For You

Unconditional

For You

I asked you what makes you happy
You told me
You just can't realize this moment
You always gave me the best of you
This time I'll give back the love to you
Only because of you I realized that I was able to love my life so much
You always embrace me
You turned my regrets and mistakes
into best life lessons
I want to give out a lot of love to you
When I talk to you the flowers bloom again
The night turns into day
We can share our goodtimes and bad times with each other forever
You gave me the key to open the door to my future
I realized that
I was able to love my life so much only because of you .
You always embrace me.

Unconditional

I loved u so much that ,even there is no limit in the world
I just forgot that I am just a one in a billion to you.
But why still I can't move on ,why do I can't move on.
My feelings for u is growing more and more each day.
That I still forgot about myself
I know it's not good ,but I still can't control myself
Because you are my first love .
The one who made me to realise about myself.
U are the star that I can't even reach out .
But when u shine up there u make my heart warm
Your my happiness , your my everything .
I just hope to see you once in my life
I just want to see you once in my life
And ur beautiful smile.
I just need it ,not more than that .
I wish you happiness in your life ,my first and last thought is only about you.

I love you ,I want to be with you
But I can't
You deserve the World
That isn't just me so.
But I will pray for you
That one day you will find your world
Who treats you the way you deserve
That I know I never can.
Because this is not our story.
