

NABI'S HEART!

NABI

Presented by

My poetic side

Dedication

I dedicate this poetry to my Lord and Savior who gave me the gift to find words and create such pieces. To my daughter who gave me all the reasons to be strong and move on no matter what circumstances we face together. To my family who love us more. To my true friends who never left us in the middle of the storm.

About the author

A simple woman whose faith was never shaken by storm.

A mother who will do anything and everything for my daughter.

My Love

This Is Me

I've finally manage to open up a bit
I hope I didn't give you a beat.
This is simply me
Something you're about to see.

I didn't know if I shocked you
Or worst, did I scare you?
This is me being honest
You might be on a protest.

My views and ways might be different
But this is how I am as a parent.
This is me being a mother
I might take it even further.

I'm not expecting you to understand
Because I know you cant withstand.
But what can I do, this is me
A kind of woman who can only be me.

There's more for you to see.
My flaws and strengths is like the sea.
I want to say I'm sorry,
'Cause this is me, someone I want you to see.

I am not a great and gorgeous woman
But I can say I am strong and faithful one.
Again, this is just me.
A very simple and boring one.

The Reasons Why

I was young,
I was romantic,
I was impulsive,
That's why you got me exclusive.

I was in love,
I was idealistic,
I was unrealistic,
That's why you played your tricks.

I was captivated,
I was blinded,
I was selfless,
That's why you cared for me less.

I was demented,
I was betrayed,
I was beaten,
That's why you left me broken.

Nice Meeting You

*Meeting you might be an accident,
Or just a coincidence.
I honestly don't know
Because it's my first time you know.*

*You are from half way around the world,
I am just here reading your every word.
It seems so true and sincere.
Oh no! Are you for real?*

*You said you are calm,
Maybe just like a lamb.
I asked myself should I be swayed by you?
Or you are just a dream I will be awoken to.*

*Your persistence and patience caught my attention.
So I thought you might be someone with good intention.
I was surprised with the sudden wedding invitation,
You made my brain and heart go into commotion.*

*I've ask God if there can be a chance,
Somehow, somewhere, someday for an instance.
I guess that is something we both don't know
We just have to pray for miracles and wait for the rainbow.*

*It's sad that I have to disappear and say goodbye.
To you I might just be a passerby.
Because women around you are waving off,
But this is me, Marie Grace signing off.*

An Illusion

*Sitting on my table,
Playing with a marble.
I need to write something,
But my brain got nothing.*

*I opened my laptop,
Because I want this to stop.
Need to bury myself with work,
'Cause I know its not gonna work.*

*I tried so hard to forget
Something I can't get.
Because to have you is a dream,
I should wake myself and scream.*

*But what can I do?
If my heart is missing you.
This is an illusion,
And I don't have a solution.*

Will You?

*Will you look my way,
If I ask you to stay?
Will you say my name,
If you see me so tame?*

*Will you talk to me,
If I am so lame?
Will you give your smile,
If I am from a mile?*

*Will you take my heart,
If you knew it from the start?
Will you be with me,
If you knew I love thee?*

*Will you be my love,
If it's a blessing from above?
Will you get over,
If you knew this is forever?*

Meant To Be

*Your pretty eyes are talking
I can't help but thinking.
Are they for me to stare?
I really would love to care.*

*Your smile is carve on your lips,
I wonder how it feels to kiss the tip.
Will it solve the mystery?
If we have that chemistry.*

*Your face shows you're lovely,
I know you are one and only
It's a sight so refreshing
Because you are so dazzling.*

*You're arms seems so strong,
I know I am not wrong.
It would be nice to be hug by you
I hope you will give me the cue.*

*Oh! I have to wake up.
I don't want to push my luck.
You are now holding someone
Too bad I'm not the one.*

*If one day we meet again
I pray this time it's my gain.
By then I wish you are finally free.
So I can say we were meant to be.*

My Precious Daughter

*They said I can't have you
Because it will cost me my life too.
I gently rub my belly,
"Baby, please stay with mommy".*

*It was a hard trimester,
It was such a disaster.
I was told to have a total bed rest,
To make sure you survive and be at your best.*

*I was so weak and dying.
But I have to make sure you keep on surviving.
You cried before I closed my eyes.
I thought I will never see the light.*

*Now you're sixteen,
Soon to be eighteen.
It was my best decision
To keep you without hesitation.*

*I was blessed to have you as my daughter.
Because you filled my life with joy and laughter.
"Mommy, I love you forever".
You always say with a cuddle.*

Father Knows Best

I want to break free,
From the love that's been hurting me.
My heart was terribly broken,
My eyes are already swollen.

I lost all the principles in the world.
Falling in love with you was the worst.
You said you love me.
But you're holding someone else other than me.

I didn't listen to my father,
When he said I shouldn't go any further.
He said you'll tear me into pieces.
And he doesn't want to see me into ashes.

Now stop! Hurt me no more.
My father was right after all.
He said I deserve someone better,
Because I am his precious daughter.

Friends Online

*Being friends with someone like you,
Is something very new to me too.
It's a sudden adrenalin rush,
Oh my gosh! You're making me blush.*

*We had a nice conversation,
Though it was a short-lived attention.
Thank you for listening to my melodramas,
As if you're watching soap operas.*

*They say it's easier to talk to strangers.
I guess that is true because I easily open up myself to you.
As if you are also in my world,
But the truth is you are half way across the world.*

*It's time for me to say my goodbye.
I know that for you I am just another passerby.
Bunch of pretty girls are waving off,
But for me, this is Grace signing off.*

To Chris

You are such a lovely boy,
Who wants to play with his toys.
Your father said you're cute
That I have to salute.

Always stay jolly,
Even if daddy is grumpy.
Just give him a hug,
And hot coffee in a mug.

Be gentle and strong,
So you won't be wrong.
Be proud of who you are,
Daddy is your guiding star.

Except Me!

*It's the day when everyone is in love.
Hearts, roses, chocolates and balloons are pouring from above.
Girls are all in red and pretty.
They look so lovely.
Except me!*

*Couples are holding hands in the park.
Even the puppies are happy with their bark.
They are all sweet and lovey-dovey,
In their love journey.
Except me!*

*They are playing, singing and dancing.
Looking at each other while their hearts are racing.
Sitting and hugging under a tree,
Eating heart pastries,
Except me!*

*They are eating donuts with honey glaze.
While I'm alone in a daze.
Looking at my scribbled poetry.
No one dares to read,
Except me!*

By The Window

*Standing by the window,
Staring at the shadow.
It used to be a couple,
But now it's a solo.*

*The night is so calm,
Because you don't have to come.
I can now hear music so mellow,
No more rowdiness by the window*

*I can now sleep so soundly.
I don't have to worry about your infidelity.
Resting on my favorite pillow,
No more crying by the window.*

*I am finally free,
From a relationship that's been killing me.
You said I will regret and feel hollow,
Surprisingly, I am now smiling by the window.*

For Myself

*I am looking at the woman,
I thought she's a different one.
I remember she was lovely,
But now she seems so lonely.*

*I am staring at her eyes,
That used to mesmerize.
Without uttering a word,
Her eyes says every word.*

*Her face used to be euphoric,
But now it seems horrific.
You can see all the hardships,
That brought her painful relationship.*

*Don't be too devastated,
Just don't give up yet.
Hold on to your faith and keep it tight.
Me, myself and I will put up that fight.*

Missing A Stranger

*It's strange to miss a stranger,
I thought it wouldn't be a struggle.
I only know a few about you.
But you all seem so true.*

*I am staring at your image on the screen,
While eating my strawberry ice cream.
I guess my eyes are playing tricks on me,
Because I saw you smiling at me.*

*You have offered me friendship.
I hope it's a genuine relationship.
You're saying you're different.
And you're easy to comprehend.*

*We sometimes have conversations,
And showed each other our appreciation.
I hope one day to meet this refined stranger,
Because missing you is indeed a struggle.*

Father And Son

*Your smiles are as sweet as candy,
It shows that you are both so happy.
You shared so much laughter,
That sounds as loud as a thunder.*

*You have found a strong protection,
Surrounded by so much affection.
I can see how you hold each other tight,
Showing the world that you are always together in a fight.*

*Father and Son, you will always be,
Stay together for eternity.
"Daddy, you are my everything."
"Son, for you, I will do anything."*

Your Lies

*You said you want me stay,
We will stick together like a clay.
You said you love me,
And I am your one and only.*

*You said we will build our own family,
And that I will never be lonely.
You said you will treat me like a queen,
I will be envied by my kin.*

*You said I will be your friend and lover,
Until this world is over.
You said you will fill my heart with laughter,
Until we grow old together.*

*Suddenly, you said you don't need me,
Because a son I cannot give thee!
You said we have to leave,
All we can do is weep.*

*Now, you said, "I saw my daughter on the news."
"I heard she brought some good news."
Now that my daughter is doing well,
You said, "I am her father as well."*

Only Goodnight

Goodnight... A simple word I can say right. Because we are miles apart. I pray for your safety as you sleep, And protects you from anything that creeps. Gives you a stronghold of protection, Because you are there to give medication. I wanted to say more than goodnight, But I don't know what word would sound right. I'm afraid I might say the wrong words. And make you feel worst. I just want to make you feel better, So I am writing you this letter. Again saying goodnight and sweet dreams to you, Is something wonderful to do.

Distance Between Us

*I met you not so long ago
But it seems I've know you from the get go.
You sent a simple, "Hi, how are you?"
And I said, "Hello, nice meeting you too."*

*We chatted for a few minutes everyday,
And it draws us closer together each day.
Our conversations became more meaningful,
Unleashing our hearts, that is beautiful.*

*We always felt such strong connection.
It almost feels like divine intervention.
We have that comfort and confidence for each other.
I hope and pray that our bond will become stronger.*

*I hope we can hold on to what we have right now.
Because our situation is hard somehow.
I pray that God will bless us,
To cut the distance between us.*

Secret Lover

I am not the nagging type,
So when I'm hurt I don't put up a fight.
I stay quiet and bite my lip,
Lay in bed as I cry to sleep.

Your doubts made my heart ache this much.
So I can just tell my heart, hush hush.
I can't help my tears to fall,
And now my body is reacting from the fall.

I don't know where your doubts are coming from.
I just want to wrap you in my arms.
Hold your face and look into your eyes,
I will just stare until you hear my heart cries.

You don't have any idea how much I wanted to make you known.
Tell the whole world you are my chosen home.
But I know I don't have the right and power to do that.
Because in your big world I am just your secret lover and nothing can change that.

The Colors of You

I love the color blue,
Just the way I love you.
Your smile is as clear as the sky,
It makes me wanna fly.

You said you're going to give me a cake,
And I said I want a strawberry cake.
You said "Noted my love, strawberry it is"!
And you gave it to me in a box of pink.

I always see you in red, whenever we talk,
It's like a red signal that you're here to stalk.
Because it's amazing that you can always find me.
It's like you saying, "You belong to me".

You are kind and sweet like candy,
Should I call you now "honey"?
And let the color of love flow,
Because the colors of you is like a rainbow.

My Love

*I met you unexpectedly,
And there was a spark instantly.
I know I was just a random face.
I never expect you will take a gaze.*

*You said you are miles and miles away,
But in my thoughts I won't give you away.
I don't care how far you might be,
As long as there's a chance I can be your baby!*

*You are consistently nice, loving and caring.
For every single day that we are chatting.
I started to feel fear,
Because maybe you are not real.*

*You said to take it easy and not to be serious.
Now that really made me so curious.
I told myself not to fall for you,
Because maybe you are the next guy who will make me blue.*

*When you finally wanted to see me,
I prayed "Lord, please let it be!"
I was the happiest when I saw you,
Because you finally said "I LOVE YOU"!*

*My heart got out of my chest,
I have my man to cherish.
My Love, I love you as life itself.
Promise me let's be one with ourselves.*
