About the author

I like to write poetry to express my feelings that I otherwise wouldn't be able to show. I do this by trying to turn negative emotions and thoughts into a creative outlet.

I have suffered a lot of loss in my life and my poems help me deal with the pain and grief that I am feeling.

Depression

when your battling with depression almost everyday, when the good turns into bad and the blue skies look grey. All the feelings can be overwhelming trust me I know and it feels impossible to let go.

inside my head is mayhem, it's just a puzzle with missing pieces, I try and I try but I just can't complete it.

It's dark and so lonely even though I have people that care, but depression is a black hole of misery and despair.

one day I hope to overcome this darkness and see the light shinning through, but for now I'm just say here wondering what to do.

2 Years

2 years since you left this world, grew your wings and flew like a bird. heaven is now your home, but we miss you so much we want you to know. you were such a bubbly soul a true beauty with a heart of gold. you made everyone smile and laugh out loud, to know you were my sister makes me so proud. heaven seems so far away but know your in our hearts everyday. Rest easy princess and dont be down, keep smiling and laughing and wearing your crown.

My Mum

(This poem is dedicated to my beautiful mum up in heaven ?)

Mum this is for you, to show you I miss you everyday because I do.

When you passed my whole life went black, nothing seemed to matter, I think I actually heard my heart shatter. The world seems so empty without you but I promised you I would make you proud and that's what I'm going to do! To say I love you so much is just the understatement of the year! Everytime I think of you it brings a tear ? you were the world to me and I'm lost without you here, but your always in my heart so your will always be near! I love you mum you were the best, take it easy up there and get some rest ?.

My Little Sister

My little sister, taken way too soon

Breaks my heart into two.

She was such a kind hearted girl, a true heart of gold living without her feels lonely and cold.

She loved her unicorns and sparkly things, she could make anyone smile just as easy as she blinked.

She brought such warmth to some many peoples life, its just not the same without her glowing light.

Rest easy up there my beautiful baby sis, sending you lots of love and a big kiss!
