summary

I EXIST INSIDE POETRY

I EXIST..

Everything I write is all my feelings,

What I went through in life,

My past doesn't define me,

My scars are my medals ,

Of completing all my tests in life,

Myself I never existed in the eyes of everyone else,

Some of my family members,

My friends or lovers,

But most importantly to my kids and grandkids,

I exist ,

They will remember me

Through words I teach them,

About the world we live in,

I exist you see

Through Poetic words ,

I'm known as Poetic Beauty,

I Exist Poetically Speaking.
