Beautiful blue eyes

The most beautiful blue eyes,
The sweetest of smiles,
The kindest of hearts,
The list goes on for miles.

I enjoy every moment together,
Listening to you laugh.
Oh how I dream, how I wish
You could be my other half.

But that can never be.
You are my best friend
And no matter how much I love you
I never want that to end.

I wish I could tell you,
I wish you could see
How much I want you,
I want you to be with me.

To my husband

The first time we met
I wanted you to be my man.
I wanted someone to make me happy
And I trusted that you can.

Your smile so innocent
Your eyes so true.
My heart started pounding.
I knew what I had to do.

I had to make you mine,
And make the world see
Just how truly happy
You make me.

Now I'm the happiest woman
I have you in my life.
Nothing made me happier
Than becoming your wife.

I fall asleep in your arms
Every single night.
So warm and safe
When you hold me tight.

I wake every morning
To your sweet tender kiss.
When I am alone
It is you I always miss.

To spend my life with you
Is all I really want
To be with another

I just can't.

Just friends

When the sun sets on another day
You are once again on my mind
I don't know how it came to be
But I think about you all the time.
When I close my eyes to sleep
I can see your smiling face
The sparkle in your eyes
You have completely taken over my life.
I dream about your warm embrace
What it would be like to spend the day in your arms
The feel of your gentle kiss
Imagining you are mine.
When I wake I want to tell you my dreams
But I doubt you feel the same
How do I tell you my feelings
Without scaring you away.
Why must I feel this way about you
Why can't you feel the same about me
I need to stop torturing myself
And just be happy I have you in my life.
Even if it is just as a friend.

Writers block

Clicking of the pen
As I think what to write
My mind's drawn a blank
The words are out of sight.

There's a thousand things
I want to say
But it seems every word
Has escaped me today.

So I'll finish this poem
With one final thought
Even when you have nothing to say
You will still think a lot.

Heartbroken

"Because we have you
We will always have a friend
No matter what life brings
We know that will never end."

These are the words I wrote
With the flowers that I sent
I don't know what I done
But you destroyed what I meant.

You broke my heart
And you made me cry
The only thing I want to know
Is your reason why.

You were my best friend
Someone I could rely on
You were like a sister
What went wrong?

Even though you're gone
I still think about you
My heart still says love
But my head says forget you.

I don't know which
I should listen to
Both make good points
But I don't know what to do.

I do still love you
I do still care
I want you to know

I will always be there.

Whether you want me or not
I am not going to give up
I am not going to turn my back
I hope we might make up.

But I don't think
That's what you want
You don't feel the same
Maybe it was all a taunt.

Maybe you were only nice
Because of who my husband is
Or maybe for the things I done
I'm not sure which it is.

For two years
You made me feel great
I became more confident
You put me in a better state.

But now you've pushed me away
So I shall leave you alone
But if you do ever need me
Just pick up the phone.

Believe in yourself

You don't need to worry
You have this under control
You can do anything
Especially when you're on a roll.

Sometimes you may forget
Just how wonderful you are
But you need to remember
You are a bright star.

There is no one else
Like you in this world
Who can do what you do
And you should be proud.

Be proud of who you are
And keep that smile
Always be yourself
Live by your own style.

No matter what happens
In this life we live
Don't lose your spark
Give all you can give.

Regardless of what's on social media
No one lives their life in bliss
So when you start to feel down
I want you to remember this:

You are amazing
You are strong
Believe in yourself

Nothing can go wrong.

Pets

When I look into their eyes
I see their little souls
Their little personalities
Each with their own roles

So soft and fluffy
Such lovely cuddles
Helping me through
All kind of troubles

Such sweet little creatures
So full of life
Running around all day
Enjoying the wildlife

Such little troublemakers
Venturing to places
They shouldn't be going
Having little chases

Eating everything
In their sight
Even if it's not food
They try with all their might

An unusual companion
I know this is true
But I truly don't care
Without them I'd be blue

And after all this
I'm willing to bet
You wouldn't think

That chickens make a great pet.

Down

Whenever i start to feel good
Whenever i start to feel happy
There is always someone or Something that brings me down.
Maybe i wasnt meant to be happy
Maybe i wasnt meant to feel loved
I guess i just have to accept it
Accept im always meant to feel down.
What kind of life is that to live
Never feeling happiness again
Always feeling the doom and gloom
Letting everything get me down.
Sometimes i have considered giving up
Not living this life anymore
Giving in to the temptation of death
Anything to stop feeling down.
But i know that i have to keep fighting
Even if just for the few days of good
Sometimes they truly outweigh the bad
Sometimes they're worth being down.
The moments i hear my husband laugh
Or to just see him smile and be happy
Knowing that whenever he holds me
That he will never let me down.

Anxiety

Just because you feel bad now
Doesn't mean you always will.
There will come a day it will pass
And your health will be a clean bill.

You can make it through this
I will always be by your side.
To help you when you need me to
I will never run and hide.

There are good days that are coming
You just have to wait and see.
The happiness that awaits you
That awaits you and me.

So try not to let this get to you
You will make it out the other end.
Just believe in yourself
You'll soon be on the mend.
