Was made for you
Struding down the streets
As they were made for you ,
Feel the softness and silk
As it was made for your skin Energy fill your soul with happiness
As it was made for just you Be you as beautiful as you are ## the none existent

*be free he whispers in her ear Control yourself he yells never understand the feeling so he abuses her of words get out she yells in her head but he cannot hear she loves hard
he pushes harder feeling used but she takes what she can get the heart is dangerous
her farther once said Broken as he is let out your inner beast the world yells as she doesn't accept he doesn't love you he repeats in her head but her pride and her heart is stronger she lives fixing the broken and numb .
but is none existent*

JUST A GIRL

I touch the sky,
Breathing on the earth underneath
My knees get weak
Filling the water in my cup Half empty it feels,
Never full of life
The darkness surrounds me
Greed fills my house of sorrow
Broken bones dead light
A house whom never awakens Bleeding of feeling a girl Full of light
But is destine for darkness
I don't understand
And I what to get out
But who am I

hope you understand

When you live your life so long without someone its hard to let them back inn no hate no regrets i forgave and understood but i what to move away i want to get over that part i what to finish what i have and be done with the pain and the hurt i have enough pain as i cant handle to be betrayed agin i am sorry and i live with that pain and the miss I have a chapter i have to close
And i am still gathering up the pages i am on half the time it took you so i hope you understand sorry much love

Love and i miss you mom

Broken Key

i have the key
the key whom loved Betrayed by the lock smith who tortured
My beloved
Broken locks
Empty doors
He threw me away
No good he said
Sorry he calmed pick me back up and put me were I belong
her key wasn't enough.
a key is never enough Rooms start to fill he try to restore that key can never be restored and want good is a key if it never found its proper place .

..World of lies..

*Be true to yourself
Impossible she mumbles
Drag your mind into it Stretch your soul
be free
this world of two dimension she starts to see three Free at last her mind set as ease Worms start to wonder and the warmth fills her heart Death fills her mouth
as its now impossible for her to mumble*
