ode to a pizza

*oh beautiful pizza pie*it's lovely roundness meets the eyethe dough will make a crusty bed*for ripe tomatoes richly redolives,onions and extra cheese*pepperoni pieces pleasemushrooms?yes.anchovies?NO!*into the oven the pizza will gothe smell of the pizza makes me sigh*oh the aroma of fresh baked piecut it once,cut it twice*i could eat a giant sliceto fortify and satisfy,to gratify and pacify*i will gladly testify,there's nothing like a pizza pie*

I was made for you

i was made for you and you for me,*when i look into your eyes,it's as if i can finally see,you opened my eyes to the beauty of love*and how it was sent to us from abovethe way that your words melt my heart*gives me new hope as our lives together startyour unconditional love gives me tingling chills you can actually see*i was made for you and you for methe emotions i get with the sound of your voice*confirms to my heart that we made the right choicewhen our souls kissed i knew you are the one*and i will be in your arms when all is said and doneI Love You Dion

a lass named michelle

there once was a lass named michelle*who bumped her head when she fellshe fell into a hole*suddenly she was tugged up with a pullfrom a handsome man named orchidee*and a swoon when he seen her did hehe was walking her home,they passed by a bench*and wouldn't you know it there sat goldfinchthey told their story to him*he went home when daylight got dimsat down and chuckled about his friends story*then suddenly started to worryhis friend was alone and instead,orchidee must have bumped his headhe jumped up and exclaimed,i do declare*there was no one else there!

*he realized as he filled glass to the rim*there was nobody there,only him

The Kingdom

The kingdom awaits for those who believe*the love of the lord is what we receiveHe is waiting for us with his arms open wide*to lead us to the Father,with whom in the kingdom we will resideon the streets of gold we will walk upon every day*to honor our Lord,love and respect to him we will payThe kingdom of God is where my future will lead*The Salvation of God is what we all truly need your the one

you are the love of my life and i want nothing more,*when we cannot speak my heart is sore.i love you so much i can say nothing more,i know you feel the same now and forevermore

Happy New Year

Happy New Year to my fellow poets,
My your year be blessed and your hearts be lit,
With the desire to write the whole year through,
So many blessings and best wishes to you.

i need you

i need you like i need air,i yearn to feel your fingers run through my blonde hair.i need to feel the soft caress of your fingertips,and the pressure of your big soft lips

You Say

You say that when we met that I truly changed your life,
Now it's years later and I became your wife.
You are my best friend and my forevermore,
I love you my husband,til our hearts beat no more.
This simple poem is only a fraction of how I feel,
You and I forever, let our kiss seal the deal.

love

love can be many different things,it can be delicate like a butterflies wings,or indifferent like many other things.love can be meaningful ,or hurtful.the very best of all is when god brings two lonely hearts together and joins them into one,complete strangers meet and just know that god has smiled upon them and the hurting is done.so my love,this ones for you,just to say i love you!

stand by you

i promise to stand by you in your times of trouble,~i will be by your side when your trying to stay humble.~i will stand by you when your in need~your words i will always heed~i am your wife,partner and best friend~i promise to stand by you til the very end~i love you my husband.

Love

I used to believe we could choose who we love,
But the most precious comes from God above.
It can be somebody you meet on mypoeticside,or someone you already know,
It can come on fast or may have to grow.
So follow your heart whatever you do,
Listen to God,he may be calling you.
Don't worry yourself,it will be okay,
Who knows you might even find that someone today.

Pumpkin pie

Pumpkin pie reminds me of us,
Perfectly blended like the filling and crust.
Combine us with coffee you get an excellent snack,
No matter what we got each other's back.
I love you like pumpkin pie,
I'm writing this message to the greatest guy.
We're the perfect combination ,you and I,

I need you

I love you,I love you I don't want you to go,
I love you,I love you I just want you know.
I want you,I want you to hold me close tonight,
I need you,I need you this just feels so right.
I need you,I want you to never let me go,
I love you,I love you I just want you to know.

You pick me

You pick me up when I put myself down,
You make me smile when all I can do is frown.
You're there for me in my times of need,
You steer me right and take the lead.
How many do this, just two,
Those who do this is God and you!

Christmas time

Christmas is a time of joy
To see a child open a toy,
A time to light a Christmas tree
Or hear a chorus sing in three,
A time to hear on the roof
The prancing of a reindeer hoof
A time of year we all do love
To see the snow fall from above
Christmas is a time of joy
To celebrate the birth a a baby boy

Our front porch

From our front porch we will watch our children grow,
And meet each day with our roosters crow.
From our front porch we will watch the sunset,
We will even get caught in a rainstorm and get soaking wet.
Our love will grow with each passing day,
And enjoy the call of our front porch blue Jay,
He greets us hello with the days early light,
And sings from afar as we tell him goodnight.
I thank the Lord for this life that you and I share,
I love you so much, this is just another way of saying how much I care.

I love

I love that you're always honest with me
The truth you never hide,
I love we communicate openly
And by God's law we can abide,
I love that you call me your butterfly
And to me I know you're true,
You never have to question why
I love you like I do
Just that Dion
I will forever love you

Moonlight

The stars smile over us as we sway in the moonlight,
As your lips touch mine my heart takes flight.
To that place that only you and I know,
That special place that is all ours and we can be alone.
The moonlight reflects in my eyes as they shimmer with tears,
Our love has only gotten stronger throughout the years.
We had our ups and we know there will be downs,
We will savor everything,touch,feel and sound.
We united as one on that unforgettable night,
That we got lost in each other dancing in the moonlight.

I choose to fight

All the hatred breaks my heart,
This isn't what God intended from the start.
All of the violence because the color of skin,
I don't understand why it's how it has always been.
The wars and race for power,
Now is the time, this is the hour.
To work together with God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit,
I choose God and am in it to win it.
If we all work together to make things right so what do you say, will you fight the good fight

Things that annoy me

There are things in life that annoy me,
Like the fact that Nobody is actually free.
Not to be allowed to express ourself,
And having to put our happiness up on a shelf.
Those who condemn others for their sexuality,
And others that refuse to face reality.
That we are free to love who we want.regardless of their race,
And the ones who discriminate, their actions are truly a disgrace.
God loves us no matter who we are,
Even though we don't deserve it,by far.

Under the stars

As we lay beneath the star strewn sky,
Our fire warms us that we have burning inside.
Husband and wife, never another,
We hold each other close getting lost in one another.
Every day that passes,our love grows and grows,
How deep does it flow,only God knows.
He made me for you and you for me,
Thank you my love for setting this Butterfly free.

The Secret

The Secret to a great marriage is understanding and honestly,
But also takes a good amount of humility.
Sex and attraction,
Are a beautiful distraction.
You must be able to speak your mind,
When you have found your soulmate, be willing to leave the old you behind.
Keep moving forward, never go to bed angry,
You will make it, as my husband says, Persistence is Key.
Always have faith and put God first,
If you both drink from the cup of Jesus, neither will thirst.
You will make it through the trying times,
You will always be in love, not only sometimes

Love takes time

Love takes time and understanding,
Love shouldn't be hurtful or demanding.
Love takes time to grow,
The funny thing with love is that when it's true, you just know.
Love takes commitment and compromise,
But it also takes God to open your eyes.
Love takes time and a guiding light,
To lighten your path on the darkest of nights.
Love takes time and is worth the wait,
To find the right one, your soulmate

Speaking to my heart

As we live in bed miles apart, your heart is speaking to mine,
Saying that when I get home, we'll celebrate with roses and wine.
Been long time gone but I'm coming home,
Down the pier and on the beach we will roam.
We will hold hands strolling back home to warm in front of the fire,,
There you are all a glow, hearts beating our unspoken desire.
I can feel it in my heart as if I'm really there,
Speaking to my heart, we make a perfect pair,
Our love will last a lifetime ,I know we have the faith it will,
I hope this conveys at least a fraction of how I feel

We three

We are in church to say I do,
In this moment,all that matters is me and you.
Our love will last for eternity,
Our love truly setting us free.
Me , you and God,it will always be,
The sacred love that we share, between we three.
His plan in motion led you to me,
Right here on MPS,our love will forever be.
Or love started here and others will see.
The intimate relationship we share between we three,
Will hopefully inspire others to see what they can be.
By trusting in God,it brought your sweet love to me,
I'm so blessed for the connection between we three.

Life together

When I think about our life together,
My heart seems to become light as a feather.
Worries evaporate into thin air,
When you show how very much you care.
By whispering sweet nothings into my ear,
Shows that when I'm with you, I have nothing to fear.
The love that's deep within us just grows and grows,
It gives me chills when your voice gets real low.
The Lord united us and we became one,
Do I have any doubts, NO, for you are the one

My thanks to the Lord

Lord, thank you for saving me,
From a life of sin and setting me free.
You saved me from being bound and chained,
And showed what receiving your salvation has gained.
You have given me love and a life worth living,
And gave me want a life full of giving,
Giving to to the less fortunate than me,
You gave me the chance to set my heart free.
Since I received you into my heart,
Lord you have given me a fresh new start.
Since I received you into my heart, I decided to give my life to you,
To form it and mold me into anything you wanted to.
I know you have a plan, a job for me to do,
So you have given me a husband, who also loves you.
Us two together will do the best that we can,
To share the gospel throughout the lands.
Your gift of poetry has overtaken us both, he and I,
To spread that the coming of Christ is nigh

What is love

As we spread the Gospel through every nation,
As believers of Christ Jesus, we are all a congregation.
One family spreading the Word,
Fighting off evil with His Holy sword.
His life was laid down for our sins,
For Him, I would walk through the lion's den.
For our Salvation, Christ paid the price,
Even though He knew that Peter would deny Him thrice.
We are selfish and sinners, we don't deserve God's love,
But He loves so much He gave His only begotten son, so that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life.
To me that is love, the love of our maker, the love of God.
He gave us His son, Jesus Christ, to pay for our sins, so that we can be with Him in the Heavenly Kingdom
That my brothers and sisters is LOVE

God provides

God provides in many different ways,
It might be immediately or may take days.
It might be a kind words from a friend,
Or a life long love, that will never end,
When the time is right God will provide,
Sometimes we need someone to whom we can confide.
No matter what,He will always prevail,
Are our answers always clear, sometimes it's hard to tell.
Unless we truly know God,and are faithful and true,
And for those who doesn't believe,He has always loved you

Rejoice

The Lord is coming soon, lower your head and rejoice,
Jesus will be here soon, praise God, and lift up your voice.
We are God's Army, fighting in the name of Christ,
Spreading the Gospel, with all our might.
Preaching the word, far and wide,
Sinners come to Jesus, because you cannot hide.
He knows who we are, every single one,
He will separate the goats from His sheep, when all is said and done.
He will banish evil, once and for all,
Shhhh, listen carefully, can you hear His call?

Lamb of God

The lamb of God died for all of our sins,
To save us all from the trouble we're in.
The death we would face and oh,,the strife,
But by accepting God's gift,we receive everlasting life.
Jesus said "nobody comes to the Father but by me"
This is our gift,and it's totally free

In Jesus's name

All that I do is in Jesus's name,
And I pray that you do the same.
For it is because of Jesus that we're all alive,
And for His sacrifice, that we will survive,
The ultimate battle of good and evil,
The devil controls much, but is heading for upheaval.
We're heaven's army, and will surely take part,
In this moment of time that will give us a new start.
Everything you do, do it in Jesus's name,
For if you don't, you have only yourself to blame.

Restless hearts

Restless hearts beat wildly,
Like the tempo of a drum, to put mildly
The steady thump, thump, thump,
Makes the chest go jump, jump, jump.
You can feel it in your soul, you can feel it in your bones,
It feels like your stomach is filled up with stones.
When you find that special someone, that you can't live without,
Your restless hearts will calm down, without giving you any doubts
Take it from me, for I truly know,
When you meet your perfect match, your face will truly glow

Cupid's arrow

Cupid's arrow was aimed true and true,
When love struck my heart and led me to you,
Into your heart and into your arms,
Your embrace, my love, keeping me safe from harm.
When your lips brush mine, I get an electric shock,
Your love, my husband, comes through each time we talk.
I will love you Dion, for the rest of all time,
So I wanted to tell you through this little rhyme

Open plains

A Clydesdale gallops across the open plains,
The wind whipping through his tail and mane,
He runs ahead to get ahead of his herd,
Occasionally glancing up to see a majestic bird,
The mighty eagle soars in the air keeping pace,
Two unlikely souls enjoying each other in the wide open space.
Two of God's creatures enjoying the open plains,
Stay ever together even in the torrential rains.
My love this is us being wild and free,
Not a care in the world, except you and me

Our island

Our island is in the midst the vast blue sea,
It is a place you built for you and me,
It is ours, and ours alone,
Doesn't have internet nor a phone,
It's a place we can go with no interruptions,
And we can take a break from this worlds corruptions.
We can make love under the stars,
No people in sight,all else is afar,
So my love,take us to this place that you built for me,
At least for a few days,we will be worryfree

Satan the liar

Satan is surely the liar,
His only dream is to rise higher,
Higher than God,our Almighty King,
To who we praise and worship and sing,
We sing of His greatness we sing songs f His love,
And the gift of salvation,freely given from up above,
Satan will NEVER rise higher,
Go back to hell,Satan the liar

Confused

Many Christians become confused,
That being a believer is easy,well the truth is, it's hard,harder than not believing in God
But the reward for being ever faithful,is everlasting life,we won't truly die,our bodies will sure,but our souls,we go on forever
In heaven.
No pain,only tears of joy.can you imagine that.
Everlasting life,.
So the hard work is well worth it

My heart sings

To you Lord,my heart sings,
For you give me shelter under your mighty wings,
I take refuge behind your mighty shield,
My will,oh Lord,to you I yield,
Christ Jesus ,you died to wash my sins clean,
In times of trouble,it is on you I lean.
My sins kept rising like a flood,
But then I found you,and was washed by your blood

Love at first sight

I never really believed in love at first sight,
But God proved me wrong on that fateful night,
The night we met was like no other,
It was when I knew that there wasn't another,
I know that we met was because of our Lord,
You give me strength and purpose, someone to walk toward,
Love at first sight brought us together,
Yours and my love, my husband, will last forever

My Faith

Lord, there was a time when I didn't know you,
I was lost and broken, I didn't know what to do.
You shined your light down and lit up my path,
At that moment, I knew that I was safe from Satan's wrath.
I prayed to you and received Salvation's grace,
I know that someday I will see your glorious face,
Lord, thank you for my husband, new friends and for your love,
I know my riches are not here but in Heaven above.
My Faith will rest in you forevermore,
Lord, your precious love is my ultimate reward

Keep fighting

Keep fighting for what you know is right,
Keep fighting my friends,even into the night.
Fighting for the Lord,we can never lose,
Though every person has the right to choose.
The choice between wrong and right,
Will determine the side we're on during the Lords holy fight
Keep fighting , keep pushing towards Jesus's holy light,
Never give up, don't give in,keep fighting the good fight

Most important

Faith in the Lord God Almighty, is the most important thing,
If you don't have it, sorrow is what the devil will bring,
He is the greatest deceiver of all,
Having no faith in God, you're heading for a devastating fall,
A fall from glory and a fall from grace,
Are you ready to spend eternity in hell, are you willing to bring this disgrace,
I pray for all of you with souls that are lost,
Think long and hard, are you ready to count that cost

The Day

The Day our returns will be a great day indeed,
Every knee will bow and every eye will see,
The return of Jesus Christ on a pure white horse,
To bring peace and glory to us believers of course.
He will banish Satan to hell bound in chains,
Hope faith and love is what remains.
We will worship our God who saved us out of the devil's grasping claws,
And now we will live in peace not scarred or flawed.
I don't know about you but I excited for this day,
And I will reside with Him for forever and a day

A prayer for Ukraine

Oh, Heavenly Father, I pray for peace inn Ukraine,

I pray that you over take the evil that is raining down on your children

Please Lord , I pray that you prevent the vileness of Vladimir Putin fall into the pit of hell,he is a man of Satan and don't deserve the power that he wants.

We believe you will deliver us from ourselves and the devil's advocate

Heavenly Father, I pray that you deliver Ukraine from the devil's hand,an peace to them once again

In Jesus's name I pray, AMEN

Tonight

If I had a way, I would come to you tonight,
My love, it is the only thing that feels right,
The longer we're apart, our love is still grows,
When will we be together, only the good Lord knows,
As the time passes, I ask myself why,
We're so far apart, but you remind me I'll always be your butterfly.
It doesn't matter when, only that we will,
Be together soon, this we can both feel,
My love, I so want to pack up and go,
I long to be in your arms and let our love flow,
So Dion, I'm writing this poem to you,
I know that you love me, and feel this way too

Poetry

Thank you Lord for the gift to write,
I love writing poetry about your glorious might,
The grace of your perfect love,
Your gentleness of a snow white dove,
The wrath of your anger strikes fear in men,
But yet if we love you, the enemy can never win,
Your unfailing love is your gift of grace,
Lord, I pray that to you, I'm not a disgrace,
Thank you Lord for the poetry,
And the precious gift of setting my heart free

Stand together

We must stand together,we must stay strong,
For God will one-day right everything that is wrong,
He will banish our enemies into the deepest pits of hell,
Down to the devil's domain,to where he and his fallen angels fell,
The Lord will bring the righteous to the foot of His heavenly throne,
And give us rewards for the faith we have shown,
We do not deserve the rewards he will bestow upon us,
He didn't have to save us,we could have returned to dust,
But He loves us so much,He gave His only begotten son,
So that whosoever believeth in Him,shall not perish but have everlasting life,for God is Almighty and the only true one,
So we must stand together because it's theres one way,
The path to Heaven is clear, Christ Jesus is coming back one day

Spring morning

From our front porch swing,
We are sipping on coffee, welcoming spring,
The cool crisp air,gives us bit of a chill,
So we go inside to sit by our window sill.
Our dogs are on the porch laying in the sun,
As our horses are in the field having a little run,
The beautiful spring morning,is waking up the daisies,
As the smoke from our chimney is making it a little hazy,
The air warms up and bringing out the fragrance of a fresh spring day,
Let's relax and soak up the warm suns ray

A token of my love

I sent you a picture as a token of my love,
You and I fit together like a hand in a comfy glove,
You make me feel all warm and fuzzy inside,
Dion, in my heart you will always reside,
I write you poetry, as another token of my love,
Which will be on MPS, as allowed from above,
I will be forever thankful to my poetic side, for our meeting and sharing our beautiful life,
God led me here and we made a love connection,
I'm thankful to God for bringing us gentle loving affection

You are

You are my guiding light, when darkness takes over the land,
You are the steadying touch to my shaking hand,
You are the watchful eye that keeps me safe at night,
You wipe my tears away, when I can't help but weep,
You are my crutch when I fall down,
You are the happiness that overtakes me every time I frown,
Thank you for loving me for who I truly am,
Thank you for being patient with me, and helping me keep my eyes on the Lamb

I cry

As I sit and think about the world today, I cry,
Despite its beauty, it has become ugly, you cannot deny,
It was made to be beautiful and free, but it's not, so I cry,
Nobody else but only God's grace, we must rely,
To bring the beauty and peace back once more,
If it's a lost cause, then for what are we fighting for,
I think back to the day that the Lord forgave me, I cry,
But this time tears of joy, for that day God had set my heart free

You fill my heart

You fill my heart with joy,you fill my heart heart with laughter,
You my love,are my happily ever after,
You fill my heart with love,you fill m heart with glee,
It brings me comfort,to know that you and I will always be,
We've never had an argument, we've never had a fight,
Honey,you never bring me darkness , only loving light,
I love you so much,words cannot convey,
They way I feel about you,my love, I can't think of the words to say,
The Lord has married us in His Holy light,
Let us do everything in His name and delight

In the country

In the country is where to go to find peace,
You can let go of your troubles and find release,
Free from the troubles that invade your heart,
Giving yourself a fresh start,
Walking along with your dog at your side,
Watching the birds and seeing the flowers, feeling your troubles ebb, like an outgoing tide,
Rejoice in the beauty that the Lord has made,
In all the chaos, the beauty will never fade,
When your nerves and emotions are all uptight and no peace to be found,
Just remember my friend, that God has you and that you're Heaven bound

Oh,My Soul

Oh my soul,cry out to the Lord,
To hide my eyes from the ugliness of what His utopia has become,
Because when I hear of all of shootings and racial discrimination of men,
And the hatred that burns behind the eyes of Vladimir Putin,
My soul cry's out to to you oh Lord,
To protect the innocents with your shining sword,
Extinguish the fire that burns out of place,
Oh Lord we fall down to worship your might and grace,
Thank you God for letting my soul free once more,
Lord, I I'm not longer chained and bound crying on the floor,
Oh Lord, I'm ever so humbled by your loving commands,
Just know my Lord, I am not deserving of your love that is spread across the lands,
But ever so grateful that you took my hand,
You once said to me,,,do not worry my child,
You are loving and faithful,your dreams will be granted, just give it a little while,
Oh my soul, you've been saved by the Lord Most High,
God said, don't fret my child, just spread my word far and wide,
In the name of Jesus Christ I pray, AMEN

Ambassadors of God

We God's children are ambassadors of God,
Sometimes we greet each other with just a little nod,
It's our job not to give up on the lost,
Before their hearts get colder and gets covered in frost,
Those that turned from God is actually worse off than the non believers,
Because they once was faithful, but got taken by the great deceivers,
They fell to the wayside off the golden path,
If they don't turn back to God, they will have to face the Lords wrath,
So we must band together and never give up,
Until the day the Lord returns and their time will be up,
Right now there's still time to repent and believe,
That the Savior Jesus Christ is coming, and Salvation receive

Flesh and blood

Jesus once said eat of my flesh and drink of my blood and you will never hunger or thirst again,
Meaning that we believe in the word of God, and believe in Jesus Christ we will not die,
Sure our bodies will but our souls will not, we will be asked to Heaven,
And have a new body and mind that can take in the wonders of God, our earthly selves cannot conceive or understand heavenly things, which is partly why we need new minds,
We will receive new bodies, free from sin, pure and worthy of God's glorious kingdom,
He is preparing our new home as we speak, our mansions are getting near completion, for Jesus Christ will be returning in the clouds literally at any moment
No man knows the day or hour of the return of the Son of Man, not the son or angels, only the Father,
So are you prepared to accept the sacrifice of the flesh and blood of Christ Jesus,
Are you ready for His glorious arrival

Light n the darkness

Lord,you are the light on the darkest I'd nights,
You are the candle that lights our way,in our times o fright,
Lord,you are the rock, upon which I build my foundation,
You are known and loved in every nation,
Lord,your name is glory and power,
That chases the demons and makes them cower,
Lord,you are the light in our weakest hour,
You are the wisdom and love,you have the awesome power,
To rid the world of the wicked

God's Loving Arms

There is only one true King, and He rules from above,
Nurturing and raising us, in His ever abiding love,
Regardless of how much wickedness tries to rule, when all is said and done,
Nobody can compare to God, no, not one,
God's loving arms, catch us when we fall,
Our Father always corrects us each time we drop the ball,
He brings us back into His loving arms,
Loving and shielding us from Satan's charms,
For He will deceive many, and many will fall,
Fall away from the love of the Lord, and be deaf to His call,
He drives every tear that we may cry,
It's because He loves us unconditionally, is the reason why,
So I will answer God's call, if it's the last thing I do,
I will open the door when my redeemer knocks, how about you?

Let go of fear

In this world we are consumed by fear,
Any person that has ears,let them hear,
We need to learn how to let go of fear,
And let our Almighty Father dry our every tear,
Fear is a product of Satan the Liar,
Who wants to bring us lower so he could be higher,
Wants us to cower down and cry,
He wants to get into our heads and urge us to lie,
But God lifts us up to raise to new heights,
And show the deceiver the power of His awesome might,
So let go of fear to banish the evilest one,
And show him once and for all that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is truly the Messiah,and has truly won

The house that love built

The house that love built, is like no other one,
It is filled with love, laughter and fun,
We need never fight and we hardly ever argue,
We never go to bed angry and always say I love you,
We share responsibilities, split down the middle,
When you want to surprise me, you give me a hint by telling me a riddle,
We built our by by our unconditional love,
And remember this my love, our marriage is truly blessed from God above

God has a plan

God has a plan for us, each and every one,
It may not be what we planned, but it's beneficial to us, when all is said and done,
He knew us before we were even conceived,
And His plan will begin before God's grace is received,
I will follow God's plan for me to a tee,
I don't know where I will end up but I can be sure everything will work out perfectly for me

A good day

You know you will have a good day when you live in the Lord,
He is the righteous light to work towards,
You may go backwards, you may fall down,
But when you stick with Him, you will receive at least one crown,
Keep moving forward and don't look back,
Back to your past, look towards the heavens and relax,
So make the decision to give your life a turn,
And throw the devil into the flames to forever burn,
Today is a good day to turn to the Lord,
And immerse yourself into God's teaching and something great to turn toward

Beautifully Broken

This is for the beautifully broken,
Who desperately need just a kind words spoken,
This is for the homeless on the street,
Who are wearing worn out shoes on their feet,
This is for the ones who feel alone,
And cannot feel the love that God has shown,
There's hope for the hopeless, and rest for the weary,
A shoulder to cry on when you're feeling all teary,
There's a way to escape the hell you're going through,
Cry to Jesus Christ and he will help you,
You beautifully broken are unconditionally loved,
By our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ above

You'll be okay

Give yourself to the Lord, you'll be okay,
If you do this, God will save you today,
Keep moving forward, don't turn away,
Don't worry, you'll be okay,
He will ward off the devil, and keep the dark clouds at Bay,
Trust in the Lords love, and you'll be okay
Turn from the ways of your past,
And you will receive the greatest love of all, a true love that will last

Today is the day,

Today is the day that the Lord could return,
If you haven't already, crack open your Bible and learn,
Learn the words of God, and get to truly know Him,
Receive the path to Heaven, instead of being condemned,
He will raise you up to stand on your own,
Instead of being afraid to move and your chances are blown,
So lay your life down before the Holy One,
Because He wants you with Him, and loves you a ton,
So will you join me in praising God's Holy presence,
Tell me, is there any other choice that truly makes sense?

God leads us

God leads us to where we are supposed to be,
Here or there, I will follow wherever He may lead me,
We are all different, each and every one of us,
Our paths will cross someday, as long as in God we trust,
Different lives, different countries and places,
We never know what may come of the people we meet, when we meet new faces,
Not all will agree with my point of view,
But still, even with our differences, I still would help you,
In any way that I am able, I will surely try,
To aide those in need and assist them to fly,
Be who you are , never mind the fuss,
Because God puts where he needs us most, so God leads us

Dion

Dion my husband, I love you so much,
You have no idea how I long for your touch,
Just the sensation of your hand in mine,
My love, I will be walking on cloud nine,
I yearn to see the sunset reflect in your eyes,
So full of love for me, it's I like a beautiful sunrise,
I want you to wrap me in your arms, and never let me go,
I want to wear your scent forever, how I love you so.,
My love, I'm yours forever and my love will always glow

Prayers

One of our MPS family needs your prayers,
Prayers for healing and recovery,
The faith that she has is a recent discovery,
Prayers that our Lord,holds her in His mighty arms,
And keeps her safe from the devil's harm,
She needs your prayers,now more than ever,
And may her bond to God, never be severed,
Thank you all for your prayers

The calling

We each have a gift to claim,
Can you hear Jesus calling out your name,
Have you ever felt so hopeless that you felt as if you were falling,
That's the Lord saying you need Him, can you feel Jesus calling,
Have you ever been so low, that you don't feel like you can climb out,
You need to trust God, He will help you out,
So ready yourself and quit stalling,
Because my friends, believe it or not, Jesus Christ is calling

The calling

We each have a gift to claim,
Can you hear Jesus calling out your name,
Have you ever felt so hopeless that you felt as if you were falling,
That's the Lord saying you need Him, can you feel Jesus calling,
Have you ever been so low, that you don't feel like you can climb out,
You need to trust God, He will help you out,
So ready yourself and quit stalling,
Because my friends, believe it or not, Jesus Christ is calling

The Day Has Come

The Day Has come to choose your side,
Will you trust in God, or continue on the devil's ride,
The details ride is full of pain and fury,
The door to heaven is slowly closing, so you better hurry,
Once it is closed it will not open again,
Put your trust into God and you will make it in,
Through His open door,
You will have life and be joyous forevermore,
The Day Has come to choose your everlasting fate,
Will you enter through Heaven's door, or will you be there to late

It doesn't matter

It doesn't matter what the haters say,
All that matters is that I belong to God in every way,
You say that I'm delusional,
But I forgive you Dusk, you're just being yourself, as usual,
You say that I'm hearing voices, you're right,
I'm hearing my Lord teaching me wrong from right,
At least, I write with my heart,
Instead of spew hatred towards others, like a poisonous dart,
It doesn't matter at all, what you think about me ,
At least I'm not chained to Satan, God set me free

Our Lord and Savior

Our Lord and Savior is Christ Jesus,
He loves us so much that He gave His life for us,
All true believers are children of the One True God,
We are aided by His staff and rod,
Our Shepard will separate His sheep from the goats,
And we will receive pristine white coats,
No hate, no wickedness or pain,
No darkness, no bullying and nobody living in vain,
All will be together living in peace,
All of our worries will surely cease,
All my trust is in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ,
And will live forever in harmony in His Holy light

Life before God

My life before you Lord, was a living hell,
All I wanted to do was hit and yell,
I went through things, that I blamed you for,
Why my insides and mind were tore,
I considered suicide more than my share,
I didn't feel like you or anybody cared,
The day I found you ,I found love,
It really exists, directly from above,
Since then I have gotten a new start,
You have given me so much, I owe you my heart

Survival

The Drs give her a 40% survival rate
Taking her off life support tomorrow, and see what is her fate,
I pray that she makes it, I know that she will fight,
For she is surrounded in Jesus Christ's light,
In the ICU, no family or many that care,
I urge you to pray for Rubyrae, and help her fight off the devil's snare,

The voice

The voice you hear in the dark of night,
Is the voice of God saying you will be alright,
Saying that if you cry out to Him, he will be right there,
To help you and hold , when you need tender loving care.
You can hear Him speak, if you really listen hard,
The things He will say, against Satan, will keep you on guard,
Aware of the devil's tricks and all of his lies,
So that you will be ready , his advances denies.
Next time you hear an unspoken voice,
Look up my friends, and faithfully rejoice

Healing love

When ever we feel alone and it is help we seek,
Just open your heart to God, and take a peek,
A look into His Holy Kingdom is all that some need,
In order to open the door for God, and let His love feed,
Feed your heart and heal your soul,
Let His healing love make you whole,
Read God's word and open your mind,
To understand His might and leave wickedness behind,
Let God's healing love lift you up high,
And let yourself be free and trust in the great by and by

Our road trips

We will go on many road trips, just you and I,
Across different states, county's and towns,
Where are we going, who cares, it's just us Crowns,
We will go wherever the wind might take us to,
And we do anything that we want to do,
We will visit the Grand Canyon and the great Rio Grande,
We travel through the desert and watch the sun set in the sand,
We can both get wet looking at Niagara Falls,
Then return home to Montana and hear our eagle's call,
Now that we're home, let's go upstairs to bed,
I'm so thankful to be your wife, and that we're finally wed

Moonlight in our garden

The moonlight in our garden illuminates our silhouettes,
As we dance slowly, listening to romantic duets,
We dance among our flowers,
Brushing against them, releasing the aroma that surrounds us for hours,
As we sway from side to side, my hair brushes your cheek,
Your eyes so full of love, my knees are getting weak,
I love you Dion, more than with each passing day,
I want you to know that you complete me in every single way

A voice from heaven

A voice from heaven speaks to our heart_
Offering life and salvation, which gives us a fresh start,
Our sins are erased,our debt is paid,
By the blood of Christ,and his life that he laid,
So we would be forgiven and have life eternal,
And be delivered from Satan's charms and his burning inferno,
We must remember that Satan was an angel, before he thought he deserved God's throne,
And he was cast out of heaven,,into the Earth ,his actions is evil prone,
His ultimate goal is to steal God's true believers,
And goes about this by sending his smooth talking deceivers,
Listen to the voice from heaven,and accept God's grace,
And rebuke the devil,and join God's glorifying race

We Are One

My love,you and I have become one,
Brought together by God and His only son,
I came to MPS to make my poetry known,
But to your profile is where I was shown,
Foreverjesus6,I will never forget,
The way that it was when you and I met,
You commented on my first poem that I posted here,
You were so kind and sweet I actually shed a tear,
Then we became friends and our love grew from there,
Many secrets were shared between us in our sleepless nights,
Pursuing Her was the first poem you wrote for me, when I first read it my heart took flight,
Now it's years later and now I'm your wife,
Sweetheart,thank you for making us a fantastic life,
Now with God's blessings we have become one,
Watched over and loved by God and His Only Son.

Lord, I put you first

Lord, I put you first in my life above all,
Above my marriage, and my husband, because I've heard your call,
Lord, I trust in you, through thick and thin,
And I know that you will protect me, for you are the forgiver of sin,
We know if we both keep you first, our marriage will survive,
And when Satan tries to tear us apart, our love you will revive,
Lord, we put you first in all that we do,
Thank you for loving us Lord, we will forever belong to you

Forever

Honey, you are my Forever,
Have I ever been untruthful with you, Never,
I've told you all of my secrets, and you told me yours too,
Thank you for understanding my love,our love is so new,
We were both hurting from our past,oh yes we was,
Now we love each other more anyone else does.
We promised to be completely open with one another,right from the start,
Four years later, and we captured each other's heart,
We can navigate our ship through all the stormy weather,
Dion I love you, and I will forever

Who am I

Who am I, but a child lost and afraid,
I am a child of God, and I'm perfectly made,
Who am I, but an imprisoned person that was falsely accused,
I am a child of God, whose innocence was refused,
Who am I, but somebody that doesn't have a home,
I'm a Christian woman, and among the angels, I will roam

Sometimes

Sometimes we feel chained and bound,
And when we feel lost we always get found,
Sometimes we feel depressed and alone,
But recognize love when it is shown,
It may be from a stranger reaching out,
To ease your mind and erase your doubt,
Sometimes love from unexpected places,
It might be emitted by passing smiling faces,
So when love comes by to rescue your troubled day,
Reach out to accept it, instead of turning away

An act of kindness

A simple smile can change the life of anyone,
Any kindness can be a saving grace when all is said and done,
Just a please or think you can go along way,
Especially to somebody who is having a hard day,
A simple act of kindness can change the world today,
No matter what we believe, we need to be nice,
Just a little smile will do to break the ice,
Next time you come across another that seems down and out,
Stop and say hi and let them know that there's always hope, they're not down for the count

Ruby

Ruby is a poet here who's had a tough life,
She has had her share of heartache and strife,
Her dad has passed and her mom has too,
Leaving her alone and not knowing what to do,
She resorted to attempting suicide and she not to eat,
It seemed to get the best of her, and the devil wouldn't be beat,
But she met some people here, that would help lift her up her belief,
She started listening to Dion's podcast, which brought her much relief,
She deprived her body so much, it just collapsed,
Now she's in the hospital, about a month has lapsed,
She was having some trouble and was put on life support to,
All that we could do was pray for Ruby, what else could we do,
But our prayers have been answered, she is starting to recover,
Thank you to all who prayed and helping her guardian angel hover,

Within us

Within us all there is a light
With what we believe, determines how bright,
Is our light dim, so we disturb other,
Or does it shine bright, announcing we are sisters and brothers,
Does it light up a room on the darkest of night,
Or stay hidden and dim out of judgemental fright,
We must not be afraid of being judged and laughed at,
Let your light shine brightly and Let it emits,
The love of God is within us all,
We just have to feed the flame letting it grow to encompass us all

Be still

Stand strong in your faith, and let your heart be still,
Place your troubles at Gods feet, and rid of them He will,
Be still, and let go of your transgressions,
Stop all of the hatred, it's a deadly obsession,
Be still, and love all of God children,
Even though it is human nature that shelters sin
Be still and rebuke the devil and his demonic minions,
Including the wicked and selfish of opinions,
Love is of God,our bright and shining sun,
Worship and praise Him, for He is the only one,
There's was none before God, and will be none after,
He will always be here for us, giving us love and laughter,
If one thinks God doesn't exist,think again,
Because not believing in our Lord is surely a sin,
Rethink the choice that was made about the Lord,, before it's to late,
If one don't, then they are hellbound, and that is their fate,
God,our Father, is very patient with us,
His judgement is final,rightly and just

Spread your wings

Spread your wings and be who you are,
Don't lose yourself in opinions, and you'll find yourself afar,
Far from the truth and being someone you're not,
Spread your wings and fly, what have you to lose, give it a shot,
You might be surprised by the acceptance you will receive,
Just by being your own true self, and not attempting to deceive,
Spread your wings and be who you want to be,
Free yourself from peer pressure and allow yourself to be free

Paths crossed

Whenever we meet someone new, our paths crossed for a reason,
Maybe we will impact their lives in an inspirational way, maybe it's just the right season,
Nobody we connect with is by chance alone,
We might meet this person by a wrong number call from the phone,
We might meet the love of our lives, on a poetry website,
You never know what may happen, just know that God's timing is always right,
Paths crossed happens every day,
Will you impact someone's life today, only the Lord can say,
Next time you meet someone new,
Think about the Lord, and that He led them to you

God's canvas

Colors of the world are as beautiful as can be,
God has made them for you to enjoy and for me,
The world is God's canvas and the colors are His paint,
The vileness that develops, the colors,it cannot taint,
He paints the Earth, with browns, greens and blues,
Putting the utmost care into His work, making the perfect hues,
The world is God's canvas, and we are His masterpiece,
He painted us in His image and our beauty will never cease,
Because God loves us so much,we have all been perfectly made,
And His love for His creations, will never, ever fade,
Next time you're out and about, take the time to look around,
At God's canvas of the world, and His true masterpiece will be found

Christ's resurrection

This Easter, remember the resurrection of Jesus Christ, our savior and Lord,
To be separated from Him, nobody can really afford,
He died on the cross, so that we wouldn't be separated from Him,
It was a plan from the beginning of time, not made on a whim,
His was beaten and bruised, ridiculed and spat at,
But Jesus endured this knowing the point that His life was at,
He died on the cross, knowing that He would rise,
To lay in the tomb and be resurrected on the third day, many would soon realize,
He revealed himself to His disciples and gave them His power to carry on in His place,
Sharing the Gospel, healing and giving everyone a chance to see His face,
So this Easter remember our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and forever give yourself over to Him and receive God's Amazing Grace

The sacrifice

Jesus Christ gave His life as a sacrifice,
So that we can be freed from the devil's vice,
Our sins were forgiven when His blood was spilled,
And God's plan could be fulfilled,
If we believe in the son then we believe in the Father,
And if we trust in Him, we will not falter,
We must read the Bible, and His words in any way, we must never alter,
His sacrifice was freely given for us,
And to be with Him, we must give Him our full trust,
When we take that step, our entire lives will change,
Our new life ahead and our place in Heaven, Jesus will arrange,
This Easter day, please remember His sacrifice,
And give God your heart, instead of taking a chance and rolling the dice

Where are you?

Where are you at Ruby,we are all worried sick,
Please let Emma, Dion or I know,our emotions are thick,
When you came up missing yesterday, Emma searched everywhere we could think,
Please, what are we missing, what is the missing link,
Where are you at Ruby, where oh where did you run off to,
Please tell one of us Ruby,we love you,
If you are reading this, and are alright, please let me know,
You're part of our family now, I swear to you,we are most definitely not a foe,
Where are you at Ruby, Lord, let her be ok,
I guess all that we can do guys, is come together and pray,
Lord give Ruby protection wherever she's at,
Love her and hold her, will you please do that,
Lord lead us to Ruby, with your Holy hand,
We searched everything we could think of, across the land

,We trust in you Lord,you can bring Ruby home,lead her someplace safe,
In Jesus name we pray AMEN

Time

There is a time for everything, a time for love,
A time to pray earnestly to the good Lord up above,
A time for peace,
A time to let go of the deceased,
A time for tears,
A time to let go of our fears,
A time to rejoice,
A time to make a choice,
There is never enough time to live like we should,
Because we are all too busy, just surviving however we could,
If only we had the time to live our lives right,
Every person on earth would sparkle in the Lord's loving light

Missing

Something is missing in this world that everyone needs,
Love your neighbor, is something we should heed,
People go missing everyday,
If only we loved one another, we would know what to say,
To bring them comfort and ease their tired minds,
So that they will not run away, and leave loved ones behind,
Missing are the right words to say,
That will bring them home today,
Ruby, if you're reading this, then you are ok,
Please let someone know where you are, and we can start to heal together, today

The Lord

The Lord is our Heavenly Father and can save all,
When we start to lose ourselves, He will find us, and not let us fall,
If we completely invest ourselves to our one and only Lord,
He will not leave us under any accord,
He will hold and protect us, He will not let us go,
Because we are His children and He will always show,
His love for us in many different ways,
He will lead us into the sun, or give us shelter on the stormy days,
Time is almost gone, the time is now to make the fateful choice,
Will we stay quiet and hide, NO, I will lift up my voice,
I will claim aloud that I belong to the Lord,
Because the only other choice is hell, and I refuse to be a part of Satan's hourde

Dusk arising

I am blocked so this is the only way to get through,
I love your work, and want to apologize to you,
I'm sorry that we can't agree,
On somethings, and judging you was wrong of me,
You believe what you do, because of a heartbreaking reason,
There was a time when you had faith in God, in another season,
Your heart was shattered into a million pieces and you fell to your knee, I understand dusk how you felt, I'm asking if you will forgive me

Worry not

Worry not my friend because God has got you,
He has a plan for you, bigger than we can imagine, for you to do,
You are literally a walking miracle, God has brought you back,
You are loved my dear, there is nothing that you lack,
You are beautiful inside and out,
Believe that you will overcome this, believe without a doubt,
Pray for healing and for the demons to go away,
Believe that God will cast them out, and He can today,
Give yourself to God, and trust Him completely,
You will finally find peace and be able to live resolutely,
I'm so thankful that you are back, blessing us all again,
Trust me, my girl, with God, you will only win,

The road less traveled

It's difficult to stick to the road less traveled,
It's going to be a bumpy ride, where the road is coming unraveled,
Often times we are alone on this journey of hope,
And we feel numb, as if pulled by a rope,
The Heavenly Kingdom is the ultimate destination,
But there are those who live with hesitation,
The only way there is down the road less traveled,
It's always smooth asphalt, we will hit parts that are graveled,
The wide open freeway is what to beware,
The fast track to hell, you really don't want to go there,
I'm off, down the road less traveled, and I won't be utterly alone,
For God is with me, wherever I roam,
Maybe I'll see you there, I do pray,
That I will be surrounded by you all, that end the perfect day

Sin

*when we live with sin in our hearts, we will only find trouble,
And when we fall down, it's difficult to dig out of the rubble,
We feel all alone, like we're trapped in a building that has collapsed,
We lose track of ourselves, and don't realize how much time has lapsed,
With sin in our hearts, we feel lonely and afraid,
Wondering where we went wrong and what mistakes were made,
We may never find out, just where we went wrong,
I just pray that it's not too late, when we find where we belong*

The warmth of your touch

The warmth of your touch, chills me to the bone,
When I'm feeling down, you remind me that I'm not alone,
The warmth of your touch, lives in my heart deep inside,
Where your love for me, will forever reside,
The warmth of your touch, is all I ever want to feel,
It keeps me going, and is my Achilles heel,
If anything was to happen, it would kill me inside,
But your kisses reassure me that you're with me, with the ebbing of the tide,
The warmth of your touch, constantly says I love you,
I want you to know that I will forever love you too

Wrath of God

Beware you sinful nations, of our mighty God's wrath,
A sinful nature plus wickedness, you do the math,
Beware you murderers and rapists,
The Lord's wrath will pour over you like hot oil, for you're on Satan's list,
Beware you kidnappers and thieves,
Your cries for help will fall on dead ears and you will be overtaken by grieves,
Beware you evil men, lightning will strike you down,
And when you call for help, your words will only drown,
We all deserve the wrath of the Lord,
We are all sinners and should be judged by accord,
But we were freed by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, God's Son,
But only if we believe that He is the one,
The Messiah and Savior of our souls,
Jesus Christ's love is the only thing that makes us whole

Colonoscopy prep

Colonoscopy prep is a miserable thing I think,
It's some disgusting stuff that you have to drink,
Not to mention starving because you can't eat anything,
No matter what it is, you want it, but are denied everything,
Just a few more hours and I'll be all cleaned out,
Then I can finally eat after my procedure, I want to shout it out,
I can't wait for tomorrow afternoon, I'll be FINALLY free,
To eat what I want, ya-hoo, hee-hee

It takes strength

It takes strength to overcome the wicked men,
The ones that hurt you again and again,
The ones that force themselves on you for one thing,
What does that achieve, but all the pain it will bring,
You have to live with the consequences of their actions,
They don't care about anything, only their buddies reactions,
Anybody that takes advantage of another, isn't a man at all,
Only a lowly person that will have to take a fall,
They deserve to be behind bars, and not get out,
Once a rapist always a rapist, is there recovery, I highly doubt,
The strength that it takes to overcome something like this, can only come from up above,
The strength that it takes it encompassed by God's love.

Clearing something up

Persistence and brainwashed?? I think not,

The reason we blocked Dusk arising, is because our words were falling on deaf ears,

Our Persistence is for the greater good, if you have dreams, don't give up on them, be persistent and reach for the stars,

If you strive to be a better person, keep doing good, be persistent,

If your goal is to be with Jesus in paradise, be persistent, keep praying, keep sharing the Gospel wherever you can,

It's not up to us, who reads, listens, or who finds truth in the Lord,

We don't want to fight, we don't want to argue, we only want to spread our love for the Lord, and it is totally up to you, if you believe in what we are saying, or not,

We're not brainwashing anybody like Dusk is insinuating, we're not forcing our views on anybody,

So please, read our work and come to your own conclusions, not from our perspective nor from Dusks,

Trust in YOUR hearts, and believe what you will,

I wish you all the best and hope that you are persistent in your dreams and goals,

Persistence IS key, in all aspects of life,

I hope to see you on the road less traveled,

Thank you so much for reading,

Love you all,

Melissa Crown

Empty Tomb

Indeed, He has risen from the empty Tomb,
Saving us all from impending doom.

The angels rolled the rock from the entrance to Jesus's Tomb,
Leaving behind a bare and empty room.

Except for the shroud, that held the image of Christ,
The son of God, whom had paid the hefty price.

Mary Magdalene came and seen the empty Tomb,
Arriving in tears and covered in gloom.

She rejoiced when an Angel revealed that Jesus has risen,
Freeing us from our sinful prison.

The empty Tomb was meant to be an example for all believers, who they thought were the sinners,
But instead it is a holy place that makes us believers, winners.

It was there that Jesus has set us free,
It was the pharisees folly,
That actually made that empty Tomb holy.

Chapter 1

The prologue of our story,5 years ago,it did start,
Joining the promise of our two lonely hearts.
We had a hiatus of two years that was beyond our control,
Bringing us back together again, permanently entwining our two souls.
Now it's chapter 1,and I'm literally on my way to you,
I feel like this long awaited union,is what God has led us to.
What our life together will hold,is known only to God above,
Forming our life together,by our unending love.
I will be by your side in thick and in thin,
Equally sharing our yolk,that will be corrupted by being sheer human.
We will do our best and will be perfectly fine,
Because Christ Jesus is at the center of our marriage,and being led by our Lord,is taking us down the path that is a straight and narrow line.
I will be in your arms my love,in just a few short hours,
Becoming one in Christ,our life is finally ours.

My special prayer

Lord,our Father in heaven,

I ask that you heal our hearts that was broken today, I understand that you are completely in control and everything is by your will,lead Dion and I together again,Lord we keep you in the center of our life together and apart,I understand that you give us these trials to prepare us for what's to come,I believe that your will has led me here,into Dion's outstretched waiting arms,I believe that what happened today,not between us,but with another,was for a reason that only you know,soon we will bring you glory with everything that we do,only you know your plan Father God,not I.

Let your will be done Lord,in your time,for you are perfect and good,

In Jesus's name I pray ,amen

Crown of Thorn's

The crown of thorns was forced upon His head,
Jesus could have felt resentment, but felt forgiveness instead.
They pointed and laughed, when He said that He was a king,
And that unity and peace, is what He will bring.
When Jesus was a child, He knew what His destiny would be,
That He would be the sacrificial Lamb, that would set all true believers free.
He is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and end,
Before He was born, Jesus knew that for all sinners, He would offer to defend.
He is the redeemer, and will speak for us to God the Father, and fight,
He will plead our case in our stead, to the Heavenly Father, and make things for us believers, right.
Our thoughts and belief in Him should be first, evenings, noons and morns,
For we, my brothers and sisters, are the reason, that Jesus accepted the Crown Of Thorns.

Weathering the Storm

We all have to weather the storm in peace,
If we can't, our pain and heartache will not cease.
We must trust in the Lord to walk on the water, and not lose sight,
Of His goodness and grace, for if we do, we will falter and sink, losing our fight.
Our struggles with whatever it is that we're going through,
He has carried me through my times of trials, and Jesus will carry you too,
Trust in Him and keep God in your center,
And He will deliver you from your transgressions, and the Heavenly Kingdom you will surely enter.
God is great Righteous and Just,
All we have to do is surrender to Him and give God our full trust.
So weathering the storm isn't quite so hard,
If our trust is in Jesus, forever He will be our heavenly guard.

Volunteering

Today my church is giving out Thanksgiving supper, Today I'm volunteering to help out, it's an awesome experience my mood is definitely an upper,
It's a first for me, I haven't done anything like this before,
In the past I would have been to scared to step in side the door,
The Lord has given me a new life and am exactly where He wants me to be,
Where I can love and sing and worship my God openly and free.

Highway of Holiness

The highway of Holiness is the path we must walk,
If we aim to enter the Lord's Kingdom, we must hurry and not balk.
We must decide to follow the Lord wherever He might lead us,
We mustn't put it off any longer, for God is righteous and just.
He loves us regardless of where we've been, if we surrender ourselves to God He will forget and forgive our every sin.
He will prepare us for our destiny and place us where we are the most beneficial for His Kingdom,
We must do whatever work God put before us, and give our all, and then some.
Everything happens for a reason, whether we believe it or not,
Everything we do or say, every single thought.
God's plan is much greater than we are,
We must follow, no matter how near or far.
So we need to put God first in all that we do,
I walk on the Highway of Holiness, How about you?

Confined

Here I sit,as nervous as can be,
I'm thinking,am I truly going to be free,
I am amazed that I'm doing this,but it is God's will,
I'm so anxious,but I'm forcing myself to be still,
I feel horrible for hurting my family,they will be so mad,
But on the other hand,did they ever really care if I was the one sad.
I must put these thoughts aside and focus on this task,
It's time to be courageous and put away mask.
God comes first and my faith is in Him,
I can't look back ever,over this devastatingly high rim.
I must press forward and leave this heartache behind,
I will be released from my chains,never again to be confined,
My hope comes from the Lord and my faith is in Him alone,
On his wings I will soar,to new heights,to my destiny, I will be flown

Beautifully strange

This feeling that I have is beautifully strange,
I feel all mixed up,yet calm,does that seem deranged,
My emotions are going wild,yet I'm calm inside,
The peace of the Lord is working within,this sense of love that is overcoming me,will always reside,
In my heart,it forever will be,
Now there's no hiding, I can and will truly and freely be.....ME

The cardinal and the squirrel

There is a cardinal and a squirrel playing in the tree,
Two of God's creations, different as can be,
Co-existing and playing together, completely worry free,
Little grey squirrel and Mr cardinal in red,
Not caring about their differences, or their way of life,
Not putting each other down, causing a lot of strife,
Just because they look different doesn't mean that they cannot be friends,
Because they are a different color, doesn't mean that they should play at different ends,
The mighty tree is big enough for them to coexist side by side,
Instead of displaying hate and evil, splitting the canyon of hate ever wide,
So let's all get along, side by side, with our brothers in all walks of life,
Lift up and support those who are lost, and gently lead them to the Lord of all,
He loves us equally and will save us all, lest we fall.

Living without you

Living without you,baby,is a really hard thing to do,
Especially only being within 3miles of you,
I can't come over and see my baby,
Maybe sometime we will have to meet up in Davie,
I know that this is for a logical reason, afterall,there is always a time and a season.
Because the Lord is in control of our destiny,
I have to get things in order first,and then I guess that we will see.
One thing is certain,my love,the Lord is preparing everyone that is involved,
And in due time,all will be resolved.
Living without you is still hard nonetheless,
But I guess that for now,my love, that must be for the best.

The Will of the Lord

The Will of the Lord can lead us anywhere,
But wherever we end up on the Lord's word is what we must share.
Be gentle, not go forceful nor mean,
Share with patience and love to keeping our conscience clean.
We need to share of our experiences and triumphs,
That we had, over the devil, yet pay no mind to the interested humphs.
There will be scoffers and criticizers,
Pay no mind to these, for it is we believers, who will be with the risers,
When Christ Jesus returns, we will rise again too,
We are part of Heaven's Army, I am and hopefully you,
The will of the Lord is righteousness and just,
If we learn to pay attention and closely listen, the Holy Spirit will lead us.

My Baby

My baby is sick and doesn't feel very good,
If there was anything for me to do for him , I would.
I know that he is miserable,but tries to hide it,
Doesn't want me to feel bad, especially during his coughing fit.
When I love someone so much, I want to take the ickiness far away,
I want to take it myself,so that he won't suffer one more day.
My baby is strong and will stick this thing out,
I just want to hold him til it's over,beyond a shadow of the doubt.
He will stay strong, regardless of how he feels,
This shows me exactly how my baby truly feels.

Trust in the Lord

Trust in the Lord,He will provide for you,
Be sure to give thanks to God in all that you do,
He is watching over you in your times of need,
You have to believe wholeheartedly in Him so that you can follow the Lord's lead,
Trust in our Lord,He will provide a way,
To cope and survive in this world,taking it day by day,
It will not be easy,no,not by any means,
We still struggle and strive,but rest assured brethren,that if you belong to the Lord,your sins have been wiped clean.

Trust in the Lord,for you are His,
and the return of His Son Jesus Christ,you don't want to miss!!!

November 18th 2022

November 18th 2022, is the day that my life changed,
The Lord has delivered me to Florida, though the devil's temper raged, Satan thought that he had me, caught in his grasp,
But in reality it was Christ Jesus's hand that I had clasped,
The Lord had led me to where He needed me most,
He led me to lighthouse community church, so I can worship our Heavenly Host,
God has my hand and is leading me to what I must do,
What is this task, I know not, only the Lord knows where I must go and help or meet who,
I am following my Lord, everywhere He leads,
And His voice and commands, I will forever heed,
He led me here into the arms of love,
Love from the church and love from Dion, is so great, it can only be from above.
So November 18th, is a day that I will never forget ,
For it is the day that the Lord showed me that I had nothing to fret,

We never know

We never know who we are going to meet,
It may be the angel Gabriel or Brother Bo putting down a beat,
When I first arrived here, I had Gabriel keeping me safe and sound,
My third time in church I met Brother Bo, who's talent is extremely profound,
Gabriel still checks in on me to make sure that I'm ok,
Brother Bo is an inspiration to everyone around here who knows how he had made his way,
The Lord works in mysterious ways, it is true,
If you will allow Him, Jesus Christ want to save you too,

The love of the Lord

The love of the Lord is within us all,
We just have to listen to for His voice, He will not let us fall,
He will hold us up and lead us to our forever home,
No, not here on Earth, but in Heaven is where we will roam,
Completely painless and worry free,
Free to worship our Lord, living with Jesus Christ, our light, what else do we need,
The love of the Lord shines from within,
Emitting God's love throughout, eliminating all sin

God's love

God's love is shining in us all,
The question is, do we recognize it for what it is and answer His call,
Or do we brush it off and ignore it, not knowing what it is,
We must NOT ignore the Lord's call, for we are His,
We will not always know He is calling,
Because we don't know how to listen and we just keep stalling,
What we need to do is surrender to the love of the Lord, and listen for His voice,
He gives us free will, and we all have a choice,
Our lives will truly change and God's peace will surround and comfort you,
It will not be easy to keep your faith, and there will be a lot of work to do,
The enemy will try his hardest to corrupt our hearts,
Just as he had done from the very start,
When he tricked Eve into disobeying our Lord,
But she didn't know Satan, and the same mistake, you and I cannot afford,
Surrender yourself to the one and ONLY God, our Father above,
And allow Him to surround you in His neverending, unconditional, perfect encompassing LOVE

Florida rain

When in Florida, never forget an umbrella,
Because you never know when it's going to rain hell,
It might be nice and sunny one moment and the next here comes the Florida rain,
When you are caught out in it, it can be a real pain,
If you are biking or walking, prepare to get wet,
But if you are driving, that is the best bet,
Bring caught in the Florida rain, isn't fun, but it's a break from the heat,
Just wait until tomorrow and prepare for a repeat,
If you don't mind being in the rain, then this is your State,
After all, honestly, it doesn't bother me, I think that it is great.

Florida buses

Since I've been here I have rode many buses,
Mostly it isn't crowded,no need for fusses,
But yesterday,was an experience in itself,
After waiting for two hours, I really wasn't in a mood of stealth,
I was tired and just wanted to be home again,
Since I have been here,it is the most tired I have been,
Then when the bus arrived,it was packed like a ton of sardines,
So I stood by the driver,keeping to myself so that I don't cause a scene,
Then what happens,my good friend Alex steps a board,
Her friendly face was a sight I adored,
My anxiety relaxed and my panic went away,
She has a calming effect,what else can I say,
She was a welcome sight for my weary eyes,
Sometimes I wonder,is Alex really an angel in disguise.

Let God lead

Let go of yourself, and let God lead,
Give over the reins, and allow yourself to be freed,
The Lord is the way to everlasting life,
The only way to overcome any kind of misleading strife,
Let God lead, wherever He will take you,
Be sure to answer His call, and try your best at the job that God has for you to do,
Let God lead, and denounce the devil,
Because he doesn't play fair, and his playing field isn't level,
Let God lead and be surrounded by His everlasting light,
Don't get tricked by the enemy, trying to lure you into the dark of night,
Let God lead you, according to His plans,
For His plans are righteous and just, unlike the plans of man,
Let God lead, and He will never steer you wrong,
And be sure to praise Him, and thank the Lord with a song.

Don't look back

If the Lord says GO, then GO and don't look back,
I highly suggest that you obey Him, or it is faith that you lack,
If the Lord says come to a certain place,
I highly suggest that you come, as quickly as you can, set a hasty pace,
Don't ever look back, when you are living in the Lord,
Because the repercussions isn't something that you can afford,
To live in the Lord, is to trust Him and obey,
Go where he is leads you, and not wander astray,
God will never steer you wrong, regardless of what many think,
It is not from the water of Jesus's cup that them scoffers drink,
Some say that we are a cult or a brainwashed group,
But we are all of heaven's army and part of the Lord's troop,
The faithless and sinful cannot understand,
That we live by God's word and not by any man,
So please, don't look back, when it's you that the Lord calls,
Keep on the straight and narrow path and it is assured that we will not fall.

Dion Phillips Crown

Dion Phillips Crown is the one that the Lord has made just for me,
He's a very talented writer and poet,see,
He is a very endearing and faithful man,
I'm so blessed that the Lord led me here to MPS and gave Dion my hand,
We are the same,though from opposite side of the United States,
We never dreamed of that we would have ever actually met in person,but the Lord has given us each a mate,
Dion Phillips Crown, I love you so much,
I love the butterflies within me,each time that we touch,
Honey, I thank God every day for bringing you to me,
We are the example that what you say is true, Persistence is Key
Dion, I can't wait to grow old with you,
We share the yoke equally,and keep the Lord centered within us too,
So thank you my love,for loving me,
Thank you Lord for setting this butterfly free.

The Price of Our Salvation

The Price of our Salvation, was a heavy one indeed,
Jesus had freely given His life for all of us who are in need,
The crown upon His head was laden heavy with thorns,
That ripped at His human flesh that bled and was torn,
He laid down His life for all of us sinners,
And died on that wooden cross, so that we can become winners,
We win, when we give ourselves over to Christ Jesus,
And He will be our advocate on Judgement Day when the Lord is separating us,
His sheep from the goats, placing us exactly where we belong,
I pray that if you are one of His sheep, you will lift your voice with a song,
A song of worship and praise,
Falling to our knees and our hands, we will raise,
We are Brothers and Sisters coming together in the Lord's name,
The Price of Salvation, was Jesus Christ taking all of our blame,
I love the Lord, and I will always submit and obey,
Have you made this fateful decision to surrender, will you today??

Fall into me

Fall into me,when you are feeling down,
Fall into me,when you hear a scary sound,
Fall into me,when you are feeling lost,
Fall into me,I won't count the cost,
Fall into me,when you feel depressed and broken hearted,
Fall into me,I will take you back to where it all started,
Fall into me, and I will show you the Lord,
And the Angels with their glowing sword,
The Lord is our mighty protector and our Father God,
Who will protect us with His staff and rod,
Fall into me,when you are feeling downtrodden and broken,
For it is our Father,the mighty God,who has spoken

On That Cross

Hanging on that cross is our saving grace,
Taking our punishment,so that our sins can be forgotten,without a trace,
Hanging on that cross is the Son of the Most High,
Redeeming us of our humanly ways, so that we can fly,
Hanging on that cross,is our redemption,
Giving us a fighting chance against Satan's temptation, Hanging on that cross is LOVE, a love so flawless and perfect that nobody can imitate or destroy,a love so strong,that it is impossible for us to understand.
We think that we know what true love is,but that ONLY exists through Jesus Christ our redeemer and Savior,the Son Of Man

Everlasting love

A true everlasting love,
Comes only from the Lord in Heaven above,
He leads two hearts together to never be broken,
And an emotion so strong that it is felt rather than spoken,
No words can explain the feelings inside,
When the Lord leads you onto this once in a lifetime ride,
For there is only one special someone for each of our hearts,
That was set into motion before the very start,
That one person that will truly understand,
And when you are falling, will offer their hand,
The one who will pick you up, when you are feeling down,
And will be your shelter in the storm that's all around,
Some doesn't believe that true love really exists in life,
But they are the ones who are struggling to survive,
Trusting in the Lord will bring us to Everlasting love,
That can only be given by the Lord above.

So close,yet so far

We are so much closer now than we was before,
Now we are so close,yet so far,
Honey, our love grows stronger with each passing day,
I yearn to be with you now,yet I'm still far away,
You're now in Orlando,and me in Hollywood,
Soon we will be in the same place as our two hearts should,
It's just for the holidays,but it seems like a long time,
Maybe when you return I can get you your favorite pie of key lime,
Though we are closer,honey it still seems so far,
Soon I will be in your arms, wherever you are,
Come home soon my love, I already miss you so much,
I look forward to the day that our hands can once again touch.
