Words of Heart

When I see the rainbow, I feel it's you.

When I see the blue sky, I feel it's you.

When I see the waves of the sea, I feel it's you.

When a gentle breeze touches me, I feel it's you.

When I smell the fragrance of a rose, I feel it's you.

When a little drop of water falls into a leaf, I feel it's you.

When a grasshopper flies over the green grass, I feel it's you.

When the boat sails for a new destination, I feel it's you.

When I take a deep breath, I feel it's you.

Every second heartbeat recalls me of your existence

You are in me, you are with me,

In all beauties of the world, I feel your presence.

You were, you are, and you will remain with me forever.

My heart tells me, no need to look anywhere.

Search in your soul, I exist always in there.

Friendship

Once upon a time, I met a little boy
He was so cute and full of joy.
We became best friends
shared everything,
the study, drawing, recitation
and melody song sing.
After finishing school days
the day came to say goodbye,
We cried by hugging both
and consoled both no cry.
Then after two eras,
we met again,
We recalled the relationship,
the bonding like a chain.
True friendship is a God's gift,
not finished in vain
God created a true friendship,
to mitigate the pain.
We sang a melody song "Oh! My dear!"
You are just a lucky gem; nobody will be a peer.

Untold Words

I couldn't say ever
To what extent do I feel for you?
Maybe It's my simplicity or feeling shy.
I couldn't say ever
To what extent do I love you?
Maybe It's my sincerity or not to feel you are shy.
Some words are not uttered,
Some feelings are not expressed,
Maybe some love stories are like that
Untold, untouched, and unrevealed.
I couldn't show ever
To what extent do I adore you?
Maybe It's my generosity not to feel your embarrassment.
I couldn't express ever
To what extent can I dare for you?
Maybe It's my responsibility; not to be a hindrance to your establishment.
Some songs and some epics are like that
Unsung, unwritten, and unlimited.
These untold words testify that,
I can do everything for you.

Promise

Every night, you come into my dream
I feel you sit beside me
Kissing my forehead, you tell me
You are so beautiful, dear!
With full of joy to get him near me
I cry and cry, and say, how can I be beautiful without you?
You are my beauty; then I look so pretty.
Without you, I am nothing just a white page with no colour.
I search for you everywhere; I call you here and there
But I cannot find you, I cannot touch you.
Would you please tell me how can I survive without you?
How can you go to leave me lonely?
Coming into my dream, you are loving me.
Don't go anymore by letting me alone.
Take me with you
I cannot live without you.
We promised each other to live together and die together.
How dare you break the promise?
If you cannot take me with you,
then please give me a tonic to revive.
Otherwise, my life is becoming a curse to survive.

One Day

One day, in the very early morning, I woke up,
Finished my morning prayer and went to the park to walk.
That day, I saw a little girl, sitting on the bench in the garden, crying alone,
Asked her name and saw her innocent face, a lovely smile, which touched my bone.
Maya, the name of the girl, she came here mistaken,
She was with her parents to enjoy a city fair but suddenly lost them.
A mishappen happened to her, and she lost her dear ones,
Life became empty, lonely, and zero just at once.
I took her in my lap and came to my home with new hope,
I gave her a new life, a new identity, with no more nope.
After twenty years, when she completed her education,
Being a lawyer, she proved herself the best citizen of the nation.
I felt proud and thanked God for giving me a little angel that day,
I blessed her from the core of my heart, and that day made me lucky one day.

Hangout

Sunny sunny day
A long, long way
What a lovely day!
Let's go and have fun today.

Sunny sunny day
A long, long way
What a fabulous May!
Let's start a new journey away.

Shiny funny day
A long, long way
What a wonderful play!
Let's play a new role today.

Shiny funny day
A long, long way
What a pleasant day!
Let's make a new home with clay.

Honey bunny day
A long, long way
Red roses full of tray
Let's go, say and portray.
Honey bunny day
A long, long way
Buddies are shouting hey
Let's give up all miseries and stay.
Friends are full of joy
Hangout to enjoy, with no longer annoy
Sceneries are soothing eyes
Getting mad making guys
Forget all worries

And say no hurries.

Let's go, sing a song today.

Letter in Blue Envelope

Oh! My Dear,
Maybe it's my first and last love letter to you.
Sorry friend,
but I heard it's a trend to give a love letter
to your loved ones covered in a blue envelope.
From the first day of college, I fell in love with you.
You can say love at first sight.
But could not express it to you.
We became good friends.
So, I thought, maybe you will understand my feelings.

Oh! Dear,
After a few months, I felt, you treated me like just a friend, not a beloved.
Because you fell in love with an elegant, classy girl.
Whereas I was a very ordinary, simple one.
I felt hurt but not to show my pity.
I just decided to leave you because as a friend I would always pray for you to be happy.
But as a lover, I could not see you with anyone.
Forgive me, dear.
Wishing you a very happy life.
I hope, you will recall me forever.
Thank you so much as I get such a lovely friend like you.
Be safe, Be happy, dear.
Good-bye.
Maya
Your best friend

Desire

I wish I were a child,
I could recite a rhyme
Making a loud voice with a tune
At the home, garden, and wild.
I wish I were a bird,
I could fly in the sky
Fluttering the feathers
Here and there with no dirt.
I wish I were a queen,
I could wear a thorn in my head
With elegant gown, gold jewelry
Waiting for a king to have been.
I wish I were a boat,
I could sail on the sea
Singing a melody song with an open voice
No instrument but a signature quote.
I wish I were a flower,
I could bloom in the garden
Spreading such an aroma
Love birds will be mesmerized and lost in deep love with each other.
I know, all my desires cannot be fulfilled
But I cannot stop dreaming, wishing myself to be revealed or refilled.

Believe in God

Nobody can say
We can stay in the world forever
Everything is temporary
Life, love, so nothing does in a hurry
We cannot live together.

Nobody can say
I can do anything by myself.
If God doesn't help
You can do nothing
Remain unfulfilled like no book on a bookshelf.
Believe in God
Believe in you
You can do everything that is allotted to you.
Everything will come to us at the proper time.
So, do your work, and don't lose your heart.
Just think my life is mine.
God created us to do the best deed in our life.
Time is running, finishing life.
But lots of work to do to be perfect or to be alive.
Nothing is impossible
If you become capable
So, wake up, and don't break your heart with someone's feigning.
Life is too short not to let it get finishing.
If someone is leaving your life,
A new one is waiting to come into your life.
So, don't get your heart broken.
You should give another chance to yourself awaken.

God has kept someone who will be best for you.
So, keep believing in God
Life will dictate a new way as a gift to you.

Maya

Once a Friday early morning
A little cutest girl was born.
The surroundings were mesmerized by the fragrance of flowers
Like she was an angel of a Goddess.
With a beautiful smile, she spread her eyes and saw the world.
Her parents felt blessed, cried with joy, and loved their baby girl a lot.
On the day of the naming ceremony, the baby girl got the name, "Maya".
Maya means power,
Maya means affection.
Her eyes were sparking with power as a Goddess,
Her smile expressed affection with full of love.
When Maya was trying to walk,
Her little two feet proved how luckiest she was for the family like Lakshmi (The Goddess of Wealth).
When she became grown up, she was not only a good singer but also a good student.
Her performance remained top when she became a fellow.
Her talent made her a topper like Saraswati (The Goddess of Education).
She was the combination of the two Goddesses, which made her strong, unique, and self-dependent.
At the age of twenty, Maya lost her parents.
But Maya always used to abide by the rules and customs, she was taught.
Her virtues and morality made her not only courageous but also laborious in life.
Life taught her to be strong, but she taught herself how to be strong.
Honesty is the best policy to survive.
Humanity is the best medicine to live in peace.
Self-respect is the best weapon for brave.
And truthfulness is the best virtue to judge.
So, without self-strength, no one can justify oneself.
Be strong like Maya.
Be brave like Maya.

Mother

The loveliest creation of God is "Mother".
No comparison, no alternative
No identity except mother with other.
How affection a mother belongs!
How simply a mother life along!
No demand, no desire,
Only does best for child, love, and admire
Sacrifice, sacrifice, and sacrifice
A mother sacrifices her whole life without any excuse, maybe twice.
The word mother is a combination of six letters.
She knows what is best for her child after God to do better.
So, don't hurt anybody to your mother.
Mother is the second God, not to compare with others.
If you want to go to heaven
Please respect your mother and not waste your time in vain.
A pleased and happy mother is the blessing of God for you.
Try to be the best offspring for your mother, then your dream will come true.

Moonlit Night

Have you remembered, when I saw your lovely two eyes on a moonlit night?
The stars were twinkling in the sky
Hearts were diving with divine love.
I touched your hand,
I kissed your forehead
Then we hugged each other.
The sky and the stars were the testimony of our eternal love.
Maybe, we won't in earth forever
But the whole universe will spread our love to awaken pure love in the next generation.

Love doesn't die.
Love doesn't lose.
Love remains on the earth with any form of love.
Love is divine.
Love is pure.
Love is a blessing.
The moon spread its beauty with moonlit night.
And we, human beings express our love in the pure night full of light.

Silence

Do you know, silence has words?
Sometimes, silence talks about everything, and speech doesn't work.
When two hearts close to each other
Then no speech is needed.
Just look at each other.
Silence expresses everything.
When we feel alone,
Then we go to the bank of the river.
Where speech doesn't need,
just feel the babble out of the river and lost.
Then only silence talks, speech not.
When we smell the fragrance of a flower
We just intake its fragrance, no need to talk about anything.
In that case, we want to be silent.
Always silence makes a peaceful aura to be calm and pure.
And sometimes silence is the best medicine to revive and cure.
So, no need to talk more.
Silence is a sign of consent.
When loving one feels love but can't express it.
We should keep silent to create a positive vibe.
It's a major solution for us to survive.

Nightmare

I have been seeing a dream since last year
I don't know whether it's a dream or a nightmare.
But it always keeps me scared, not feeling normal anything
Sometimes it seems like a death angel who distracts me from everything.

I always feel I am diving in the middle of the sea
No one is coming to rescue me
I am shouting here and there to survive
But nobody is showing interest in my alive.
All are busy in the world, no one has time for anyone
Rude reality snatches humanity from everyone.
Oh God, please save me from the scares
Give me some good dreams, not any more nightmares.

Conversation

Amit: How beautiful you are, dear!

Maya: Without you, I have no beauty, dear.

Amit: You are my little fairy.

Maya: Without you, I have nothing to query.

Amit: You are my colorful kite.

Maya: Without you, someone can easily bite.

Amit: You are my melody song.

Maya: Without you, I cannot spend a day long.

Amit: You are my night queen.

Maya: Without you, Life is rhythmless drama, no full screen.

Amit: You are my first and last poetry.

Maya: Without you, life would be a cemetery.

Amit: You are my morning sun.

Maya: Without you, I can easily burn.

So, we are made for each other.

We are incomplete without each other.

Cosmic Bliss

We are tirelessly trying to be happy
And sometimes we scream.
Maybe this is our fate and God's wish
To make us hardworking to fulfil our dream.
We do not know what is allotted to us.
Maybe effortless endeavours make us prosperous.
Happiness is just like a mirage.
To be happy, we must fix our goals and image.
Hard work, hard work, and hard work are needed to accomplish
Then happiness will come into our life as cosmic bliss.

My Country

With abundant beauty and greeneries
My country is full of affection and love.
I feel proud to birth in this land with all of the above.
Bangladesh is my country, my motherland
Bengali is my language with love full of hand.
I want to live here and want to die
Oh! God, this is my last wish
Don't let me leave here to survive.
My childhood, my siblings, and my friends
My all-sweet memories are here.
Please, God, keep me here and not send me elsewhere.
Our country is our pride, our own.
So, we should keep respect where we are born.

My Father's Last Wish

When I was very young
My father used to feed me singing a song.
Despite he was a doctor
He always loved to cook food for the family.
I was the youngest of my other two siblings.
So, I was adorable by my parents.
My father dreamt that we, three siblings would be doctors.
But destiny wrote the different identities of our threes.
My elder sister became the Professor of Bengali.
My elder brother became a cardiologist.
And the last one, me, I read with Economics.
My father was happy for us but not highly satisfied.
When I topped the University and ranked 1st Class 1st
I was awarded a gold medal.
Moreover, we lost our mother.
I ran away to show the medal to my father.
He cried a lot and then he expressed his last wish to me.
If I want, then I can complete my PhD.
My father made me understand that don't feel pity for not being a doctor.
Doctor and Doctorate both identities start with Dr.
So, you should complete your Ph. D.
Then my departed soul will be satisfied.
After a few months, my father died of cardiac arrest.
But, from that day, I was determined to complete my higher studies.
Now I am very close to my degree.
Within a few months, I would be the Economist.
Just console me, I could fulfil my father's last wish.
Dear Father!
Keep blessings from heaven.
I love you very much.

What is Happiness?

Happiness

It's an amazing feeling of good things happening in our life.

Maybe it is love, like, and good results in all spheres of life.

Happiness

It's a word of amalgamation.

The mixture of good deeds and good results

The texture of unlimited love and unlimited joy.

Happiness

It's an introduction to something good happening in our life.

Maybe it will be the reunion of a good friend after a long time.

Or, it will be the return of loved ones whom we lost in our life.

Happiness

It's a gesture of some body language.

When our heart feels good, it reflects on our faces.

When our mind works well, it reflects in our eyes.

Happiness

It's a combination of nine letters

It's a strange feeling.

Some feel happy living a luxurious life.

Some feel happy in a hut.

Some feel happy wearing costly clothes and having costly and rich foods.

Some feel happy wearing just a cloth to cover their body to avoid being shy and having water rice with onion and green chili.

So, happiness is relative.

Sorrow must come after happiness.

Happiness must come after sorrow.

We shouldn't judge anybody with our thoughts.

Humans are self-judged to live happy life and find happiness.

Equivalence

The two banks of the river
never meet with each other.
The sky and the land
never meet with one another.
The track of the railroad
Is designed of two parallel rows
It seems that they run together taking vows.
So, love is not called to live together.
Love is called to walk together.
We don't get what we want.
We don't want that what we get.
This is the destiny written by the Creator.
Only He knows, what will be the best for our future.
Don't waste your time searching a pure love
You will find him who will remain forever with you
In sorrows, happiness all above.
The real interpretation of love is the devotion to permanence.
So, try to remain with your loved one to walk with lifelong equivalence.

Unconditional Love

I knew that you were not mine
I knew my heart's sun will not shine.
Nevertheless, I loved you without any condition
Maybe it was my stupidity, but not reconditioned.
I thought love comes into life once
So, I didn't want any replacement by chance.
Be that as it may, it was my love
I did, I do, and I will do
No need to compromise for my love.
It made me understand that my love is unidirectional.
I don't want your return love, which is unconditional.

Best Friend

In our life, we make so many relationships.

Friendship is ONE OF THE identities that create companionship.

Friend means Few Relations in Earth Never Die.

A best friend is one of the FRIENDS who never tells you bye.

A best friend, who always gives company to your lifelong.

There are no give-and-take RELATIONS, only walk together all along.

To get a best friend is a blessing from God

Never hurt your best friend who always stands for you like a sword.

Try to keep your relations with your best friend

Never make any misunderstanding that can break your trend.

GOODBYE

In life, nobody is permanent
Everybody has to say goodbye,
So, what time do we get in life,
Give your best, not waste feeling shy.
Time and tide wait for none
This is not a proverb, a truth for all.
So, do your work on time, not let the time be gone.
In the short span of life
So many jobs to do.
Just take the acute decision
What, which, when, and how will you do?

Nobody is perfect in life.
You must perfect yourself by practising in life.
Don't race for ill competition
The only race for to be perfect.
Just remember, "All's well is end's well".
This makes imperfect to be perfect.
We all will leave the earth one day.
But our good deeds will remain forever.
So, start doing well from today.
Don't say Goodbye, just say we will remain all over.

Trust

If you want to sustain your relationship for the long term

Trust is the one and only weapon for sustainability.

If you want to obtain your relationship with someone

Trust is the best source to get the reality.

If you want to pertain to believing love

Trust is the first and foremost medicine to achieve.

If you want to certain your love to anyone

Trust is the last but not the least option not to lose one.

If you want to maintain your relationship

Only trust can help you to maintain.

If you want to contain your companionship

Only trust is the patron to contain.

Believe in Trust.

Relate in Trust.

Create in Trust.

Live in Trust.

Trust can make a beautiful crest.

Trust can build up a healthiest chest.

Trust can make you the happy the best.

A Gift

Oh! Dear!

What a gift you have given me in life!

I am overwhelmed to get it which mesmerized me with joy and light.

This is not only a gift but also a blessing of God.

Because your presence is the best present of my life from God.

A gift is nothing, just token of love.

Our eternal love is a God's gift that we respect all above.

Henceforth, we do a pinky promise not to leave each other.

We will trust together, live together and die together.

These will be the best gift if we can give these to both,

Nothing is as comparable as this promise,

If we can keep that in mind as an oath.

Love Vs Attachment

Attachment means an extra part of the extension that is something to perform a particular function.

But love means an extra feeling that is created in our hearts and touches our souls.

Someone in dilemma and mixes up between love and attachment.

Think that when we attach to someone, maybe it's called love.

But it's wrong.

Attachment and love are not the same.

All attachments do not belong to love.

But in all love belong to the attachment.

So, set up your mind and then decide what is to be done.

If you think you just built up the attachment for any particular reason,

Then you should not search for love in it.

But when you really fell in love with anyone, you need not search for attachments because then you have already been attached.

But it's needed to create mental attachment not physical.

Don't search for love in physic.

Love creates in the mind, in the heart, and in the soul.

Otherwise, every attachment is temporary and fragile.

Humiliation

Some people are very habituated to humiliating others.

But why? Why do we do this?

Do we have any right to hurt anyone?

As human beings, we always forget our roots.

From where have we come? And where we will go?

Very few feel happy to see others happy and well.

Major feels envy and does criticize and is always busy humiliating each other.

This cannot be a good sign of a good human being.

If we cannot do good for others, we do not have any right to hurt others.

If we cannot respect others, we do not have any right to disrespect others.

We should change our minds, and motives, and take lessons to respect each other.

We should not forget that our destination is the same, in the soil.

Smile

A smile creates a positive vibe all around
It's tax-free, so spread a beautiful smile that knows no bound.

Smile enriches our heart
Smile broads our greatness
So, we should not hesitate to give a smile
Since it is a virtue of kindness.

If you cannot give good behaviour to others
Please provide a gently smile
It combats not only the misunderstanding
But also build relationships from mile to mile.

Life

Life starts with zero.

Life finishes with zero.

Our whole life we count our wealth, our achievements,

But we don't matter how many good deeds we did in our entire life.

We are born as human beings.

But we forget we are human.

Inhumanity, and brutality cover up our morality. Why?

What is our lacking?

Scarcity? Want? Or Demand?

But we cannot satisfy no matter what desire we fulfilled.

We want more than what we get.

But to fulfil these demands we lost our humanity.

Then our all deeds went to vain.

And humans deform into inhuman.

So, we should lessen our demand and our expectations.

Then we can be happy, and this will make others happy.

To lead a happy life basic needs are essential.

Beyond these needs, nothing is essential.

So, we should keep the struggle to achieve basic needs to survive.

Not to need lavish life to survive.

We should not forget that we have to say goodbye to all.

Those who are sleeping in the graveyard, maybe they were rich, beautiful, or successful person once.

So, everything must end one day.

Our countdown is going on.

At the End of the Day

In my early studentship, the period of starting struggle was really hard.

I was unable to know a lot of things.

I had lacking in speaking English, and in accessing technology.

For this, I had to face lots of problems then.

Gradually I learned spoken English and then started working on my Desktop for practicing typing.

People taunt me and humiliated me in every step of my life.

Today, I am an Economist. When I recall my past, hurts me, and sometimes I cry.

All people are not experts in all sectors.

But people who humiliate someone are not a fact that they are specialized.

This is people's nature to humiliate someone to downfall.

Sometimes who try to improve themselves, can be demotivated.

But those who do not care the people's criticism only can move on in life.

I was in that queue.

By the Grace of God, I overcame all the difficulties and flaws in my life.

People should not disrespect others or not be judgmental of others.

Nobody knows, what will be the actual picture of everyone's life at the end of the day.

So, be gentle, and try to give a little motivation which is free of cost for you but very precious to someone.

Image

An image is not a picture
It's a signature of a memory.
Everybody should capture all the sweet memories in a frame.
Because when we will not remain in the world
Our memories will remain alive through an image.
Generation to generation will introduce to their ancestors.
So, try to click the image for all ages.
Not to create this image into a mirage.
Image talks.
Image smiles.
So, keep this image with high images.

Equality

Knowingly, unknowingly men hurt women

Men think women are very soft, they cannot protest

Women can be easily manipulated

So, men can dominate women frequently.

Once upon a time, women were oppressed by men.

But women have been trying to change their position tirelessly at present.

Now, they are conscious of their rights.

They think they are not born for men's sexual pleasure.

They have the right to live with respect.

With this mentality, women are being empowered.

Gender equality is a burning question all over the world.

We, all women should work on this issue hand to hand.

The world is ours not for only men.

So, equality is essential for women's empowerment.

Maybe it may take many more years.

But gender equality must be achieved one day.

Two Faces of Men

We all know,
A coin has two sides
One is the head, and one is the tail.
Life also has two feelings,
One is happiness, and one is sorrow.
In the world, God creates everything in pairs.
Day-night, happiness-sorrow, light-dark
Everything exists in pairs.
It is a matter of perception.
God creates these pairs to make us understand that
We must face everything in these two stages of life.
But when this matter comes to the two-faced men
It becomes very hard to trace who is good and who is bad.
Two faces of men are beyond our understanding.
They will show their heartfelt generosity to people.
But ultimately, they do not want to be good for others but rather harm others.
They are untraceable.
Whatever they do in life is for their own benefit.
They can do any extremely wrong deeds to beneficial for their lives.
Sometimes they can snatch the other's happiness to be happy in life.
So, we should always beware of these two-faced men.
Their smiles are fake, their all deeds are just for show.
In practice, they are inhuman, selfish, and cruel.

Universal Truth

Birth, Death, and Marriage

Three's are written by God.

We can be genius in so many aspects

But in these three, we are to depend on God.

What a Supreme Power He is!

We cannot do anything without His direction.

A leaf of a tree cannot move without God's permission.

The Whole Universe is offering prayers to the Creator.

A family welcomes a newborn baby

Another family welcomes a new bride.

But the other family goodbyes to their beloved one.

This is a real picture of our life.

One is coming, and another one is going.

Life is just a playground of coming and going.

We cannot deny this strict rule of God.

So, despite we can invent so many things

But without God's given power, we are nothing.

God is Omnipotent.

God is Power.

A Morning Sun

Every night, before going to bed,
I pray to God to give me a nice dream.
The dream in which the coming golden future days of mine, can be seen with the beam.
The days which I will enjoy and live happily with satisfaction,
May God fulfil my all desires to make me perfect, giving me all perfection.
Every morning I open my eyes to see a lovely morning sun.
Hope, henceforth, good days will come instead of sad days to burn.
As sunshine gives us light to show a perfect destination,
With this light, my life will be lightened full of passion,
colourful, and bright by fulfilling my vision.

Sweet Memories

About two eras ago
When we first met in college.
Both were teens and became friends.
A new bonding started in our life.
I felt a new feeling start blooming in my heart.
How one's face, his laugh, his words, his eyes became special to me.
I couldn't sleep the whole night.
Just, I thought about him and asked me again and again.

Is it called love?
First love, first feelings, first touch is exceptional for everyone.
I also went through this phase when I lost my heart for someone.
Then one day, I was waiting for him for a day long
But somehow, he didn't come.
I felt hurt, cried and then took a pen and wrote down my pity in lines.
Surprisingly, those few lines became my words of heart and formed a poem of love
From then to now, I have been writing poems to recall
All my sweet memories with him in my life.
He was not only my loving one but also my inspiration for writing.
All my poems will remain alive in my love and in the heart of my friends who were, and are always the well-wishers of my entire life journey.

My Dear Lord!

My Dear Lord!

I have nothing to offer you except myself,

Please accept my offerings, give me light, then I can protect the pride from thyself.

My Dear Lord!

Bad evils always distract me from doing good works

Please give me wisdom then I can understand the right and wrong tasks.

My Dear Lord!

Knowingly, unknowingly as I can keep aloof myself to hurt others in the wrong way.

Please bestow me with good advice by which I can chase my life in the right, decent way.

My Best Friend!

Your given light will torch my life which will show me a right path

Please give me the strength to do moral deeds so that I can be free from all punishments aftermath.

Reality of Life

Life is like a ground of a Theater
We all are playing roles as an actor.
Do you know about the Director?
He is none other than our Creator.
Someone is acting good, and someone is doing bad
No matter what we are doing in our performance
Our Creator is feeling glad.
Every scene, every sequence is written by the Creator's Smith

We do as per the direction, who directs from the beneath.
Whatever happens in our life, we must remember to live on Nothing is permanent, and nobody is immortal, but the show must go on.
We laugh, we cry, and sometimes we feel alone in our life.
We cannot but forget that we came alone and we'll leave alone in life.
We cannot understand who is doing everything in our behind
All are God's blessings; every step is done for the well-being of mankind.
So, we will do our given act leaving any consequence
God will reward us beyond our think of in a sense.
This is the reality of our life which we have to obey
Life is a bunch of struggles that we cannot deny except pray.

Love of Last period of Life

If you be my real beloved
I believe you will remain till my last breath of life.
If you be my real soul-mate
I believe you will stay with me without any conditions.
If you be my real friend
I believe you will continue this relationship without any perfections.
If our love is pure
I believe you will hold my hand until my death
When all relationships will discontinue in my life
Then, you will be in my life.
Then we will become the last-time partner, and we both admit last time
We love each other truly, honestly, and completely.

Mother's Love

When a Mother keeps her child in her tummy for nine months

Then a strong bonding creates between a mother and a baby.
Mother does not know who is coming, son or daughter
Just feels her baby taking a breath in her womb.
So, she must take care of her child at any cost.
Only a mother knows how much pain she passed through in nine months
But she forgets all pain after her baby's birth
She feels Heaven's peace!
And thanks God for blessing her with an angel by gift.
Only this situation, a mother laughs hearing her baby's cry.
Otherwise, all mother fights for their baby's single drop of tears.
That is called Mother's love
Unlimited, peerless, incomparable
Pure, Divine and God's blessing.
A mother can do anything for her child.
No matter how far her child/children live
But a mother is never careless about loving her child in any circumstance.
She dedicates her whole life to her child.
In return, nothing she wants, only bless her child for long life.
She wants to hear an address with Mummy/Maa from her child.
By which she gets the world's most precious gift
That is called Mother's love.
Nobody can buy a mother, no matter how rich he/she is in the world.
There is no replacement, no alternative to a Mother.

A Passerby

Oh! Stranger!

Where have you come from, and where will you go?

Do you know your destination?

Then I can dictate to you the right way to go.

Passerby said

I have no address to go to.

I don't know where I will go.

Oh! Stranger!

We will figure out the path from infinity.

In the world, we all are strangers, so don't be disheartened and give up your desires.

The person who is addressed less gets an address, and this is the magic of the Lord.

You, I let go all together to forget our sorrows.

Passerby said,

I am helpless dear

Please beg me a pardon

I cannot do any harm to you

I always walk alone, live alone

And this is my destiny

If you walk with me, you will be taunt

Society will disrespect you and will try to defame of you

That is not my mission.

Oh! Stranger!

In this world, we all are alone.

We come alone, and we go alone

This is mandatory for all living creatures

I will be blessed if I walk with you far across.

Passerby said,

No! no! no!

It is not done.

You will be mentally tortured by society.

Please go back to your house.

I will walk alone to this unknown destination.

I don't want to relate to somebody.

I don't want to get any fascination with the earth.

This uncertain relationship cannot be stable, cannot be permanent.

Here only pitty and full of sorrows.

I don't want any companion.

I am alone.

I am happy.

May God bless you.

Stay well, and Stay blessed.

Motherhood

For every woman, the precious gift from God is Motherhood.
No woman is fulfilled without being a mother.
A woman keeps her baby in her tummy for nine months.
An infant grows up day by day in its mother's tummy.
It's a biological system along with God's magic.
After four months, mothers can feel the baby's movement.
A lovely feeling for a mother when her baby first kicks in her tummy.
She cries, laughs, and lives with all movements of her baby.
A mother becomes conscious about eating as her baby becomes fit and sound.
A natural BONDING creates between a mother and a baby.
This bonding starts from the first day of pregnancy and ends after the last breath of a mother.
In her life journey, nobody can harm the offspring in front of a mother.
No matter if the baby is a boy or a girl.
All offspring are equal for a mother.
Mothers' love never divides within their offspring.
Mothers' all beauty sparkles on her face seeing the dream for a baby.
After giving birth, when a mother first feeds the milk to her baby
Oh! God! What peace! What a beautiful scenario to look at!

Every single drop of mother's milk is the blessing of God.
No child can pay the mother's milk debt in life.
Every child must remember that he/she couldn't be grown up without his/her mother.
God has created many paths for death, but only one way for birth.
And that the path is in a mother.
This is the power of a mother which God gives to all mothers.

Self Evaluation

Changes are necessary to judge something

Changes are absolute to justify anything.

Changes are sure to magnify the generation

Changes are mandatory to ignite the imagination.

Changes are essential to intensify the wave

Changes are a must to be strong on pave.

Our life is nothing but a bucket of mistakes

No silver lining is portrayed to imprint sakes.

Humans need to change to shape up thyselves

Without making mistakes, we cannot improve ourselves.

So, changes are regular, and that should be for the well-being

We must cope with this truth to be a moderate human being.

First, we need self-evaluation and then do a salutation

The life cycle will ultimately go through with salvation.

Time will give answers to all questions

When, what and to whom, no need to mention.

This is happening or will happen with our life cycles

Sometimes it comes fast, or sometimes it does late to become a miracle.

Judgemental

Humans are habituated to finding fault in others.
As if they are beyond guilties which are always perfect.
They search for the guilties of others and treat them with judgemental
But, sometimes, their mistakes are uncountable and cannot be pardoned.
They treat others as if they are the symbol of purity more than others.
How funny thoughts it is!
No one is as pure as others in the world.
To prove ourselves, we hire a lawyer,
But tireless try to prove the guilt of others as a Judge.
This mentality has to be changed.
Naturally, everybody makes mistakes.
But these mistakes give us a lesson to improve ourselves.
So, we should admit our mistakes and try to come out of these
And this way, we should not misconduct others with judgemental
We should help each other to protect ourselves from wrongdoing.

New Year

When we feel lonely

We feel the want of peer

When we meet our peers

We enjoy every single day as the eve of a new year.

So, friends are those who can fill out our loneliness

Friends are those who can give us full of happiness.

We should try to live every moment with the best peer

The rest of the journey will be passed through without any fear.

The new year comes with a new dream along with desires going process

We should share our dreams and desires with our friends

One day all will come true with the shower of success.

Every day, every moment lives to celebrate a new shiny day long

No matter how many problems are in our life

We should live, smile, and sing lovely songs.

What is needed for life?

There is no need for a beautiful face for a good heart

There is needed for mutual bonding to live together being a part.

There is no need for stylish attire to express yourself

There is only needed loyalty and sincerity to prove yourself.

There is nothing essential to living at a royal palace.

There is only needed mental peace in any case.

There is no need to visit a world tour to explore the unknown.

There is only a need to know your surrounding and what you belong ever be known.

Humans waste time for unknown reasons to search for happiness

They forget just only need a smile with unconditional which fulfills the emptiness.

Poetry

I never thought I could write a single line of poetry in life.
But when I met you, I could not see anything, just your eyes.
Knowing, unknowingly, my inner myself formed a poet.
Whatever I felt, all became poetry.
Such a new feeling, a new world, where I was the queen, and my words were my best friends for conveying my messages to him.
Since then, my words didn't stop.
Every day comes to me with new dreams,
I feel words are being arranged to form poetry.
As the words are ready to play, sing, and love to each other in this ambiance.
Poetry is just a medium.
No matter where we live, no matter how far we are,
But words can reach out to our feelings as poetry and remain forever, whether we live or die.

Perfection

You don't need to be worried about your disabilities
You don't need to be panicked about your inferiorities.
In the whole universe, no one is 100 percent perfect.
Only the Creator, the Omnipotent, the Supreme power is the perfectionist.
Not a single drop of water falls into a leaf without His permission.
Not a single leaf of a tree can move without His direction.
He is the Director of our Life Play.
We are the different characters created for the assigned theater like the universe.
So, we have no prediction about our upcoming days.
To what extent do we have to face the difficulties in our life?
Maybe the story will be a happy ending or a destructive demise.
Everything is planned for us.
We can just ease our respective duties by showing extra expertise.
Our success, our dignity, our desired respect, everything is written, and planned by God.
So, we should not be a competitor in the rat race for perfection
We should do our regular work with perseverance and hardworking.
Eventually, success will come to us at a perfect time.
Then we will be perfectionists in all ways.

Journey of Life

Between 15 and 25 age of life

We live in dreams and feel we can achieve everything that we want.

This is called expected life.

From 25 to 45 age of life

We start a new life called marital life,

We become parents of offspring

Then, we enter into real life, which is called practical life.

Between 45 and 65 age of life

We then feel we lived a struggling life

Now we will have to retire from work and some concrete responsibilities.

But we cannot.

New duties come to our lives to act.

From 65 to 85 age of life

Most of us leave the world, and those who remain alive become physically and mentally weak and wait to say goodbye from the earth.

From life to death journey, we cannot enjoy our life satisfactorily because of caution, responsibilities, and fear of unsuccess.

Life goes on till death, full of expectations

But we acquire a hard life to survive.

This is a story of Journey of Life.
