Ode to Nature

*The dawning sun peeps bright;
Driving my day to a great delight.
The fresh, soft buds and flowers blossoming, so nice;
Spreading their fragrances a thousand miles.
The radiant rolling river's curve and flow;
Caressed my feet like a gentle kiss, on the go.
The lush green fields sway upon the breeze;
Like dancing to my tunes, so often please.
The woods in the majestic mountains;
Bestowed upon me pure bliss, spilling over like fountains.
The fluffy clouds wandering lusciously;
Spreads into elephants and rabbits, morphing wonderfully.*

Inspired by nature- A noteworthy gift to mankind and all living beings on earth.
