Your Sorries

Your sorries are like imitated goods,
They are worthless, full of crap

Your sorries are like fools gold,
Cheaply spoken with no value in their existence

Your sorries are like breathing,
Countless times it comes and goes vanishing into thin air

Your sorries are like the Guilty,
They only come out after they are caught in the act

Your sorries are prideful,
They're only used to protect your own ass

Your sorries are lies,
I've heard them over and over again

Your sorries are meaningless,
Noise really,
And it's annoying me

Black Hole

Darkness, It beckons me
Reality Is cruel
Anxiety, I'm tired of your drama
Safe place under covers
Heavy eyes and lazy bones
Happiness, when will you come?
Pursuit, where is your sting?
Depression drags even my shadow
Fear is my best friend
Sorrow, my confidant
Empty is my heart
Drowning, I quit fighting
Blackhole, I keep falling
When will I hit the ground?

I'm Done

I'm done
Waiting on you
Hoping in you
Believing in you

I'm through
Giving all of me
Denying all of me
Sacrificing me

I can't
Pretend it's okay
Fake a smile - okay
Because we're not okay

I'm not sorry
Got to get away
Your selfish ways
Who are you anyway?

I'm gone
Time for me
To be free
Finally be me

I'm done.

Me

Look at me
Not my yellow skin
Almond eyes,
Straight black hair

Hear my heart
Not my broken English
Foreign sounds,
Loud noise

Feel my spirit
It's my pursuit
To be happy,
To be loved

Hopes and dreams
Fill my mind
With meaning,
And purpose

Dig beyond my surface
To roots of my soul
I am a person,
Same as you

Wretched Heart

Wretched heart
You're such a fool
Don't be hopeful
He'll betray you
Wretched heart
You loved again
See I told you
His lies don't end
Wretched heart
Please don't ignore
He'll just leave you
Like times before
Wretched heart
Oh won't you learn
To let him go
And not return
Wretched heart
Don't you adore
His words caught you
In love once more
