Acknowledgement

The world is a better place thanks to people who want to develop and lead others. What makes it even better are people who share the gift of their time to mentor future leaders. Thank you to everyone who strives to grow and help others grow. Having an idea and turning it into a book is as hard as it sounds. The experience is both internally challenging and rewarding. I especially want to thank the individuals that helped make this happen. Complete thanks to my Parents, my teachers and friend's.

summary

A ray of HOPE

The path of enlightenment

Destiny and Determination

Out of the Abyss

Fire of Delight

the sun will shine bright ;

there would come an end to these dark nights; all the evil would die in the light; let's take an oath; to protect our kith; let's stand thight; our hope and soul would fight; there would be an end to these nights; there would be an end to these nights; the sun would again shine bright. -Neharika Bansal

The path of enlightenment

Where shall I start ; Where shall I halt ; The way is Lucent; But uncharted and distant; On this way I feel persistent; If I crossed this path it would be a achievement; This path may enlighten my fate; Or may destruct my life journey;

Destiny and Determination

If I am wrong,
I don't want to be right;
If I want to do something this is the night,
No one dares to interrupt;
Opportunities do not wait so long,
If you want to do something just be determined you don't have much time
Your destiny awaits
-Neharika

Out of the Abyss

There came a time when I forgot to smile

I found the most profound felicity
As a great misery

Everyone seemed a foe
No one seemed like my own.

And then you came in my life
And taught me how to smile

In those hard times you gave me a feel of delight

Never can I pay your debt
Never can I value

You made me what I am today where are you,hey

-Neharika

Fire of Delight

I want to get lost, Again in that mist; All my best , All my worst ; Wanna see them again With my kith and kin Want to see you with me Coloured in that pink hue Wanna stay by your side Day and night Together lets reignite the fire of delight Lets skip through the time And hike back in that time
