emotions that run wild in your thoughts, bottle them up so they don't get lost. For the right time to release them into the wild, so they don't feather in your chest waiting to be riled. For the freedom of being whatever i dream, your goals are never as far as they seem.

Can not

Words can not express the feelings in my chest, feelings can not show the love that will always grow, love can not begin to describe the passion I have inside...

Quote

Thanks for being my everything and forever my only thing.

That One

Once you find that one special person that makes you a better human....

Forever

Forever in a day, we stay we keep, be alive be asleep, always thrive always compete, push hard pull close, forever love forever hope, enough hurt enough pain, less thunder less rain, more money more property, less hunger less poverty, a little heart a little hope, minus alcohol minus dope, add compassion add faith, just leave just escape, damn the pain damn the death, all that i need all that is left, the feelings run deep the feelings within, promise not to stray promise not to sin, till forever im yours till forever your mine, until the end of days until the end of time.....

Follow

» I can not cry
» I do not bleed
» I will not hurt
» I never need
» So take my hand
» And follow my lead
» I must push through
» We can succeed
» The world is your playground
» Its meant to enjoy
» Live your life out loud
» On a motorized toy
» Always walk tall
» And display your smile
» Make connections with others
» That will last for a while
» Be that ray of sunshine
» That brightens the sky
» On that little sparkle
» In a baby boys eye
» This is your journey
» Inspire others to follow
» Your heart is full of love
» And will never be hollow

Each other

As we both get lost inside our phone and ignore each other like neither of us were home.
I think to myself, where is the connection that brought us together.
Can we not conversate with each other, tell a joke or try to be clever.
These devices make our daily struggle a little less stressful
But are they even really helpful, or are they a distraction from human interaction.
We use to enjoy each other's company, how did this happen
I wish and pray they would just break, get stolen or run away, then those beautiful eyes would look my way.
Then we could tell each other about our eventless day.
But until we figure out how to cope without our phone, I'll be here in this house right beside you and still feel as if I'm all alone.

Life inside

You took it and made it your own, my heart you will always belong.... From the second you arrived, a special place inside the left and right side of the muscle in my chest that keeps me alive.... My strads beat begins to skip and race, the moment I see that handsome face, all my pains and worries quickly escape and evaporate..... Every ounce of my blood is full of love, pumping through my feet to everything up above thanks to my lil man and I can't get enough.....

Baby

You fit my puzzle,
As crazy as that seems.....
You piss me off,
With laughter in between.....
Your smile catching the one I have,
I love you so much,
You make me so mad.....
Moments I cherish,
Others I try to forget.....
Those beautiful eyes,
That are impossible to resist.....
The second that they vanish,
I've already started to miss.....
The passion that easily,
Outweighs all of the greif.....
Swooping in and saving me,
My baby and I imperfect,
But somehow ment to be.....

Take your place

You are no where near, but I still smell your perfume like you were right here, I can't think of anything else I'll never get my mind right, I made plans of join you tonight, as I put the steel to my head and end my life. Over a week passed by And all I could think about was ending the fight, I would take your place no need to think twice.

How can you be gone, you told me forever, forever wasn't that long, voices telling me I need to move on, deep down inside I'm really not that strong. Just weak can't sleep feeling empty and incomplete, so now with this bullet in my skull and the gun by my feet, the thumping in my chest fades away and my heart takes it's last beat, now we can be forever and I go to sleep.
