Same person different profile

I'm Crowns4Christ,but with a new profile,
This is my new one,I tried to log into Crowns4Christ,for a while,
But I was locked out,and my password failed me,
So s new account is the only way that I could continue to be,
My email had crashed and is no longer active,
So I have to make due and be proactive,
So now here I am,same person, different profile,
I really hope that this poem makes you smile ?

Merry Christmas

Merry Christmas to all here in our MPS family of poets,
From Florida to all of you around world,I love you all,I just don't know how to show it, Ever since I joined 5 years ago, we've had love, laughter,tears and some unfortunate words with some,
It's been an experience that I wouldn't trade for anything,thank you all for all of the love and support that you've shown me and Dion,
A very Merry Christmas to you all from both of us to all of you!!
May God bless your holiday season with love, laughter and the Spirit of the Lord

Christmas Star

Christ the Lord is good and just,
Must we always be hateful and distrust?
Put our energy instead into God and that He knows what is right,
Instead of always itching to argue and start a fight,
We must love one another, support and encourage our fellow man,
We must trust and forgive, lend each other a hand,
We mustn't allow the devil to take hold of us and instill hate within our hearts,
He will try to corrupt us and take away our loving parts,
We cannot allow Satan into our lives to take hold of who we are,
We must keep our eyes on the Lord, and follow that Bright Christmas Star

Believe

Believe in our Lord Jesus Christ and you, He will save,
For us,he was nailed to the cross, His life He freely gave,
So that we could find His glory and grace,
And be with Him forever,after running the good race,
We gained our Salvation by His goodness and love,
That can only be given by our Father in Heaven above,
God has a plan for us,each and every one,
Of His children that follow His Holy Son,
He is the Way,the Truth and the Life,
I'm not saying that it will be easy,but it is well worth the strife,
Evil will not give up on us,because we belong to the Lord,
Satan will actually double his efforts against us,so sharpen your sword, Meaning your faith,love and truth in God's own word,
We CAN overcome evil,if we believe,
In Christ Jesus,and that only He can set us free.

Reconnected

It is so nice to be reconnected,
I never realized that when I'm gone,how others are affected,
I don't know if I'm missed,
I'm sure at times I am dissed,
All I know is how I feel and think,
I missed you all,but I was only gone for what seemed to me,a blink,
I know that it was months,but you were always on my mind,
But now I'm here,being absent is far behind,
Now that we are reconnected,
I realized just how much you were affected

The Mission

The Lord saves those of us that believe,
And leaves behind those who are deceived,
The Evil one is on a mission to destroy,
The lives of those that but into his ploy,
The devil thinks that he is above God the Most High,
But in reality, he is lower than the lowliest pesky fly, Satan thinks that he can take his pick,
But he can't understand that he can't, his skull is too thick,
His mission will never be complete,
So Satan, on you, I'm hitting delete.

Perfectly planned

Our lives for us are all part of a perfect plan,
A plan made from the Lord, and not by man,
Perfectly planned, day by day, year by year,
All in a perfect sequence, not from playing it by ear, Anything that is meant to happen will,
Just a command from God, and the plan will fulfill,
To usher in peace and harmony for all,
That believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, not for those that are foretold to fall,
The fallen are condemned to hell, destined to suffer agony and pain,
Not the peaceful life of us believers, living under Christ Jesus's FOREVER Holy Reign,
I will live for the Lord, though I'm as small as a grain of sand,
I believe that for me, the Lord has my life, PERFECTLY PLANNED.

Breathing God

We all need God,like the air that we breathe,
Not just in the morn,but also at noon and in the eve,
He isn't some luxury item that you can buy,
But a necessity,that we need,like the air we sigh,
Everytime that we take a breath,it is from the Lord above,
We are breathing God,with every person that we love, GOD is LOVE,always was,is and will forever be,
What about you,is it God that you breathe??

Bald Is Beautiful

Bald is beautiful, hair doesn't mean a thing,
It doesn't change who you are, just adds to what you can bring,
Adds to your uniqueness and your flair,
Plus has the added benefit to not having much to care,
NO shampoo or hair care products at all,
Nothing to brush out, or anything to fall,
Nothing to clean up, after it falls out,
All of you that have no hair, you can celebrate and shout,
Whether it is your choice or not, your life can still be full,
So just believe me when I say that BALD IS BEAUTIFUL!!!!

Giving Back

This site is our way of giving back,
To those of you that support us and the skills that we lack,
This is our way of helping you,
And you have our support in all that you do,
You don't need hair to be great,
You don't need hair to help erase the hate,
You can be bald and still do whatever you wish,
You can be a doctor or chef, and cook up an incredible dish,
You can be an actor, or even president of the United States,
Be anything that you want to be, just do it with love not hate,
Giving back is more than helping out,
This is our way of giving all you bald people a huge loving shout out!!!!

Loving you

Loving you is truly a blessing from our Lord,
He took control of my life, and gave me someone to look towards,
Baby, God led me directly to you here on MPS,
I wasn't expecting it to become love, I must confess,
The longer that time went by, the more our love did blossom,
Honey, I never thought that we could feel so awesome,
We have never felt like this toward any other,
Not friend, nor family, nor any past lover,
Our love really is a gift sent directly to us from God almighty, Baby, I'm never going to let go of our love, I will forever hold onto you tightly,
I love our life together, but loving YOU is truly the greatest part,
I want you to know, Dion, that you have totally captured my heart.

JUST BE YOURSELF

Just be yourself with everything you do,
Regardless of what others say, just be authentically you,
If they can't accept who you are, it is their loss,
Their opinion doesn't matter, don't let your heart be tossed,
Don't lose sleep over it, don't stress,
Just keep pressing on, moving forward, and forget about the whole mess, Just be yourself, no matter what,
And keep your own mind open and not shut,
Be true to yourself and continue to press on,
And let all of the negativity be gone.

Working Hard

I've been working hard for God's glory,
Doing what I can to share His true story,
Sharing the gospel whenever I can,
Doesn't matter who, child woman or man,
The Lord's love for us, we cannot comprehend,
For He died for all of us, we have all sinned,
You and I, and everyone else to,
Only one was ever without sin, that was Jesus, not me nor you,
We all fall short of the glory of God, none of us actually deserve His love,
But God still sends it down to us, directly from Heaven above,
I will continue working hard for our Lord, Never to worry, never to falter, and it is to Him that my eyes will forever look toward.
They say that home is where the heart is, my heart and home is forever in the hands of the Lord.

The Lord Provides

The Lord Provides for those that cry out,
But first we must surrender to Him and erase all doubt,
Any that we might have stored up inside,
Though the enemy tells us that we are wasting time on this beautiful ride,
Don't listen to Satan, he is the biggest liar,
Our souls are on the line, this is dire,
The Lord Provides for us, His children,
It doesn't matter who we were, what we did or where we've been,
Only that we surrendered ourselves truly to Him, and believe that Jesus Christ had died on the cross for our sins, and three days later, rose again,
The Lord will provide for His children always,
Even though we are unworthy and sinful, He loves and protects us throughout all of our days

What do you do

Tell me,when you are having an off day,what do you do?
Do you take control,or do you let stress control you,
If you let it control you, your day will not end happy,
You will be upset,stressed out and ultimately snappy,
You will not care at the time who you hurt,
Their feelings will not matter,and you will treat them like dirt,
If we take control,and bring down the bull by the horns,
We will remove the negativity and also the deep rooted thorns,
You will be in a better state of mind when it is time to go to sleep,
Your rest will be peaceful and your slumber will be deep,
You will awake in a better state of mind,
Just move forward and leave the stressful situations behind,
So I ask again,when you are having an off day,what will you do?
Take the bull by the horns,or let him stomp you?

Give Into God

Give in to God, for He loves you,
Give in to God because Jesus died for you too.
Give in to the Lord above,
Surrender yourself to Him, specifically out of love.
His love guides us and steers our lives true,
He gives us His light and outshines the blues.
Give in to God, and trust in His perfect plan,
And He will multiply our blessings like the tiny grains of sand.
Give in to God, and He will provide for you,
Out of the perfect love that He has for you.

Fall into God

Fall into God's arms, and He will catch you everytime, Trust in Him and He will not leave you ever in your lifetime,
Lean on Him, in your times of need,
When you feel the tug, His voice you will heed,
Lay your troubles at His feet, and He will remove your sins, Entirely forgotten are all of our faults and false reasons,
That we tell ourselves that we are good enough,
When I'm reality we are very weak and not at all tough,
Fall in to God when you are in need,
And strive to live in His light and do o n'er a bad deed

Why are we here?

Have you ever wondered why we are here,
Or if God loves us why do we fear,
Each thing we go through, is for the glory of God above,
Each moment in our lives have been planned out with love,
Some things are tough, and we question why?
But if we didn't experience these tribulations, then we would never know the miracles or blessings of the Most High,
I have asked many times, why are we here,
But the answer is always the same, look into a mirror,
We are made in the image of the Lord of all,
We are here to do His will and follow His plan,
He won't leave us ever, not child, woman, nor man,
Why are we here, I have asked this many times,
To do the will of God, and bring Him glory, for me, it is through my simple rhymes.

Our time together

The time that we have together is an experience to behold,
The way it feels when you pull into your chest to closely hold,
When our lips touch, it sends shivers down my spine,
I am so blessed that I can honestly call you mine,
The way it makes me feel when you call me your beautiful butterfly, Honey, it brings tears to my eyes, at times I feel like I will cry, Our time together is undeniably by our Lord's willing,
When it is just you and I, it feels so right, never awkward, and never has a bad feeling, Dion Phillips Crown, you are my love, my life, and my forever, I love you so much.

Hollywood Beach Florida

Hollywood Beach is a beautiful sight,
Especially when the person you love is by your side,
We started with breakfast at IHOP then boarded Broward transit,
Then we went to Walmart,I got some jeans that doesn't have the right fit,
But I bought them anyway,be perfect for housekeeping days,
We really enjoyed our day together in so many different ways,
We walked along the boardwalk,from one end to the other,
Next time we will walk down the pier,not today though,save that for another.
We enjoyed pizza at the broadwalk cafe,
We have to try the ocean one restaurant,in Dania pointe another day.
Then we was going back home and walked clear to Dania Beach laughing about something,
Who knows what kind of surprises our next day together will bring,
Whatever it is,my love,I know that we will enjoy it,
From morning til night, hopefully in our car,not on public transit.

Postcard picture

Our postcard picture was taken on January 30,2023,
The day we went to Hollywood Beach,just you and me,
We talked and laughed,we played and teased,
When we went back home,with our day together,we were pleased,
Our postcard picture,with be forever etched in our two hearts,
Isn't it funny,how two separate lives can meet and how love starts,
We met here on MPS,our love grew from here,
Almost six years ago,weet and let go of our fear,
Fear of failing,fear of being always alone,
The Lord led us here,where our relationship has only grown,
We've had our ups and we've had our downs,
But love trump's all,and the devil's tricks drowns,
So here we are in our postcard picture in Hollywood, Living our lives as any loving couple in the Lord always should.

Nothing is by chance

Nothing is by chance,all is for a reason,
The people we meet and the places that we go,there is a time and season,
The people that we meet can be love or friends,
Only the Lord knows how this all ends,

Hurt

Sometimes we get hurt, over a misunderstanding or a slip of the tongue,
The other person don't know the hurt that they brung,
Everything happens for a reason,we all know this is true,
No matter what God will never give up on you,
Sometimes we feel at a loss and don't know what to do,
We can cry and pray,but remember that the Lord has got you,
It will hurt and will not be easy as pie,
I just pray that this is real and not a lie,
Nevertheless,I'm glad that we met,I can't imagine never knowing you, Now I need time to think,and figure out what to do.

Strong in faith

The strong in faith will never waiver,
Because we trust in Jesus Christ,our Savior,
We trust in Him in our times of need,
When He speaks to our hearts, His voice we heed,
The strong in faith will never back down,
We stare down the enemy and drive him from town,
The strong in faith need not fear,
Because Satan is powerless against our Father,whom holds us dear,
The strong in faith are warriors in Christ,
We are protected by His Holiness and might,
Strong in faith was Daniel in the lion's den,
Because he knew that God was all powerful and his faith wouldn't bend, Strong in faith was Moses,who freed Israel from captivity from pharaoh, Strong in faith was Abraham who walked with the Lord straight as an arrow, Strong in faith was Jesus Christ,who died for us,and trusted in His Father's plan and freely gave himself to die in our place so that we could live forever and ever,
I'm strong in faith,will you join me in this endeavor??

The hair cut

Last night I got my hair cut,
Some had asked the question for what?
The headaches were bad and it just got into the way,
Wrapped around my neck when it was down,now it's ok,
My head is alot lighter,and feels more free,
It looks great too,from what I can see,
Only the second time in my life that it was professionally cut right,
I'm thankful that I stay with a professional hairstylist that had a picture in mind,
Of how he wanted to cut it, what would look best,
Now I can be headache free and finally be at rest.

Chains of the Enemy

The enemy has us chained down,
Our emotions are awry and feels bound,
He whispers in our ear little bits of info,
That boils within us making our thoughts toss to and fro,
Is it true, is it not, we may never know,
The chains of the enemy are holding on tight, Trying to pull me away from the Lord's might,
I can guarantee that Satan will not win,
Because God's plan will prevail in the end,
Even if not now, the true will shine down,
Pulling us out of the water, giving us a crown,
There are five different crowns that we can receive,
The most important one, is because we believe,
Jesus will break the chains of the enemy from His Bride,
And wrap Satan in his own chains, for a thousand years, wounding the enemy's pride,
Then throw Satan into the lake of fire,
For ever and ever, we will be rid of that liar.

Opportunities

When you feel alone and like you have no where to turn,
Lay your troubles at the Lord's feet, and give them to Him to burn,
When you feel lost and all alone,
Remember that you are found, and take hold of the love that the Lord had shown,
Grasp on to the opportunity to grow,
Instead of weeping and groaning about feeling so low,
Transform the feeling of anxiety and depression,
Onto the joy and grace of acception,
Accept the fact that we are all in need and broken,
Hold on to our Father, for He has spoken.

It's hard

It's hard to stay full of trust when the enemy is attacking what I love,
But I know that the Lord is preparing me for His plan from above, Trials and tribulations bring us to God's plan for us,
I don't know what it is, but I know that we will stand and brush off the dust, God's plan for us will prevail, and Satans will fail,
Consider this a period of prayer and reflection,
Of ourselves and where we are with love and affection,
It's hard not to come running when you call,
But this is only going to raise us up, not make us fall, Whatever's the Lord's plan is, be it as it may,
We always put Him first, in any and all ways,
I do and always will love you,
We still need to keep God first in everything that we do.

Knitted Together

We are all knitted together by God's mighty hand,
Each and every one of us, created and spread across the land,
Millions of cells knitted together with a plan in place, Carefully and lovingly, perfectly placed,
He intertwined our lives together, and make our paths cross,
With those that will help us grow and hold us up, not put us down and our emotions tossed,
The Lord has made us with a perfect precision, Knitted together with a definitive decision,

Mysterious ways

The Lord works in mysterious ways,
That make us navigate this life as if we are in a maze,
People cross our paths, though we don't know why, Yet they are an important part of our journey, even those that just pass by,
Every piece of our lives have been perfectly planned,
For every single child, woman and man,
Everything happens for a reason, even heartbreak,
It will hurt for a while, but is the best for our sake,
We must follow the Lord's plan, even if it isn't what we thought it would be,
Because nobody knows our hearts and souls that intimately,
God knows us inside and out,
He is steering our lives to follow His will without a doubt.
God's mysterious ways are a glorious thing,
I truly believe in the Lord God Almighty, my Savior and King.

Blessed by God

We are blessed by God,whether we realize it or not,
Even though we get hurt sometimes, it is us that the Lord has got,
He loves us,and has us in is arms,
Holding and protecting us,keeping us safe from the devils harms,
He gives us peace and helps us succeed,
If we stay in his word and keep Him in our deeds,
I am blessed by God,and will always be,
Life will not be easy, but I know that my Father in Heaven will always have me.

It was more

It was more than the wash rags I found on that day,
They looked new with makeup on them by the way,
You told me that it was your mom's makeup that was on it,
But what I seen and your excuse just doesn't fit,
But whatever,what's done is done,and neither here nor there,
But for the record,it broke me,and I honestly did care,
And I always do,if that means anything to you,
You are the reason I came here,and traveled 3000 miles to be with you,
It was more than the beach,I agree that it was fun,
But still when moved closer, it was like you got all quiet and was done,
You wouldn't kiss me when I tried to kiss you,
How do you think that made me feel,you see that from you,
And when you had me hide in your closet when your mom got home,when we could have officially met,
That made me feel horrible,like you were embarrassed of me in some way,or did you forget,
I tried years for you to tell them that you found someone that you loved,
But it must not have been the case,because I felt pushed aside and shoved,
Into a drawer like a dirty little secret,that you didn't want to share,
For what it's worth ,I always did care,

My silence

My silence is no more,
That's what God broke me free for,
He gave me the ability to speak from my heart,
Now that I'm here, I have been able to do that,
My silence was killing me inside,
But I was patient and allowed the time to go by,
By doing what I was told, saying what I had to,
Just to get along and get through, 40 years is a long time to feel like this,
But God made a way for me to push through and make me His,
Everything that happened was for a reason, and I will never regret a thing,
Because it made me who I am today,

Blessed

We are all blessed in different ways,
Our blessings radiate the Lord's love like the warm sun rays,
Some of us can speak well, while others can teach,
It doesn't matter what we do best, only the message and the people we can reach,
Be it music, art or poetry,
Each is an opportunity to share the gospel of our Lord, which is completely free,
I have been blessed with the ability of writing from my heart,
Though it seems so small, it is a great jump start,
Words have so much power and when we use them right,
We will avoid the enemy and win the good fight.

A day the Lord made

A day the Lord made as beautiful as today,
I wouldn't trade for another in any way?
Spent the day at Dania Beach with a couple of friends, Brought some subs and played in the water, it's funny how certain wounds mends, Spending time with special people really is healing,
The Lord has blessed me with a certain feeling,
A feeling of joy and contentment,
Evaporating any feeling of hurt and resentment,
We really enjoyed the Lord's beautiful day,
And now I realize that I'm really going to be okay.

Let go and let God

Let go and let God take control,
He can heal you and make you whole,
Nobody else can fill that void in your life,
Nobody can make you feel loved like God can and get rid of the strife,
Let go and let God, surrender to only Him alone,
The enemy will try to trick you and lead you to things that the Lord does not condone,
Trust in Him that loves you unconditionally forever,
And you will not ever want for anything not now, not ever,
Don't get wrong things will be hard and we will struggle too,
But keep God in sight and be lead through the trials and tribulations because He loves you

Childish games

Why must grown adults play childish games,
Spreading rumors and calling names,
Shouldn't we have left that behind us when we grew,
Jealousy and envy plays a role too,
When the devil worms his way in, he causes an uproar,
But I'm bigger than that , I will overcome and only higher will I soar,
When people try to put me down, I only get stronger,
The Lord has given me His strength and i will endure longer, It's time to put away childish things and grow into the people that God has meant us to be,
Living and loving, being honest at all costs and free

My best friend

My best friend is the Lord up above,
Who always shines upon us His unending love,
He never forsakes us, nor leaves us alone,
Even if some of our actions He cannot condone,
He is our Father in Heaven and will forever hold us in His mighty arms, Protecting us from Satan and keeping us safe from evils harm,
Of course He allows times of trials and tribulations,
That is how we grow as believers and gain great patience,
My best friend will never leave me,
The Lord will guide me to the truth and open my eyes to see,
The strength of His love and overseeing eye,
Lifting us up and receiving us on high.

What was

What happened, happened and is in the past,
And you're right, the next piece is better than the last,
He sees me as a woman, not a watch on his arm,
Protecting me at all costs, keeping me from all harm, Wants to be seen with me and am proud that I'm his,
Not a day goes by that he doesn't remind me of that with a kiss,
He comes to see me everyday, no matter what,
And tries to uplift me when I get stuck in a rut,
What once was, I would never change, ever
I live with no regrets and appreciate our endeavor,
So I want to thank you for everything that you have done,
Because it helped form who I am and taught me how to have fun,
I pray that one day we can be a friend,
After all we will all be in God's kingdom in the end.

Everglades

Today I went to holiday park on the everglades,
It was so hot we were searching for shade,
There was none to be found and it was only getting hotter,
When we went on the dock there was a gator chilling in the water,
I was tempted to join him, the water looked nice and cool,
But realized that wasn't the smartest thing to do, maybe we should find a pool,
Oh well we will just go home in the cool air conditioned room,
And rest for the day and maybe go to the beach tonight and walk under the moon, Anyway the day was great and I'm feeling good,
If you have never been to the glades, maybe someday you should

Ruby rae

Ruby rae was a sweet girl,
But she lived in a very cruel world,
She was a poet here last year,
With a past that had made her fear,
Satan had taken control,
And had taken a lead role,
He put voices into her head,
After her father has passed away dead,
She was driven to anorexia and cutting,
Her personal life and friends she was shutting,
Listening to the voices telling her that she was nothing ,
But the truth is, is that she was really something,
I had the pleasure of being her friend,
Up until her sad and cruel end,
At least she passed as a believer in Christ Jesus,
Accepting the fact that He died for us,
She was hospitalized last April and into May,
Before she was on life support and then ran away,
From the hospital, the voices convinced her to go,
And try to commit suicide and sink so low,
She was found on the street by an old "friend" ,
Who raped her and kept her hidden in the end,
Luckily she escaped and was found in a park,
Broken and confused she was found in the dark,
Back to the hospital she went where she was totally helpless,
From the wounds from the rape, she had died from sepsis,
On May 5th it will have been a year,
But on my heart her memory has been seared,
I'm so thankful for that February day,
The cold crisp one that I met beautiful sweet Ruby Rae.

God's will

God's will can be many different things,
We never know what this crazy life brings,
With every stumble God catches us,
With every fall He lift us from the dust,
He will nourish us when we hunger and thirst,
He protects us when we keep Him first,
He will lead us when we are lost in the dark,
And He will be there for us when we miss the mark,
Everyone will stumble and fall,
We all will eventually drop the ball,
But if we keep trusting in the Lord, in all that we do,
He will keep leading and protecting me and you.

Wildfire

There is a wildfire that burns within us all,
Don't let it consume you, or you will be headed for an inevitable fall,
We must contain this wildfire,
Or else give in to Satan the liar,
God has made us who we are today,
Everything we experience and overcome help form who we are in everyway, Don't try to change because of something that happened,
It may have been a blessing in disguise in the end,
The Lord works in mysterious ways and has a perfect plan ,
We need to extinguish the wildfire before it can spread across the land

The reason I'm here

The reason I'm here will eventually come to light,
But only when the time is right,
Only the Lord knows the reason I'm here,
So I only trust in Him and for not fear,
I know that there will be ups and downs,
But my eyes are trained on Him and I will not sink and drown,
The reason I'm here could be many things,
So I guess I will have to wait and see what this life brings,
I have risen and fallen, only to grow,
In my faith and love in the Lord, I try to show,
Through my words and poetry, I pray that it will help one,
Only one person is all I need to help lead to God's Son,
One person will make it a successful feat,
Leading one lost soul to the Lord is all I need,
Hopefully it will be many, only God knows what they will do,
Open your mind and who know what He will do in you.

Weak

I am strong, yet I am weak,
When I am at my lowest, I am also at my peak,
The Lord humbles us and at the same time strengthens us,
Even though at times we will complain and fuss,
I am weak, but am strong enough to survive,
I have just enough to live a comfortable life,
I am weak, but through my weakness, the Lord has made me strong,

I am strong

I am strong, not weak,
I speak the truth, and not for it seek,
I have a strong heart and mind,
I will not be broken down or leave the truth behind,
I have a strong will,
I will not just go with the flow until,
The Lord returns with all of His glory and power,
All will be well in that day and hour,
I will not merely follow the crowd,
Because the majority doesn't hear the Lord speaking to us aloud,
I am strong, because that is how the Lord has made me,
To persevere and succeed on bended knee,
Lifting me eyes to Him has led me to where I am now, Perfectly blessed in every way, though I can't fathom how,
Because I don't deserve His forgiveness or love,
None of us do, but He freely gives them to us from above,
He makes us strong through His only Son,
And by trusting in Him, we have truly won.

Wings

I have wings that you cannot see,
You will never know I have them if you don't know the true me,
If you get close enough, to you I might reveal,
Who I really am, I am real,
What you see is what you get, it can be a treat,
I will not be taken for granted, nor will I allow defeat,
If you know the real me,
Your eyes would see,
A beautiful soul that has wings spread wide to accept all that accept me

Work Woes

Has anyone ever had working woes,
Where co workers bring things to new lows,
They cause problems just because you are doing good,
Better than anyone expected that you would,
Causing problems because you're actually trying,
To make a better environment, putting in effort and striving,
Striving to succeed and overcome,
Everything that people said that you would ever become,
It is terrible to be criticized for exceeding,
And excelling the expectations that others have been feeding,
Don't give in to the lies and rumors,
Just smile and find the humors

Another day

Another day in the office starts again,
Running it alone all through the weekend,
Keeping up on the paperwork and basically managing the different properties,
At least the help I have on the weekend at the hotel will be a breeze, Tomorrow is Julio and Sunday is Christina, who both have my back, Picking up the skills that I lack,
It's a team effort and we are a family, as well as great friends
With them in my corner and at my back, I am beginning to enjoy working on weekends.

WATCH

Watch the skies, for He is coming in great glory,
I pray that your sights are straight forward and not blurry,
The road we walk should be the straight and narrow,
Aiming tride and true like the bow and arrow,
Our aim should be on God, with His purpose in mind,
Leaving all of our wickedness and sinful nature far behind,
WATCH, for He is coming to rule and reign,
Ushering in our Heavenly home eliminating all pain,
WATCH, for JESUS CHRIST, is on His way,
And will wipe away every tear that we cry and let us know that everything will ok.

Chaotic day

The day started out like any other day,
Until I arrived at work, then it went a different way,
All hell broke loose and there was the presence of the law,
A wanted person was on the property, and down popped my jaw,
It was unbelievable to think that this woman was here,
Just a few blocks from me, but there was nothing to fear,
Security was handling the situation and keeping me up to date,
So that I could handle my end with ease and keep control before it was too late,
Keeping each other posted on the happenings around,
Working together like when ears meet sound,
All was well and the situation was controlled,
Then the rain started and the thunder rolled,
A drenching downpour throughout the day,
Even tornado warnings going off in every way,
Lightning hitting telephone poles and oh, and the flooding too,
I've literally never experienced anything like this before, how about you??

My message

Last night my great grandmother came to me in a dream, Bringing me a message it would seem,
She said that her job is complete,
She said that the past, you need to delete,
I have guided you to where you need to be,
And the man that you are with is truly the key,
He is the key to your happiness, and the beginning of your forever,
He will treat you right and hurt you never,
My job is finished, now I must go,
I love you, and I wanted you to know,
That Julio loves you fully and is the key,
He has the key to your heart and will set you free.

Empty Tomb

Indeed, He has risen from the empty tomb, Saving us all from impending doom,
The angels rolled the rock from the entrance to Jesus's tomb, Leaving behind a bare and empty room,
Except for His shroud, that held the image of Christ,
The Son of God, whom has dearly paid our price,
Mary came and found the empty tomb,
Arriving in tears and covered in gloom,
She rejoiced when the Angel revealed that Jesus has risen , Freeing us all from our sinful prison,
The empty tomb was meant to be an example for sinners,
But instead, that Holy place makes all of us believers Winners,
It was there that Jesus set us free,
So that our blind eyes would be open, truly allowing us to see,
It was the pharisees folly,
That actually made the empty tomb HOLY !!

Blessings

The Lord has blessed me with many things,
Even in difficult times, blessings He still did bring,
Blessings in disguise are sometimes the sweetest ones,
Because they take us by surprise when all is said and done,
When we pray, He answers in His time,
Maybe not when we expect it, but He will at sometime,
It may be a ways down the road, but He will always answer if we believe, Wholeheartedly and not to deceive,
God has blessed me with many things,
I'm so grateful for God's blessings and all the love that they bring.

Heartbeats

When two hearts beat on sync,
Your words come easy and you don't have to think,
Of what to say, there's no uncomfortable silence,
There's no question of being on the fence,
When two hearts beat as one,
You enjoy every moment together, and put each other second to none,
Just being together is exciting,
And looking in each other's eyes are so inviting,
When two heart beat in sync,
There is definitely an undeniable link,
It physically hurts to be apart,
And when you are together again your heart does a little restart,
When your hearts join once again, you feel complete,
Knowing that you won't let each other fall or fall to defeat,
You lift one another up and encourage each other's dreams,
Helping to achieve the best life you can together without tearing apart at the seams,
When two hearts beat in sync,
You never want to miss a moment, not even wanting to blink.

Homeless

Once again I'm without a home,
At least this time I'm not alone,
My roommate kicked me out for no reason at all,
I honestly don't understand it, but we've heard the call,
The call to up and leave and start anew,
With a new life, a new job, to name a few,
We are leaving town and going somewhere that no one knows,
Watching God to lead us, and see where He shows,
My man and I are in this together now, Determined to show everyone that we know how,
To make this work, even in the hardest times, that is our reality right now,
Things are being said and done to us that isn't ok,
So we will not accept it and are moving away.
No matter what, we will always have each other,
To love and guide and cherish the lives of one another,
So good bye for now, be back when I can,
Going to go start a new life in a new place with my incredible man.

The Lord always provides for His flock,
In the most difficult circumstances He watches over us around the clock, Leading us to where we are meant to be,
According to His perfect plan, where we can be free,
Free from the enemy and from those against us,
And we will follow God, if we believe and have the guts,
To leave everything behind and throw caution into the wind,
Trust in the Lord and go wherever we are Sent,
With no plan in place we will follow the Lord's will,
As children of His will trust in Him up and over every mountain and hill,
So Lord, where ever You lead, we will follow,

New life, New family

Now our life is starting away from the toxicity,
In a place we've never been, thankfully not in a big city,
Instead of being alone, I now have a big family,
That welcomed me with open arms, belonging somewhere finally,
God is leading us to do His will,
Taking us to a place that will fit the bill,
Fit our needs and be a safe place to grow,
We will get a place of our own, with a nice yard to mow,
We will put in a playground for the kids, where they can freely play,
Stay with us sometimes throughout the day, Tio and Titi's house will be a favorite place to come to,
Then go home with Mami and Papi until the next time through

Alone

I've went through my life feeling alone,
Feeling like a robot or maybe a drone,
Being controlled by everyone and doing what they wanted me to,
I felt lost and didn't know what else to do,
Even when I left home, something still seemed missing,
I could hear the devil whispering in my ear and the snakes hissing, Then one day I woke up and my eyes were opened to my surroundings,
The Lord has shown me the truth and it was truly astounding,
I met the man that I was truly meant for,
This love feels like it has never before,
No longer am I alone or depressed or even down,
Where I once felt lost, now I am found.

I'm here for you

When you need someone to talk to, I'm here for you,
When you need a shoulder to cry on, I'm here for you,
When you need a laugh, I'm here for you,
When you need a friend, I'm here for you,
When you need a kind word, I'm here for you,
When you need a little inspiration, I'm here for you,
When you need prayer, I'm here for you,
When you need anything at all, I'm here for you.
We are all part of God's family, we are all brothers and sisters in christ,
We need to be there for each other no matter what, to me, it is what feels right.

If I didn't love you

If I didn't love you, I just wouldn't be the same,
You made me believe in myself the day that you came,
You showed me what it truly means to love,
Being strong and faithful, yet gentle as a dove,
If I didn't love you, I wouldn't fear,
And my fear of losing you, I will always shed a tear,
If I didn't love you, I wouldn't text you throughout the day,
Just to let you know that you are on my mind in every way,
If you didn't love me, you wouldn't have done what you did,
Leaving everything behind so now nothing has to stay hid,
If you didn't love me, you wouldn't tell me everything,
Even knowing that it could hurt me, honesty is what you still bring,
If we didn't love each other, we wouldn't be where we are right now,
I trust in us and will make this vow,
I will always be here for you in all things,
Through our struggles and successes, whatever our life brings,
I will love you always no matter what,
We will make it through all the doors that in our faces, seem to shut,
Together we will push through and survive the wildest of storms,
And will overcome anything that is put in front of us, anything that forms,
Because I believe in us, and anything I will do,
To comfort, care for and support, because I love you.

Let's be real

Ok, let's be real,
It is important to speak how we feel,
It is not good to keep everything inside,
Be it good or bad, it can create a bumpy ride,
Letting others guess what is on our mind,
Can be something to bite us in the behind,
If we are not perfectly clear and have good communication,
Things can get out of hand, and we can misinterpret things and get a permanent vacation, Losing everything we love for a stupid thought,
That poisons our minds and we forget everything that we were taught,
So honestly, from now on, I'm not going to worry or be afraid,
Because with what the Lord has given to me, I truly have it made,
No more will I fear or have a suspicious mind,
I'm just going to enjoy and love what the Lord has made mine.

GREATFUL

I'm grateful for everyone that is in my life,
They chased away the demons that have been causing me strife,
They are accepting and loving in every way,
And I'm so grateful for that each and every day,
I don't need the ones that are fake and only want what they can get,
They are no longer in my life, so that I can move on and forget,
The healing hands of those that love me,
Will go to any length to protect and love, truly setting my heart free,
Thank you Lord for the ones in my life now,
Giving me the love that I've never felt somehow,

Thank you

I wanted to take the time to say thank you,
For being supportive and honest, Accepting and for being true,
Not another imposter, trying to be someone that you're not,
Showing me your true self, not the one that everyone else got,
You showed me a side of you that no one else knows,
I don't understand what gives me this privilege, but your love for me shows,
Through your actions and words, and your loving ways,
I want to be with you for the rest of my days,
You know the real me, and thank you for being real,
Sometimes I can't find the words to say how I truly feel.

Power of your love

When you hold me, I can feel the power of your love,
We were directed towards each other from the Lord above,
When you hold me, I feel safe and sound,
When around me, Your arms surround,
When you kiss my forehead when I'm sleeping,
Let's me know that my heart in your hand are in safe keeping,
When our hands touch, the feeling is electrifying,
Our love for one another is strong, there is no denying,
When you hold me, I can feel your power,
The power of love between us at any given hour,
When you hold me, I am the happiest that I've ever been, EVER
I can feel that we will not part ways, NEVER

I REFUSE

I refuse to break under the pressure of my mind,
I need to stay focused on the things that are loving and kind,
Like the Lord in heaven up above,
And on my man, and his undying love,
Forget about the lies that the enemy is feeding me,
Trying to chain and bind me, attempting to keep me from being free,
I refuse to allow Satan to win my heart and mind,
They are already spoken for, so Satan, get thee behind,
Return to the pit to which you belong,
Take your lies and hatred with you along,
There is no room within my heart and mind for anything but love and affection,
For my Father in Heaven and for the gift of love that He has given to me,
I will not let them go, I REFUSE,
I am determined to keep what is mine, that is what I choose.

Lord save us

Lord save us, from the coming storm,
Keep us safe when Satan takes his earthly form,
And becomes a man that will try to fool many of yours,
And will succeed with most, that is an utter horror,
Your children need you, Lord, to lift us from this evil place,
And bring us home to Your Heavenly place,
Where we will be in no pain or fear,
And Your every word, everyone will hear,
And be in the midst of Your Heavenly grace,
And having Your Son, Jesus Christ pleasing our disappointing case,
We all fall short and do not deserve Your forgiveness Lord,
But nevertheless, You love us unconditionally and will not sever the binding cord, Unless we turn from you and reject Jesus Christ, Lord, I will not leave you and love you with all of my might,
Thank you for all the blessings You have given to me,
And the people you have brought into my life, I truly feel like I'm beginning to be free,
Free from the devils grasp and stife,
Thank you Lord for this new life!

Doubt

The devil tries to put doubt in our minds,
Attempting to make us leave the things that we love behind,
It doesn't matter what it is, he will use anything,
Our faith, family, love and friends,
Trying to make everything good come to an end,
But we cannot allow him to snake his way into our happiness and love,
Because the one that is in control is in Heaven above, Guiding us according to His plan,
For our best life here, with our fellow man, Faith hope and love are some of the things that we live for,
We cannot let them go and close the door,
Don't let Satan in and speak lies into your ear,
Hold close to your heart all of the people and things that you hold dear.

In the eye of the storm

In the eye of the storm, our Lord is there,
Protecting you, making sure that no harm comes to even one hair,
He is there in our times of need,
He is there when we are faced with situations of greed,
In the eye of the storm, our Lord is near,
Holding us close and drawing away our fear,
He is there when we need Him most,
The Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Helping us fight for our freedom and for our peace,
Calming the storm within our hearts, making the wild winds cease,
In the eye of the storm, God is holding out His hand,
Will you take hold and do all that you can?,
Will you put up a fight to keep the love,
That the Lord has given to you from up above,
Anything worth loving, is worth putting up a fight,
Doesn't matter if it's day or the dark of night,
Our Lord is there all of the time,
He knows the truth and when the moment is prime,
In the eye of the storm, trust in the Lord, Because losing everything, is not something that we can afford.

Trust your heart

Trust in your heart,
It has always guided you right from the start,
It is to your heart, to which God speaks,
And where your goodness and love peaks,
God gives you His grace mercy and love,
Into your heart from heaven above, Always listen to your heart, you can feel the innocence and just,
Steer clear of the evil and tainted, you must,
Always remember that God is in control and with Him we can never go wrong, Trust in your heart, it is the Lord's song

Listen to your heart

Listen to your heart, not your head,
Your heart will always be true, your head will always play games instead,
Your heart will not lead you astray,
Hard saying what games your head will play,
Your heart will always be true,
While your head will always try to fool you,
The Lord powers the heart, and it is Him that will lead,
Satan controls the mind, and will plant a life destroying seed,
Trying to take away any and all things good,
But trust in the Lord, we should,
To lead us to love, happiness and the right place to start,
So please, ignore your head, and listen to your heart.

I'm only human, I will break but I won't shatter,
I can be hurt, but not destroyed,
I will fall, but I will get up again,
I'm a strong woman that have had my share of bring torn down,
But I always get up stronger than before,
And will prevail because I trust in the Lord and believe that He is the only way, Nobody can permanently bring me down.
I will cry on the inside, you will never see my weakness,
I will be strong , I will survive every storm.

If today was your last

If today was your last day, how would you spend it,
Would you go climb a mountain or just quietly sit,
If today was your last, what would you do,
Would you spend it with friends and family, or be just you,
If today was your last, where would you go,
To an amusement park, or watch the river flow,
If today was your last, tell me, where would you go,
And be honest, because I really want to know.

Our first home

Our first home is just an apartment,
But it is perfect for us and it is what God has meant,
For us to start out and we will work our way up,
Starting from nothing, kinda like an empty cup,
It's one bedroom but is of good size,
Perfect for the two of us to love and rise,
Rise above all things that others have told us that we can't,
We will overcome obstacles quietly and not brag or rant,
We will grow at just the right pace,
For we follow God's plan, and are not part of a race,
We will keep our faith and our eyes on our Father God above,
Who has given us everything, especially happiness and love,
It was a hard road for us both, getting to where we're at,
Being treated unfairly and betrayed but we've overcome that,
Now we have our first home together and will only grow from here,
We have our love and our God, we have nothing to fear

Why

Why must others try to convince that we are a bad influence,
Especially when we try our best to bring honor to God in all we do, it just doesn't make sense,
Do things out of the goodness of our heart,
For it to become that we're a bad influence, and not to trust us,
It doesn't make any sense, why the fuss??
I've never done anything bad in my life and to get this said about me, It's ridiculous and sad that someone has to say these things to make themselves feel better, oh well, it will not break me,
I'm still the happy and loving person that I was just with a bit of confusion,
Thank you for reading, you know, this should have been a fusion.

We won't break

We won't break no matter how hard you try,
We refuse to give in and really dont care why,
Why the stories and why the lies,
It doesn't make any sense,so why try,
We won't spend another second and give satisfaction,
To the ones that want to see a big reaction,
It's ridiculous and petty, to say these things, Knowing they are false and the drama it brings,
Trying to break us is only a waste of time and energy,
The fools will be revealed and the truth will set us free

True Friends

True friends never leave you,
Even when we move, I'm still here for you,
It doesn't matter the distance or miles away,
I will always be here for you, I'm just a call away,
Friends can lean on each other and can be told anything,
And honesty and comfort is what I will always try to bring,
But we are more than friends, we are sisters in Christ,
He made our paths cross so that we can shine bright,
And bring Him glory in everything we do,
Support each other and be family, me and you,
So next time you feel down and feel like there is nobody there,
Remember the true friends and family you have and that we all truly care.

For my friends, Sarah Shaw Grossnickle ,Ginger Willinger and Linda Midyette,
I love you guys

Faith Over Fear

Faith over fear

We must keep our faith over fears,
Keep far away our worries and the things that bring sad tears,
Old memories and worries will only bring heartache,
And reminding us of the things that God has delivered us from for our sake,
He delivered us from the things that hurt us for a reason,
The time to revisit will come in its own season,
I'm writing this to remind everyone, especially me,
That God is holding us in His mighty arms and setting us free, Free from the strongholds of our past hold,
Freeing our thoughts from Satan's control,
Free from the shadows of our own darkness, bringing us into the light, I'm writing this to remind you all to never give up the Good Fight.

Fractured ankle

Today I fell and gave my ankle a small fracture,
The pain was so incredibly bad, but I had to endure,
A ride in an ambulance to the nearest hospital for an evaluation,
It wasn't a shatter or full break, imagine my elation,
A fracture of the talus bone that connects the foot and the leg bone
It hurts like hell, at least I got help and I'm not alone,
I can't imagine going through this by myself, with nobody to help,
Ouch, a little sharp pain, it made me yelp,
Oh well, it must be for a reason,
That will come to light in the right season,
A fractured ankle is not fun at all,
I'm out of work for a while, til I can recover from my fall,
Don't know what I will do but I trust God has a plan,
So I will be so patient and thankful for my hard working man,
He will work so we can make ends meet,
He will pick up the slack while I stay home off my hurting feet.

I will praise you

I will praise you in times of tragedy and peace,
This love for you,Lord, will never cease,
You have been with me, even before I believed,
I didn't know that it was You that led me away from those that deceived,
I didn't know that,You Lord,was in absolute control,
Each and everytime that I would fall,
You were always there to pick me up,
It was You, that filled my empty cup,
LORD, You have brought me back from the dead,
You have given me Your nourishing bread,
And You Lord, have saved me from a unthinkable fate,
Last September when I have fully surrendered to you,
You have rained blessing upon blessing over me, and given me salvation too,
I will praise you,LORD, through good times and in bad,
You show me the light even when I'm mad,
Everything has a purpose and is according to Your plan,
I will survive because with You, I know that I can

The look in your eyes

The look in your eyes, tell me all I need to know,
No words are needed,because through your actions, your love shows,
Just a touch of your hand or a brush of your lips,
And in the silence the way we touch finger tips, It's the simplest things that mean the most,
When you kiss my forehead and whisper I LOVE YOU, then draw me close,
The look in your eyes speak much louder than anything you can say,
Your actions make me feel your love for me in every way,
The look in your eyes show me your true soul,
On the outside your big and tough, but that's only part of you not the whole,
Your soul is what makes you a loving and caring and sweet man,
You have protected me time and time again,
Defending my honor and standing up for the one that you love,
You go to every extent going beyond and above,
Here I am on a broken ankle, and all I can think about is you and your love,
I will forever be thankful to God above,
He brought us together through similar things,
And now finally we have every blessing that His love brings,
Things can be tough and a bit if a struggle, but we're happy

Stress free

Wouldn't it be nice to be stress free,
Never having to worry about anything,
Not bills or health issues,
Not family matters or work too,
Just living to love and loving to live,
Is how it should be and how we all should live,
When the Lord comes back and takes us home,
That is how it will be,
We will all be living totally stress free!

Faith in hard times

Keep your faith even in the hardest of times,
Anything can happen to anyone, whether they are young, old, or in their prime,
God tests our faith through tribulations and trials,
We must keep our faith, even if these hard times go on for a while,
God is in control of every situation, good or bad,
He loves it when we are happy, His love never leaves us, when we're sad, He is there for every single one of us,
And rejoices when we call on His name to lift us out of the dust,
We fall to our knees and pray for help and guidance,
Those are the times that God loves, because we are surrendering ourselves to Him, trusting Him to deliver us.
So in ALL SITUATIONS, call upon the name of the Lord and trust that He WILL deliver you and give thanks to HIM,
Have Faith over fear, and trust that He knows what is best for us,

Giving up

Giving up really means giving in,
Giving in to Satan and letting him win,
Giving him the power over you,
Where will that lead you, what will you do?
Giving up, is really giving up our Holy Father, Turning away from God and basically saying, what's the bother, Taking the easy road and not trying,
Is like telling God that He isn't worth the effort, and even though you're living, you're actually dying,
Giving up and giving in, is not the way to show your love,
Not for any love one, and especially not to our Lord above,
Even though it's tough, struggling is a good thing,
It is bringing us closer to God, and giving the Heavenly Beings a reason to sing,
With every choice we make can determine our future,
Make it permanent, not stitch it together with a suture,
Give your life over to God above,
Never give up, because the one that made us, IS LOVE.

Finally home

He is finally home after being gone for 5 days,
Though I seen him daily, I've missed him in so many ways, Sleeping alone, night after night
Without him beside me, it doesn't feel right, Thankfully it was only a small heart attack,
A precursor and warning for a bigger one that he might not come back, Thankfully they caught it in time and is trying reversal therapy ,
Repairing the damage and giving him back to me,
He is finally home so now a can rest without worry,
So watch put for the palpitations and chest tightness and pain down the arm,seek help in a hurry!

Lord, I need you

Lord I need you to shine your light on us,
We try to do things right and be fair and just,
Things are so hard right now, it's as if we're being attacked left and right, Deliver us from this darkness and help our faith in you fight,
Fight for our health and our financial situations,
Bring peace into our lives and our family relations,
Bring unity upon our brothers and sisters in you,
To fight the good fight with all that we do,
Lord please, ease our pain and bring comfort to us, Shine your Holy Light upon the lost and the just,
Thank you for never turning your back on us,
Especially those of us in need, even though at times we might put up a fuss, Lord I need you now more than ever,
To guide me through this time of darkness that has invaded my endeavor, Please bring peace into my heart and comfort to my soul,
Lord I need you, for You are the only one that can make me whole.

Prayer

Be sure to pray,
Be sure to pray every single day,
We might not see results as fast as we want to,
But rest assured that the Lord has not forgotten you,
He knows what we need and the right time to give,
His timing is always perfect and He will deliver in a time that we need it, in order to live,
The best life that we can, we just have to be patient with,
He may take our loved ones away from us, or let us struggle for a time,
But He never leaves us stranded, He is truly sublime,
He never said that following Him would be an easy journey,
Through everything we endure we are learning,
The opposite actually, we have difficult time and would be ridiculed and persecuted for belonging to Him,
I will walk through fire and know that He is there, even when there is no light and things are dim,
I will struggle and not waiver, for I trust in My Father above,
Spread my arms open wide and receive His perfect love,
I may be going through tough times right now,
But my rewards in Heaven are great, though I will never understand how,
I am strong and faithful in Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior,
My faith and love in Him will NEVER waiver, THANK YOU LORD, FOR LOVING THIS SMALL UNDESERVING PERSON THAT I AM, I DONT DESERVE YOUR LOVE AND HOLINESS, I FALL AT YOUR FEET ASKING FOR GUIDANCE , LEAD ME TOWARDS YOUR WILL AND PLEASE LORD , NEVER LET ME GO.

Life can be overwhelming

Life can be overwhelming, don't lose sight of the cross, Jesus is there to lift you up from any loss,
Be it from a lost love or friendship, or a loved one that passed away,
Lay your troubles at the feet of Jesus and you will be ok,
Everything that we go through and experience, there's a lesson to be learned, Though sometimes we cry out, "Why Lord, have away from me you turned",
God gives us things to teach us something we need to learn,
Perseverance and persistence, faith and love,
We need to endure these things in order to see Heaven above,
We must apologize to those that we have wronged or betrayed,
So I'm sorry for anything that I may have done or said,
To any of you that felt offended the words that I say,
I apologize for offending you in any and every way,
To the one that I have said some harsh things to,
I'm truly sorry fir anything I said that hurt you,
I'm not going to say any names but you know who you are,
I pray that you will forgive me and never lose who you are,
You're a great godly man and I wish you the best life ,
Full of happiness and love , Free from anymore heartache and strife,
When you feel overwhelmed look up yo God above,
And receive His perfect unending love

Morning coffee

Morning coffee is the best, when you have it with the person you love,
You are sharing a moment sent from above,
Whether you're talking or sitting in the silence still,
Savor each second that passes you will,
Maybe it will be just the coffee or maybe there will be pie,
Which ever way you prefer it, you will look not want the moment to pass by,
Being with the one you love, is something to hold on to,
Before the days hustle and bustle begins, when it's just they and you,
Savor each moment, steal a secretive glance,
Say I love you because you want this moment to last,
As I'm sitting here sipping on my coffee, I think about the future and the past,
I wouldn't change anything, I want the memories to last,
Everything that happens, God had his reason,
That will become clear in the right season.
So I wish you the best and enjoy your day,
Enjoy your morning coffee in each and every way

My husband

My husband is the son of Pedro Morales,the first triple belt winner wwe, Being with him has set my mind and body free,
Free from the tension that builds everyday,
He has set me free in every way,
To him, I'm more than just some object to use,
I'm a woman to be cherished and loved,respected, not used and abused.
My husband has put a roof over my head and works hard day to day,
Until the heart attack, he took care of me in every way,
Now the tables have turned and I'm taking care of him,
From the moment the sun rises to the time the sky goes dim,
He loves me, and proves it with his actions,
No empty words or selfish intentions,
I thank the Lord everyday for bringing us us together,
At the time we were both going through stormy weather,
Both betrayed by someone we loved,
But God had other plans for us from above,
He brought our broken heart together , now we're one,
Thank you Lord,for doing all that you have done!

Give thanks

Give thanks to the Lord for He is our everything,
He created us and loves us, regardless of the heartache we bring,
He sees us mess up and sees us fall,
It is in these times that we can hear His call,
He will speak to us in many different ways,
Maybe through a movie or a poet on any given day,
He will whisper in our ear, softening our heart,
Unwilling to lose us to the evils of each day's start,
Maybe a stranger will come by and give you a kind word,
Maybe you will feel God's love by watching a silly little bird,
Each time we feel true joy, it is from our Lord above, Showing us Himself through is never ending love

This too shall pass

I know that things are difficult and feel like your life is in an uproar, Friend, hang in there , once again you will soar, Everything will get easier and you will get through,
But how you do it is completely up to you,
Whatever you are going through in your life, there is always a peaceful way out,
Though you want to cuss and scream and shout,
Your word doesn't have to be the last,
Hang in there friend, this too shall pass,
Confront things in a calm and loving way,
And things will get better day by day,
God never gives us more than we can handle ever,
You got this my friend, don't lose the faith ever,
You are a great person , I can just tell,
And always get right back up after you fell,
This too shall pass like all the other times before, Remember that nobody is perfect and that's what forgiveness is for.

Lost sheep

We are all lost sheep in a pasture,
Trying to find our way to our true master,
Father God in heaven above,
Is looking down on us out of love,
As Lost sheep we don't know what to do,
Lord, we are trying to make our way to you,
Trying to do things right, but keep falling short,
Nonetheless you keep sheltering us from the worst of the storms,
We're not perfect, and are undeserving of your forgiveness,
Yet, you give it to us because it is us that you miss,
You made us in your image, knowing that we will disappoint you,
But you love your lost sheep so much, you sent your Son from you,
To die on the cross for our transgressions and sins,
To take the punishment for all women and men,
Gave us free choice to chose our own fate,
Whether we choose Satan or You, before it's too late,
Lord, we are lost sheep, so lead us to where we must be,
To love and worship you, Father, Which will always be free,
Lord, we need you now more than ever,
To take the reins of our lives and lead our endeavor,
As one of Your sheep, Lord I will follow you,
I will thankfully give my life working for You.

Joyful Wife

I am a joyful wife of the greatest man,
He TRULY loves me, and has a gentle hand,
He fought for me when no one else would,
He has the guts to stand up for HIS woman when no one else could,
After we decided to be more and our only friendship did end,
We became much more and He wasted no time introducing me to his family and friends,
What We have is real, I know it , not think,
Our love is true not faked or on the brink,
I Am A JOYFUL WIFE, and my husband tells me everyday,
How he is so thankful that my ex threw me away,
My husband is a great man, that knows what he has got,
What we have is everything, whether u believe it or not,
Sure we struggle and life's not easy to do,
But anything worth fighting for will never be easy for u,
We will go through our life together hand in hand,
Not letting anyone bring us down, not any man,
We moved someplace else to have a fresh start,
This joyful wife holds the key to her husband's heart,
He hold mine as well and we will never look back,
Back at those we left behind, that we found had seriously lacked,
What we found in each other is something we never had,
Real and true, love and laughter , Dedication and devotion,nothing heartbreaking or bad,
I'm truly happy for once in my life and live without regrets,
Because everyone that God put in my path played an important part in the stage being set,
So thank you to everyone that has played an crucial part,
In leading me to be a joyful wife and opening my eyes and heart,

Sisterhood

We are a sisterhood, though not blood,
We understand things that no one else could,
The things that you went through,
I went through them too,
The things that we survived,
I thank God that we're alive,
Everything happens for a reason, be them good or bad,
From wherever at today, I will be thankful for the horrible times I had,
If not for them, I would not know anything was wrong,
And I would still be singing that awful heartbreaking song,
So I'm thankful for everything, because they made me free,
They led good friends and an incredible husband directly to me,
So thank you Maxine, and thank you Liz for entering into my story,
Let's make this a happy ending and give God honor and glory,
So we are part of a special sisterhood,
Change things, NAH, I wouldn't if I could Relaxing night in

A relaxing night in, just me and my man,
Doing nothing but sitting here hand in hand,
I made spaghetti for dinner, a favorite of his,
He says "thank you baby", with a sweet smile and a kiss,
A relaxing night in, just us two,
Watching TV on our big screen, I'm sure that's what we'll do,
Then off to bed we'll go, and turn out the lights,
He will wrap me tight in his arms, with all of his might,
A relaxing night in, is my favorite thing to do,
No distractions, just us two

Pixie Willow

Pixie Willow. (Sept.22,2023)

I know a young Pixie named Willow,
She rests on a cloud for a pillow,
Her hair is dark and blue are her eyes,
The prettiest blue, and as bright as the skies,
She is small, smart and sweet,
If you ever meet her, consider it a treat,
She is one of a kind, kind of a rare sight,
She may be small but is full of fight,
Mess with her or someone she loves,
She will gather her strength from the clouds above,
Big things come in small packages, Willow is the definition of one,
When I'm with this little Pixie, I know the day will be filled with great fun,
I pray that someday you meet her, this little Pixie I know,
She will be a blessing to your life and will make your day glow.

Like Minds, Like Hearts

Like minds and Like hearts are the ones closest to me,
We hold each other up so that we can see,
We can see what's going on, instead of being in the dark,
We have each other's back, so we don't become a mark,
A mark for the enemy, the evil one, the devil,
Us together makes the war games level,
It's us against the world, just him and I,
We never deceive each other, nor tell a lie,
Like minds and like hearts, my husband and I,
We're so deeply committed to each other, ride or die

Soulution

Soulution

God is the soulution, not the problem as alot of people think,
To those that are unbelieving, lost and on the brink,
Of losing themselves in this wild and crazy place,
Instead of keeping their focus on God and running the good race,
The soulution is our Father that watches from above,
Watching us and recording every move with love,
Keeping track of the good things we do,
And of course all of the bad things too,
Weighing our love for him with every word we say,
So watch your tongue , because we will have to be held accountable some day,
God is the soulution, so please, give in to ONLY HIM,
Let Jesus light your way, instead of treading blindly where it's dim,
The darkness will swallow your soul like toxic pollution,
Let His light fill you, because God is the soulution!

Inspired by Ginger Willinger , my Florida momma, and incredible friend, she watched out for me and over me while I was there, love u Gingerbread

Low on coffee

I'm low on coffee, enough for one more cup,

Don't know what im going to do, oh, hey ya'll what sup!!

Coffee will be gone before the day is through,

I'm not to happy, what am I going to do?!

Soda is ok, but just isn't the same,

I could drink some water, but it tastes as bland as the name,

Can I pull a rabbit of the hat and make some more appear?

No I think I will just have to wait for tomorrow to get here,

Then I can go and buy up the entire lot,

YES!!! THATS A WONDERFUL IDEA IVE GOT!!!

God has a plan

God has a plan for you, are you ready to receive,
Receive His love and blessings, never will he deceive,
He will guide you to your destiny if you allow it,
But you must listen for His call, His will, will be done in a time that He sees fit,
God is never late nor early, His timing is always right,
Watch for Him, He will pull you out of the darkness and into the light,
The love of Jesus will light your way,
And you will see, even on the darkest day,
I know that you've felt alone and have probably blamed God for something bad,
Just know my friends that He never left you, even though you were angry and sad, Certain things have to happen for His plan to come to light,
Beware my brothers and sisters, He is coming, like a thief in the night,
He will deliver us from the coming things that will happen soon,
The coming events are beyond anything you can ever imagine,
I pray that you will come to Him before these things happen,
There will be horrors only heard of in Hollywood, I'm not trying to force anything on any of you, only saying that you should,
You're free to make a choice and believe what you will,
But I will pray for you all, still.

Don't Lose Faith

Don't lose faith, it will all work out,
Just be patient and stop worrying about,
The stress of everyday living,
And focus on the attention you're giving,
To God, our Father, our Protector and King,
Love and healing, help to you He will bring,
Keep your eyes on Him, who loves us, every one,
And will forever be here for us, when all is said and done,
Make sure you're focused on Him up above,
Don't lose faith, be confident in His Neverending love!

Scent of our own

Poetry give us a look into who the authors truly are,
Though we don't know them, we get to enjoy their work from afar,
Each piece as it's own identifying scent,
If you will, like it's own thumbprint,
Gives us insight into the authors personality,
The style of writing takes on the poets identity,
Some pieces are funny or an ode to something or someone we love,
Some are written about pain or the promise of God above,
Each piece is fragrant with words and perfect flow, Sending a beautiful aroma to the readers that the angels blow,
Carried on the wind are the words written in our hearts,
To captivate the reader to the last word from the start,
To entice thoughts that we never had before,
To tickle our funny bone and have us laughing on the floor,

So write on dear poets, insert your favorite scent,
Mine is love and inspiration, mixed with a lot of friendly encouragement

Our Love

Our love goes deeper than the sea,
Our love grows and guides us to who we truly want to be,
Our home is seasoned with love,
Being with you, makes life not seem so tough,
You bring me back to life, when I'm losing faith, and feel like im dead,
You carry me to a safe place and give me your lap to rest my head,
You smooth back my hair, whispering that it will be all right,
And that I need to relax and don't give up the fight,
The fight against myself in my sometimes overwhelming emotions,
You sooth my soul, easing the self made commotion,
It isn't easy dealing with the demons in my head,
Trying to convince me that my faith in God is dead,
But that only makes me stronger and wills me to fight,
To keep my belief and faith in God's undying light,
Our love for one another makes me want to try,
I will not give up or give in, to the devils lie,
Our love is an example , for our kids to go by,

Who are we

Who are we as people on this earth,
Who are we from the second of birth,
Who are we destined to be,
Will we make the right choices,I guess we'll see,
As children we are innocent and our slates clean,
Who will we be when we're grown,it is to be seen,
Will we make bad decisions and go astray,
Of course we will, will we come back,who's to say,
Our roots run deep and will all stay grounded,
Who we will end up, depends on by whom we're surrounded,
Influence plays a huge role in our complicated lives,
Will be peaceful people, busy as bees in hives,
Or will we be pressured to to bad things,
We don't know what our life brings,
Or where we're headed, what road we're on,
The wide and simpler road, or the straight and narrow one,
Ultimately it's up to us,we're free to make our own decision,
We can only pray for clear vision,
To see the way to the Lord's way,
Only He knows where we're heading, only He knows the way

Flaming Arrow

There's a flaming arrow aimed right at my heart, Threatening to burn me and tear me apart,
The inferno is blazing and it's getting very hot,
But will it reach me? No it will not,
The Lord is me refuge and will shield me from the flames,
Satan will have to aim elsewhere , I'm immune to his games,
I'm protected by Spirit, Father and Son,
The Holy Trinity, three in one,
Satan's flaming arrows cannot reach me ever,
Because I belong to only the Lord, and I will leave Him NEVER,
The flaming arrow is extinguished and will never engulf me,
The Lord is my Shepard, and has set my soul free.

Real love

Real love can come in many form,
Real love will shelter you from the most deadliest storms,
Keep you calm in the hardest times,
Wrap arms around you, keeping you safe when you hear of horrendous crimes,
Real love is a comfort and will take care of you,
Real love is of God and He loves you too!
He will give us our special someone, in which to share our lives,
We must be patient and not rush , or we will do a terrible dive,
Be with the wrong one that will hurt us, either physically or will tell you lies,
It could be a controlling relationship where our true self slowly dies,
But Real love is not proud, is does not boast, Real love does not hurt and matters the most Real love will not run, nor will it hide,
Real love will not keep hidden and locked inside,
Real love will not be afraid to reveal,
The truth of situations or how they feel,

Real love is the greatest gift of all,
It will lift us up and never let us down or set us up to fall!

Finally a day off

I finally get a day off after 9 days working straight, Hopefully I will have a good payday, if it doesn't come late,
I have bills due that come around fast,
Living paycheck to paycheck, is getting old but hopefully will last,
Something coming in is better than not,
We don't have much, but we're happy with what we got,
Working my ass off for a little income, day in and day out,
Makes me so tired, sometimes I have doubt,
That I can carry on like this, but I know that I must,
I'm acting like a spoiled brat, putting up this fuss,
I appreciate everything I have, I really do,
But if u were in my place, what would u do,
God never gives us more than we can handle,
Just tests our faith, to see if it is burning strong or as a candle,
I will get through this strong with Him on my side,
So I will keep pressing on and enjoying this incredible ride!

The key

The key to his heart is only mine,
For I was the only one that could find,
The key to his heart was hidden deep,
Within him, for he was tired of being hurt and weep,
He can see something in me that nobody else ever could,
And opened his heart up to me like no one else ever would,
He's sweet, sensitive, protective and tough,
And is perfectly balanced out, and for me that's more than enough,
I'm the kind of woman that dont need expensive fancy things, only real love,
And he gives me just that,everything that want,and is gentle as a dove
His love for me is perfect and true,
The key to his heart, I will keep hidden deep within me, and he will mine too,

Blessings in disguise

What comes next, we never know,
What will the day hold, or what next obstacle life will throw,
With every difficult time, remember that it could be a blessing,
A blessing in disguise, I'm not messing,
With every trial we go through, could bring something great,
Not just pain and heartache,
It all depends on how we observe things,
We can mope around expecting the worst or look for the silver linings that life brings,
What we must remember, is that , God does things for a reason,
He has His plans that comes to pass in its correct season,
Everything has in it, a lesson to learn,
Because we never know what direction our lives will turn,
So watch for the signs for your blessings,
Stay true to Him and keep on confessing,

You're a blessing

You are a blessing whether you believe that you are or not,
Today you've made someone's day, with that beautiful soul you've got,
Maybe you gave them a smile or held open a door,
You touched their hearts, right to the core,
The smallest gesture or tiniest thing,
Can brighten someone's day, and a glimpse of heaven you can bring,
Restore their faith in humanity, making their day,
Just know that you're a blessing in every single way!

Flesh and Blood

Flesh and Blood doesn't seem to mean a thing, Especially to my family, seem like to my family don't mean anything,
I tried to reach out but got nothing but dead air,
It's only obvious that I'm not worth their care,
Flesh and blood, I thought nothing could break the bond,
I guess I was wrong, it goes way beyond,
I don't understand how family ties could break so quick,
By the passing of time of a watch , tick tick,
I watch my family drift far away from me,
I wish I could understand it, that i would see,
What I did that was so horrendous to deserve to be treated in this way,
But I guess that's it, I've nothing more to say,
Except that at least I have my husband and a God that will never leave,
I must keep pressing forward and always believe,
I know that He will never leave me or forget that I was born here,
He will always love me and forever draw me near,
He gave me a love to surrender my heart,
He saved me from myself and gave me a new start,
So now I must move forward and not look back,
The past is the past and I must never look back.

Mistaken

If you think that my down times are weakness, you're mistaken

If you think because I'm vulnerable because of weakness, you're mistaken

If you think that for one single second that I'm going to give up, you're mistaken

My times of weakness, is my strength,

My times of vulnerability, is my Perseverance

The times it seems like I'm giving up, I'm giving in

I'm laying my life down before the Lord, He is my strength,

I make myself vulnerable, so the LORD WILL RAISE ME UP,

I'm laying my weakness at His throne, humbling myself before the one that died for me, trusting Jesus Christ!

And in that IM NOT MISTAKEN,

In HIM IM STRONG

IN HIM IM LOVED AND SET FREE!!

The Struggle

We are struggling everyday , though we don't show it,
We try to hide it so that people don't know it,
We struggle with our faith, we struggle with our bills,
We struggle with the decisions that bring our wallets to nil,
We struggle at work, just trying to get through the day,
We struggle with everything in every single way,
And then our paths cross with someone less fortunate than we,
And the blessings we have , we can finally see,
At least we are happy with a roof over our heads,
At we have a warm bed at night to lay our weary heads,
At least we have a job, When many don't even have that,
When some sleep on the corner, with not even a mat,
So let's help each other instead of judge and hate,
Because we never know when the tables could turn and that could be our fate,
Let's love one another, help one another and pray,
That things get better for all in every single way,

So Lord, I pray that you give us the will to,
To be less like us and more like you,
Father I pray for forgiveness for all that I've said and done, Bring your children together Lord and make us one.
Lord give me the will to resist the temptation of the evil one,
Because I belong to You and Jesus Christ your Son.
Thank you Father for the blessings that you have given to me,
Thank you God for taking the reins of my life , I need you to lead,
Thank you Lord for the people You've brought into my life so far,
I will attempt to shine bright as the brightest star,
So Lord in closing I must say,
Thank you for redeeming me and for loving me in every way,
AMEN

Thankful

I'm thankful for the path that my life has taken,
Now I'm happy and free, not hopeless and broken,
I'm a faithful strong woman, that can do anything,
I always give my all, and 110% I will always bring,
If you know me, then you already know that I do not give in,
Regardless of the difficult situation that I'm in,
I'm thankful for my family and friends,
I'm even thankful for the times that were dead ends,
They all helped me grow into the woman I am today,
I live without regrets, what good would it do anyway,
I may not have much, but I'm happy and healthy,
I have found my love, my heart, my man, and for that I'm wealthy,
I don't need much and I'm thankful for you all,

Focus on the future

Focus on the future, instead of living in the past,

Look ahead to what's to come instead of what happened last,

The key to a healthy life is learning from your mistakes,

In order to grow, errors and oops is what it takes,

We trust the wrong people and pass by the good ones,

Just to live in the moment and to have a little fun,

I've had my share of living and learning,

I've definitely had hard times, but now the tables are turning,

Things are looking up and I'm trusting God to steer me right,

I've given up on trusting myself and I am beginning to fight,

I'm fighting for my life and my salvation, trusting in our Lord,

Because I'm living for Him and I am severing the devils cord,

Satan's hold on me doesn't exist anymore

The Breaking Point

The Breaking Point

It seems like we are always at our breaking points,
Whether it be from finances or aching joints,
Always at the end of the line, searching for a way,
For just one more tank of gas or bill or the right words to say,
Always feeling like we cannot handle one more thing,
Then something always comes up, and the one more it will bring,
We must remember that God never gives us more than we can handle, though it seems to be,
The breaking point will never come, as long as we bend our knee,
And pray to God, putting our trust into His plan, Letting Him lead us to taking care of our fellow man,
Loving all, and forgiving those that have wronged us in the past,
Throwing away all doubt and hatred away we cast,
So the breaking point will always be there, yet never come at all,
Let the Lord lead you, heed His call

Life

Life has not been easy by any means,
There's been times where I wouldn't make it , it seems,
But I never gave up and found a way out,
Of the situation I was in , though I had doubt,
I trust in God and He brought me through,
Now I'm here posting this to you,
Never give up and keep pressing on,
There will be darkness before the dawn,
There is hope on the horizon, just keep your eyes aimed high,
God will help you through, just don't lose sight
Life is never easy, take it from me,
I have gone through many things, and now God has set me free

Two Hearts

When our two hearts beat as one, I know
That it is to you, my love, where I will go,
Especially when I am angry or upset,
With your arms tight around me, my emotions will reset,
If I feel alone or afraid,
You always show me that everything will be okay,
When you kiss my forehead, I can feel your perfect love,
Formed in God's hands, for us from above,
Baby, I love you in every way,
This poem is for you, Happy Valentines Day

First Anniversary

Our one year anniversary is coming up soon,
After yesterday, I'm over the moon,
My husband gave me my gift early,
Because on Monday is having another surgery,
He gave me a car, a Mazda 3 hatchback,
Really nice, sporty and sleek sparkly black,
It was a shock, when he handed me the keys,
It is just one more thing proving how much he loves me,
It's more than just words, its more than just action,
He shows me everyday day with his emotion and reaction,
It's a mutual love, That we will cherish forever and a day,
It just goes to show that when one door slams shut, God will light our way,

True meaning of Easter

Easter has a much deeper meaning that gets lost,
Most forget about the heavenly cost,
The price Jesus paid for our sins,
The life he lost was freely given,
His blood was spilled to wash our sins clean,
So we can have eternal life in heaven seen,
He was nailed to the cross for our sake,
To give us a chance to avoid the fiery lake,
He hung on that cross out of pure love for us,
Knowing that some of us would leave Him for lack of trust,
But the few that will be saved and truly believe in Him,
The veil was lifted and light shined in where things were dim,

JESUS WAS CRUCIFIED FOR OUR SINS, AND ROSE AGAIN TO GIVE US LIFE, TO GIVE US HOPE TO GIVE US AN EVERLASTING LOVE, HE WILL NEVER FORSAKE US OR LEAVE US, HE WILL GUIDE US, WE HAVE TO BE WILLING TO LISTEN AND ACCEPT HIM AS OUR SAVIOR AND FATHER IN HEAVEN

SO THIS EASTER, PLEASE DON'T LOSE THE TRUE MEANING OF JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD AND SAVIOR

Crowns of Faith

A crown of thorns was placed upon his brow, the only Intent to mock,
Not knowing that He is the cornerstone of the world and he is our solid rock,
On which we build our foundation to live a faithful life,
Jesus the groom and we the church as His Heavenly wife,
He was put on trial then beaten and tortured in the most evil way,
He was crucified and entombed, but rose again on that miraculous third day,
He is risen and making us our home,
In the kingdom of God , in New Jerusalem, forever with Him we'll roam,

He gave his life so we may live, with peace and prosperity,
But the devil finds his way in giving us strife and negativity,

We must not give up or give in to the evils of the devils rule,
Because when the time comes and Jesus returns,there's only one outcome to their duel,
Good will prevail and evil will go down,
Jesus will be clothed in white and wearing His rightful crown,
A crown of glory, a crown of peace, a crown of hope and reigning from above
To take us home on the wings of a mighty eagle engulfed in His perfect love.

Freedom

Freedom is being free from the demons of your past, Freedom is living like every day could be your last,
Freedom is choosing for yourself,
Instead of being told what to do, everyone trying to "help",
Freedom is what God has given to us all,
Freedom to chose rise or to fall, Freedom is what the soldiers are fighting for,
Freedom is choosing to stay instead of walking out the door, Freedom is what everyone of can have ,
We just have to want it and grab,
To chose love instead of hate,
To chose to fight instead of accepting a terrible fate,
Freedom- what does it mean to you??
To me it is choosing God over Satan, heaven over hell, love over hate, life over death

What I Am

I am the cool breeze on a scorching hot day,
I am the gentle hand that wipes a single tear away,
I am the sun breaking through the storm clouds,
I am the quietness within when the world gets too loud,
I am the birds song in the crisp morning air,
I am the thread that mends when your life seems to tear,
I am the ocean, moving to and fro,
I am the high that will pick you up when you are low,
I am the one to whom you can always turn to,
When you are lost and afraid and true friends are few,
What I am, is your comforting embrace,
When you feel like you're falling down on your face,
So just as you are come unto Me,
Your past doesn't matter, I WILL SET YOU FREE!

Turn back time

If I could turn back time, I wouldn't if I could,
Though some things would be better if I would,
I live without regrets, knowing I am being lead,
If going on my own whims, I would honestly be dead,
I would have ended it all, but I listened to a powerful voice,
He gave me purpose and gave me a choice,
I could stay where I was and keep moving as I was,
Or I could follow God and trust in His cause,
I have led many to Christ since on this endeavor, Would I turn my back on my Lord, never,
I lost something I love more than life itself,
But to show my dedication to the Lord , it couldn't be helped,
I look back at how,
I could have gone so long without fully trusting in God, but look at me now,
Some will never understand why I did what I had done,
But my life was at stake, and now I have truly won!

Love of my puppy

The love of a puppy, is so full of innocence,
He has a way of relaxing my tense,
Just a look of love in his big brown eyes,
And the way he looks at me and sighs,
He's a mix of pitbull and australian cattledog heeler,
The love of my puppy cannot get any realer,
His innocent eyes sparkle when from work I return home,
He will run and play in our halls he will roam,
The love of my puppy will outshine any other,
With my little Santi and my husband, I couldn't be any luckier .

The reason

Forgive

Because we are forgiven,

Rejoice

Because of the life we are given,

Live

Because God has raised us up,

Drink

From the holy water in His cup,

Eat

Because His body nourishes us,

Repent

Because to truly live, we must,

Sleep

Because we need the healing rest,

Share the Gospel

Because that's what Satan detests,

Surrender

Because without God, we are all lost,

Give thanks

Because Jesus's life was the cost,

Love

Because He formed us from dust,

You are alive

Because Jesus died for us

Lord Please

Lord please,
Keep my family in your hands and hold them close to you,
Lord please,
Never let them go when we don't know what to do,
Lord please,
Light the way for those I love so they are not lost asunder
Lord please
Show them the way with your majestic wonder,
Lord please
Let them be found before it's too late,
Lord please
I pray that you erase all this hate

My oh my

My oh my,
I was just thinking of how time goes by,
Oh so quickly, it flees
With the changing of seasons and colors of the trees,
It seems like just yesterday when I arrived in this world
But 41 years went by in a eventful twirl,
Pain heartache, happiness and life,
It can all cut you through quickly like the blade of a knife,
Sharp edges piercing the skin,
Making you bleed and then heal again,
Life has a way of eating you up,
Like the broken edge of a chipped coffee cup,
Maybe you will get pricked maybe you won't,
Sometimes we think we know, but really don't,
Then reality has a way of setting you straight,
Will it be happiness or pain, will it come too late?
My oh my, time really flies,
We have happy unions and painful goodbyes,
But it's all a part of life, and we must keep pressing on,
Love and happiness will find you, with the coming of dawn!
Keep your chin up and be ever so persistent,
Because you got this, and and are very resilient,
Keep your eyes on God, He will see you through,
Don't ever give up, He has plans for you!

My flame

Sometimes I wonder am a tragedy or a blessing,
To all of you, right here and now, I'm confessing,
I'm not ashamed of how I sometimes feel,
When these emotions are at their strongest, I always kneel,
I get overwhelmed and yes I get angry and blue,
But I can overcome it all and so can you,
I have overcome so much more than you all know,
Because I know where the living waters flow,
I get down and depressed and inside my own mind,
Then God speaks to me and hits rewind,
He forgives my thoughts and my emotional bursts,
He sees who I truly am and what I am truly worth,
He see us for who we truly are,
We are His children and shine brighter than the brightest star, Next time I feel weak and confused like I have nothing to give,
His will always be there to give me purpose to live,
I'm not ashamed to say that I AM A CHILD OF GOD and I am trusting in His Holy name,
He put out that burning fire but HE IS MY GUIDING FLAME

What was

I've had an emptiness inside that I could never shake,
I used to feel so usurped , I felt like an earthquake,
A feeling so empty, I felt like I was dirt,
I didn't realize it was because of the hurt,
The hurt deep within, engulfing my soul,
The fire burning me up and taking its toll,
Once I surrendered myself to the Lord above,
The emptiness became full and I was surrounded by His love,
I felt instantly safe and safe from all harm,
And He delivered me from the devils deadly charm,
As terrible as it seems, I thought life was better that way,
Until I felt the freedom of the Lord and His undying love on that day,
Now I am redeemed and I set free,
The veil is lifted and I can clearly see,
I can see what awaits me when I pass,
From now on for me I truly travel high class,
On the wings of angels everyday,
Protected by His grace in every way

Trust without fear

Trust without fear is a difficult thing to do,
To walk blindly into the unknown with nobody beside you,
Trust without fear is to jump without knowing how far you will fall,
But it's something we must do when we hear the Lord call, follow without question and have faith over fear, though there will be difficulties and you will shed a tear, it's not easy feeling attacked from every side, but Jesus never said it would be when we walk by His side, Satan will use whatever he can to break us and make us fall,
Tempting us and trying to draw us away from Jesus's call,
Never give in to satans temptations,
And we will always be by Gods side throughout the nations,
Trust without fear is how I will live,
My trust, my faith and love, my everything is what I will give

Our Happy Home

Our happy home is filled with laughter and love,
Our lives entwined forever from God above,
In almost a year and a half, look how far we have come,
We went from heartbreak to love, look at what we have become,
This life that we share is being blessed each and every day,
God is providing for us in every single way,
We went from living with your brother to an apartment of our own,
Now we are moving in to a true home of our own,
Our kids can come visit us and for awhile stay,
We have a yard now for our puppies and grandkids to play,
With four bedrooms, we have plenty of space,
For our happy family to thrive and live life in a comfortable pace,
May our happy home always be blessed and full of love,
May God continue to bless us from Heaven above!

These days

These days we live in are only getting harder, the current happenings in the world are only getting darker, country against country and nation against nation, it's only leading us to the foretold book of revelation, hatred engulfing every living being, though we try to love, it's a difficult thing, people don't want to be loved , they yearn to hate, we try to reason with them but they are set on their fate, the devil ensnared so many lives, the few that escaped his clutches are struggling to survive, but with God leading our way, we know we will survive

Let go

It's so easy to give in and give up,
Not so easy to stay strong and keep our chins up,
It's so easy to to do things with out thinking,
But we're only hurting ourselves and honestly sinking,
Slipping beneath the raging waves,
Of destructive urges where nothing saves,
Only sharp objects to help us out,
To make us feel better for a moments doubt,
It's so easy to fall to these things,
It's not so easy to accept the help that our Lord brings,
It's so easy to sin and give up,
Unless you sip from our Savior's cup,
Drink His living water and you will never thirst again,
Be saved from the things that are buried within,
Be set free from the defeats of your past,
His forgiveness is the only thing that truly lasts,
Everything else will die away,
But you will live forever in another way,
Our bodies will die and we will be buried in the ground,
But our souls will be saved and we will truly be found,
Live forever in Gods heavenly kingdom free from the fallen one,
Living in the light of Jesus, Gods only Son

Ghosts

Once again the ghosts of my past haunt me, when will I break the curse, when will I be free, the trauma I try to forget keeps coming back, Even though I've left it behind, what do I lack,
I don't understand how I can still feel broken inside, damaged beyond repair, looking for a safe place to hide?
will I never be free from the demons of my mind,
I yearn to be free and leave them behind,
I believe in the Lord and trust in His word?
I know He is protecting this delicate little bird,
I feel Him surrounding me with His perfect love, but why do I still feel abandoned from above,
I know it's satan putting this stuff in my head, i feel like I can barely breathe and my feet are made of lead, Lord save me from these thoughts and feeling like I do,
God I'm on my knees and I need you!

Be strong

Be strong when you feel broken, be strong when there is no words spoken, be strong when you feel like good things are ending, because all my love and support I'm sending, be strong when you feel like I've left you, be strong when you don't know what to do,
I've never left your side and I have seen it all,
I always pick you up every time you fall,
I've seen you at your lowest time,
I've held you close when you've hadn't a dime,
I've raised you from the ashes time and again, daughter keep your faith in me and never give in,
I will never leave you, especially in your time of need,
Great are you with the faith the size of a mustard seed, take care my daughter and you will never fall, believe in Me and give Me your all, never lose sight and keep your eyes on Me, that is the purest way to become free, break the chains that are holding you back,
Be strong my daughter , there is nothing you lack!

I will fall

I will fall a thousand time but always get back up,
I will be pushed to the edge but never jump,
I will breakdown and cry but I will never give in,
To the demons saying that I will never win,
I will rise with every defeat,
I will always win but never compete,
I will always get up and try again, when I find myself falling back into sin,
I will always look to the Lord and keep my eyes on Him, even when I'm down and feel like I've disappointed Him,
He will never give up on me and never turn His back, especially in my times of need and feelings of lack,
God will always be there to be my guide, and from Him I will never run and hide, thank you Lord for once again saving me, thank you Lord for your love and setting my heart free

What a beautiful day

What a beautiful day it will be, to enter Heaven and oh the things we will see,
the beauty beyond our imagination we cannot conceive, the things we will experience and the crowns we will receive, though we don't deserve not one,
the Lord will reward us because of His Son, the light of the world, our saving grace,
But He wants us with Him in this beautiful place I cannot imagine how that day will be, when our lives will be changed and we'll be forever free

It takes time

It takes time to become who you are meant to be, it takes time to see what you are destined to see, it takes time to truly believe,
the things going on, though it's difficult to conceive, the very notion of being loved, the idea of being truly blessed from our Lord above,
It takes time to take hold of the life you were meant to behold, and fully grasp the heat and not give in to the cold, feel the warmth of the love of our Lord, allowing Him to be our cornerstone and moving forward, taking hold of the gifts He has freely given, surrendering to His will and blindly livin, take time to thank the Lord for everything He has done, start with giving praise to Jesus ,His Son

Be thankful

Be thankful for everything you have, every hug ,kiss and every laugh, be thankful for the difficult times as well as the good, be thankful to God , everyone really should, we have a tendency to blame Him for the hard times and trials, though they are the outcomes of our choices and denials, Nobody is perfect though we try to be,
Perfect in the image of man, instead of who we are meant to be, though we have shortcomings, we are perfect in the eyes of our Lord, made in His image, we are made in His accord, be thankful for who you was made to be, instead of striving to fit into who the world wants to see, be thankful for everything that the Lord has given to you!

Made new

We are made new with the dawning of a new day, God is refreshing us in every way, shining His light on our troubles and giving me comfort, Collecting every tear and easing the hurt, with every event that is heartbreaking,
He never leaves us though our whole world is shaking,
I know you feel broken like you will never be complete, hang in there sister, you will over come what feels like defeat, you will be made new in time and will be ok, Take all the time you need to grieve , it will subside a tiny bit each day, though never gone but surrounded by Gods love,
Keep praying to God and your eyes on Him above, Accept His comfort and the help He is sending to you, just know sister that you're not alone , we are all here for you

Gods eyes

Gods eyes sees what we don't,
His eyes understands the things that ours won't,
Gods eyes sees our pure intentions,
His eyes sees the things that we refuse to mention, Gods eyes has the power to truly see things for what they are,
Gods eyes can see the thing close that to us seem so far, the unreachable goals we set for ourselves are possible with Gods eyes,
He will help us along the way and lift us on high, showing us that there is nothing truly out of reach, with Him leading us and we listen as he will teach, learning lessons along the way of this difficult life, how to treat our husband or wife, how to love our children the right way, how to know exactly the right things to say,
Gods eyes sees what I cannot,
The love of the Lord is always within us , not taught, we just have to open our lives and hearts to Gods love, and His eyes will see over us always from above

Calm heart

In the midst of a storm, I have a calm heart,
Was I always like this, no, not from the start,
It takes faith and an open mind, to hear the voice of our Lord above, it takes a calm heart to fully embrace His love,
I was drowning in the midst of the raging sea, begging to go under and satisfy the buried beast,
I was angry at God for letting me alone, and doing the things that I knew in my heart He wouldn't condone, but what I never realized was that the fault was not my own, though I blamed myself for the misery that I was in,
not giving a thought to the forced upon sin, little did I know was that God was always there, watching and waiting until my heart was open and bare, ready to give in and trust in only Him, so what did I do, but follow God though my vision was dim,
I could not clearly see the life that He had planned for me, but I jumped without knowing or being able to see, the plan is so perfectly laid out and calculated, the details ever so small, now the veil is lifted and I'm not afraid to fall, the calm in my heart can only be of my Lord, severing the vile plans of satans invisible cord, the calm in my heart will never go away,
I know my life's story and will tell you all someday, when you hear it , you will think how did she survive, well, I will answer you now and say, God is who saved me from my own demise

Life's blessings

As the days go by, I think about how I've come so far,
I've got a husband that loves me, 3 dogs, a house and a new car ,
I used to think I would be stuck and just spinning my wheels, but after trusting in God, my destiny He reveals, I'm meant for so much more than I had, those of you that truly know me, you know that it was bad, but I surrendered to the Lord and He gave me a way, breaking me free and leading me to where I am today, yes there are struggles and yes it's not easy, but being a Christian isn't meant to be a breezy, the devil comes at me from all different directions,
I get upset , then GOD brings to mind the reflections, of where I was and where I am today, reminding me that He has never left my side all along the way,
So I rebuke the devil and tell him that he will never have me, because my Father has broken the chains and has set me free, free from the pain and free from the hurtful memories, only the good remains and the damaging ones flee,
So Life's blessings begin with One,
The God the Father , the Holy Spirit and Jesus - three in one,

Greater good

God makes all work for the greater good,
Even the trivial things matter, as they should
It doesn't matter how big or small,
His love holds us up and makes us stand tall,
Thank you Lord for being here for us all,
And picking us up each time we fall,
All things work according to Gods plan,
For every animal tree and man,
Nothing happens without His ok,
There may be a lesson for us to learn that day,
I've come through my trials and tribulations stronger than I was before,
I never lost faith in my Lord , regardless of how my heart was torn,
I will follow you Lord through the fire,
Knowing you will carry me when my soul tires,
I will not fall, I will not fail and give in,
I will walk with you through thick and thin,
Thank you Jesus for redeeming me,
Forgiving my sins and setting me free

Curveballs

Life has a way of throwing us a curveball, sometimes they lift us up and sometimes cause us to fall, last month was one that wasn't very good,
I had to have emergency surgery but I made it though with ease as I knew I would, this month was a surprise that I did not expect it, my husky had 7 puppies and one almost didn't make it,
I breathed life into him and now he's going strong,
I wasn't very optimistic but thankfully I was wrong,
The curveballs that life throws can be bad or can be good,
And everyone I try to accept with as much grace as I could,
So thank you Lord for providing the way for me, giving me the experiences that I obviously need,
I will move forward and learn each step of the way, continue to grow in my faith every single day, so curveballs , good and bad,
I'm so thankful for everyone I've had

Pray for our niece

Please pray for our niece, she needs extensive medical care to say the least,
the pediatric ICU is full and there's no room, in all of Puerto Rico, no beds available any time soon, she needs a miracle, so let's come together, bind our prayers with Gods holy tether, let us pray for comfort and healing, let us pray that the drs find with what they're dealing, it's all a mystery , except that she needs intensive care, please give her a fighting chance and your prayers do share

One step

One step at a time, is how we must tread, we move to fast we can fall and hit our head, and forget our true selves and become who the world wants us to be, losing sight of ourselves and throwing away the key, binding our image to the worlds perception , is doing nothing but hurting ourselves by the crazy deception, one step at a time is how we must walk, to keep moving forward and avoiding satans idle talk, one step at a time will move us closer to being free, by breaking the chains and we are allowing our eyes to truly see

When you're down

When you're down, get right back up ,
Don't let satan empty your cup,
Let it be filled with Jesus's love ,
Let it pour over your soul from above,
When you're down , don't give in,
Think back of how far you've come from where you've been,
How much you've grown and how far you've traveled,
Don't let life get you down and your soul become unraveled ,
When you down , get on your knees and look up,
Pray that the Lord overflow your empty cup,

Not alone

*Sometimes I feel lost , but I'm never alone , don't know exactly where my life will take me , but I know that I've grown, into the woman that I am meant to be,
I am my own person now, happy and free, sometimes I feel like the person that I was, lost and afraid and I forget about all of the progress that I have made, sometimes I forget about what has brought me this far, if it wasn't for God, I would still be wandering in the dark, but He has shined His light over my way, lighting my path and keeping the darkness at bay,
So God is the reason that I have made it to where I am today, by taking my hand and leading the way ,*

Little fairy

The little fairy rests her tired wings as she sits on a flower vine , she's flown across the miles to leave the pain far behind, she's thinks back on how she was damaged and abused,
She cry's as she remembers how she was broken and used, pulled every which way, left , right, up and down, she even pondered on how to end it all and lose her crown,
But what she didn't realize, was that she is a daughter of a mighty King, and she was put in this place to fly even with broken wings, she was placed on this earth to share the love of His Majesty, she didn't realize it until she was at her lowest tragedy,
She cried out to her King and Savior, Lord please help me,
I will follow you to the ends of the earth if you will only help me to see, what was I made for and why am I here?
why do you love me and hold me so dear,
I am lost and alone , helpless and small, why are you so loving and unwilling to let me fall, then our little fairy heard a loud booming voice, why so little faith, my little innocent one- you have a choice you can sit here and give up or you can spread your wings and fly, follow me now and please don't question why,
I have a plan for you and a purpose so true,
Let me collect your tears little one , and here's what you will do, you will spread your wings and spread the word that is mine, tell your story to all that will listen and leave your troubles behind , so that's what our little fairy did, she spread her wings and shared her testimony to all who would hear,

Gone was her worries and her hesitations and her fear, sitting on her vine, she looked up with a smile, and she said aloud- Lord I will join you soon enough , but I have a job to do and want to wait for a while

She's More

She's more than the pain that she hides , she more than the things that she denies, she deserves the world and needs to be cherished, not to be tossed aside and left on the floor to perish, she has been broken down and walked across , she has been feeling down and at a loss tired of fighting every single day, tired of feeling like she's just in the way , she's more than she knows , she's got so much to give she needs to straighten her crown , she's got a lot of life to live, She is loved , cherished and she will never fall
God always hears her cry , He answers her call,
There is power in His name and healing on the cross

Silently

Silently facing the demons of the unknown accepting the fate of the fabrics that life has sewn Not knowing if all will be well
Or if life is meant to be a living Hell
The mind is racing through a million thoughts but a brave face makes it ok, or so we are taught is this all that life is really meant to deliver Everyday facing demons of the past that will make us shiver the demons of the present are hidden in our everyday life, finding every loophole there is to cause us strife, the demons of the future is what most scares me because the power they gain is unheard of and make us believe they will set us free but we must remember that we have a saving grace, we just have to accept Him and give His living water a taste ,
He can free us from the demons of our past present and future, but we must give Him our hearts to suture
We must allow God to surround us in His shining light
And give Him the authority to guide us in every fight
He is Holy and Mighty, He is our saving grace and love
He is our King and our Lord - our Father above

Help me

Help me fall with Your grace and peace,
Help me move knowing that these troubles will cease,
Help me live with the promise of You, Help me believe that I can make through ,
Help me put one foot in front of the other,
Help me extinguish these flames instead of attempting to smother ,
I feel like I'm drowning and can get no air,
Please Lord help me , I know You are there,
Though at times I feel so alone, I know I will be delivered ,
I feel like I'm pulled in many different directions - as if I'm not whole but slivered, Please Father , deliver Your child from this dark place, Show me the light so I can see the glorious finish line of this long race

How do I know

How do I know that I will make it through?
Because my God is a fearless, loving and true, how do I know that I'll be ok, because I follow my Father , He is leading the way , how do I know that I will not to the side be tossed?
because my Shepard is leading those that are lost,
how do I know that I will make it through?
because the Lord speaks to me and His words are true how do I know that I have nothing to fear?
because my Savior has delivered me from satans chains and has led me here, how do I know that I am truly saved?
because my faith is so strong that it cannot be waived

Lies

The devil speaks with a forked tongue, he has spoken lies to us since we was young, told us how we should act and that he could give us the everything, but he left out the truths of what the miseries it would bring , satan told us that if we trust in him we would have no wants , which is true for a short time until our once was starts to haunt, we begin to remember that we was happy and free , that God has always cared for us and gave us exactly what we need , the devils lies has brought us only misery and doubt ,
God love make us truly happy , praise and shout ,
I will forever sing to my God in Heaven above and will bask in His light and be warmed by His perfect love

Power

There is power in the blood of Christ our King, let His love pour over and wash you clean , there is power in His Holy name,
He will always be true never playing games , honesty and love - He is Holy and true call upon His name, for He always hears you , Never lose faith, and keep your eyes on only Him ,
He will never forsake you ,or let your beautiful light dim,
There is Power in the name Jesus Christ, hold onto Him with all of your might

Light

Don't let the light fade that is shining in your eyes , Don't let the darkness invade that was once on the rise ,
Don't let the light leave your beautiful soul ,
Let it keep guiding you to everything that make you whole , you are beautiful person there's no doubt,
Don't let past events drown that brightness out,
I am and will always be your loudest cheerleader and your biggest fan ,
I will always love you in every way that I can , whether it's as a sister or a friend ,
I know beyond a shadow of the doubt and we will be in heaven together in the end ,

Coffee

As I just got home from work , I'm sitting here drinking coffee , it relaxes me when I'm tensed up and feeling offee(hee hee)

I am remembering times of not long ago,
At an IHOP sharing my favorite cup with my favorite person you know , we had coffee and pancakes ? it was so good, we savored every bite as we knew we should , then to the beach we went after our last savoring cup , and had a nice long walk on the boardwalk all down and up , stopped for pizza and of course another coffee too , then we went home for a movie -Bullet Train I believe it was that I watched with you , remembering those times sits forever in my heart but with a cup of coffee it all did start

Nighttime images

The images running through my head , should be relaxing but keeps me awake instead,
Making me think of the things to come,
The places I will be and then some,
I love to travel to new places and see new things , the nighttime images in my head is of what my future brings , mountains , lakes and oceans , forests , open plains and cities all set into motion, the Montana skies and the Colorado mountains tops, on the California groves to the Idaho hops, but my most favorite of all is the kingdom of Heaven above , where I am truly happy and with all of those that I love ,

The urge

The urge I have within me is to pack up and go, lately my life has been a complete horror show , depressed, anxious and feeling down , if things doesn't change it feels like I might drown ,
I know it's for a short time , but can't help but wonder , will I come back up or delve farther under ,
I have an urge building within , that I must control - lest I follow the lead of every other human,

I find myself wondering if there is any help for me , will I ever be on top ? Will I ever break free ?

Some day

Some day we will have all we ever wanted , and no longer from the past will we be haunted, past relationships and trials , will but far behind us as we travel across the miles , the tragedies and hardships , will only be a buried thought and not pass our lips, only looking forward from this day forward , my eyes on our Lord above and looking toward, the promise that has been coming on for years, throughout all of our laughter and tears, this is the third time we've been brought, towards Gods perfect plan - lessons we have been taught, when the time comes for His will to be done, we will know in our hearts that - though the process of pain - we've won

If my dogs could talk

If my dogs could talk , they'd say," mom you're crazy you're always on the go instead of laying here with us being lazy, but you leave us alone when we need and give the good food when it's time to eat , you give us all the love when we want to cuddle and you keep us warm when we're in a doggy huddle we're love it when you laugh when we play , we're not too happy when we're being bad and you yell at us HEY, when your sad we give you love as God instructed us to do from above , We was sent to you so you don't have to feel alone and blue we're here for you mom and we love you

My hearts tattoo

Have you ever met that one person that's always captivated you , Well I have and that's what I call my hearts tattoo even though you're far apart - but they seem like they're right there, Always ready listen to anything - always proving they care, They're image , voice and touch always lingers in your mind , the tattoo of love will not allow them to be left behind , My hearts tattoo will forever be a reminder , of a time when I was fearless and life treated me kinder ,
My hearts tattoo will always have my love , because I know that it was put there directly from our God above ,

Thanks to God

All thanks goes to God for bringing me my best friend back , when we wasn't taking , it felt like a big piece of me was lacked , our talks about nothing and yet everything, happiness and laughter it never fails to bring , the closeness I feel though we are miles apart , will close the division and a broken heart, time has gone by so quickly though it's been 2 1/2 years , I've been down and depressed and cried a river of tears , so thank you Lord for giving me my heart , and leading us to your plan as you have from the start ,
I trust in you Lord , let Your Will Be Done, because in the end , I'll know that I've finally won

Always shine

Always let your light to shine for God above , always allow yourself to radiate His love, never hide what you truly feel , never submit to satans tempting deal, always speak of our Father that made us, in His image, don't be ashamed in the blood of Jesus, Always shine in the darkest of days, never give into temptation and the devils ways, always shine in the skin that you have, never want or need anything because someone laughs, God made you perfectly imperfect in His name, be thankful for who you are and not drowning in the lights of fame, Always radiate Gods perfect love , always shine brighter than the brightest star above

Proof of love

The proof of love is by actions not words,
Words can cut deeply and wound your heart like a sword , Actions convey true emotion, they can rock you like gentle waves of the ocean , or they can rage on in the heat of passion , love to me are not merely word but action , love can be given by a touch of a hand , or by taking a quiet stroll over Gods beautiful land , love can be showed by an ode of a poem, it can be showed by dancing slow to a sweet song , love can be displayed from across the miles , or shown to someone by just a simple smile ,
There are many different kinds of love , all are given freely by our Father God above , to show the love of our Lord is all that you need, in order to make a bad day turn into a good one indeed , so next time you pass by another person on the street , flash them a friendly confidant smile to each one you meet the proof of love lives within us all , and by allowing it radiate from deep inside you , makes you stand tall remember Gods love , each and every day , and be aware of all the ways that it can be conveyed

Trust God

Trust God when thing awry, never give up and keep attempting to try, He's got you when you feel down and blue , when it seems like things are never going to look up, Gods got you , Trust in God when you feel alone and confused , and especially on the darkest days when you feel broken and bruised , trust in God on the days of doubt ,
He will lift you up and and the darkness He will drown out,

When it rains

When it rains - it absolutely pours, when life closes windows , God opens doors, new possibilities and new opportunities, new people to meet and learning new communities, idk where life is leading or how long it takes to get there, but I know without a doubt , I'm trusting in my Father without a care, things have been happening and I'm confident that they will be great, as long as I skip the wide road and pass through the narrow gate, that's the end of my life's journey through this crazy place, my beautiful ending results in seeing my Jesus's loving face , so when it rains , don't be afraid go out and dance in the downpour , let life close that window , and allow God open an incredible door

Butterfly

Some like to call me butterfly , but for different reasons, I can fly from one place to the next depending on the season , some because I hatched from my cocoon and spread my wings, some because I'm small and fragile among other things , one because in his eyes I'm the most beautiful and serene, and with every look there is a beautiful loving gleam, I like to think it's because , when my wings get wet - I can't fly, but there's no stopping me once they are able to dry,
I can fly long distances and never seem to stray, far from my course and always in gods sun rays, So never be afraid to spread your wings and fly , always keep striving and reaching for God on high,
I'm like a small butterfly , try to catch me if you dare, Nothing can keep me down because I can go everywhere,

A blind world

The world is blind to the coming events , Things are about to get a lot worse and situation way more tense, wars will be extremely worse than they ever have been before, Russia , North Korea and China will join together and create what they think is an unstoppable war, Gog, Magog, Tubal and Rosh from the Holy Bible is coming to pass, joining together against every other country to harass ,
It seems horrible and a terrible thing, but honestly - I'm thankful because our Lord and Savior it will bring, Jesus will be coming in the clouds in clothed in white and great glory ,
He will fight the good fight and end this horrible story , Satan thinks he has got this in bag and he will win, but I know that he will be bound and chained and be thrown into the lake of fire in the end , it's not too late to avoid this earthly mess, give yourself to Christ and you will be caught up in the clouds with all of the believers rest , our Father will keep us from this horrible fate, please ask for forgiveness and accept Gods salvation before it's too late

Backs against the wall

My backs against a wall and it's seems like I'm never going to be free, Everything's going to hell - and once again everything is on me, bills getting further behind and rent is coming due ,
I feel like I'm drowning and I don't know what to do , my back is against a wall and I feel like I'm going to lose all I have worked hard for ,
I can see no open window only the slamming of the door , I'm praying to my Father in Heaven to make me free , to lift me from the raging waters that rushing over me , lift this burden from my shoulders that is weighing me down , unwind this stress that has me bound , please Lord lift this burden that I'm feeling deep inside, give your light and let spread far and wide

Our hearts

Our hearts has become one, under the watchful eye of the Holy Son,
He has delivered us together and surly combined, our two twin souls so that life can rewind , we erased each others doubts in times that were tough , with understanding and faith and Gods perfect love , we were brought together while we were both in need,
To another human being that could truly see, our pain and our doubts , we have lifted each other up , throughout the year we've drank from Gods Heavenly cup, may we never part ways, and always be forever entwined , together and free

The walk

The walk I take through life is with you by my side , Lord, if you haven't saved me, I would've died, you delivered me from a certain fate, you stepped in to rescue me before it was too late ,
I was headed down a dark and twisted path, making my way to Hell, as the devil sat back and laughed, he was coaxing me and luring me into a life none can survive , but You delivered me from evil and gave me life , you gave me the freedom to choose his way or Yours, you gave me wings to fly on my own -so in the clouds I can soar, the walk that I take with my Father in Heaven above , may not be easy , but I am rewarded with unconditional love , Thank you God for showing me the way, the way to Your Kingdom- I will travel towards every single day , I know I will get there, because You gave me salvation , in which I will forever celebrate You with elation !!

my walk with You will never end ,
Lord I cannot wait to see what's around the next bend !

Made with love

Everything made in my kitchen is made with love , with a little sugar and spice from above , gentle caressing and knead , when there's cooking in the kitchen you can absolutely feel the heat, the ovens turned on and burners are lit, the loaves in the pan are a perfect fit, with a little of that and a little of this ,
I knows everything's ready when I hear that satisfying hiss, the kettle is hot and the coffee is done,
The bread is ready to come out of the oven and put on the cutting board made of wood, all rested and smelling oh so good ,
Ready to be sliced through and through , in my kitchen the only thing missing is you

Suffering in Silence

Suffering in silence is never an easy thing to do, Mental health is a very serious thing to have to get through , anything can be a trigger - and make you go into a safe shell , all the while suffering in silence - your own mind a prison cell, jumping to conclusions wanting to end it all, feeling unwanted and unloved and hearing deaths call, hurting and cutting just trying to find release, wanting the pain and voices in your head to quiet down and cease , if you know someone going through this please don't brush it aside, get them help to fight the demons that in there minds reside, there is power in the name of Jesus Christ our King, lift up your voice and pray to Him for perseverance and healing , I know this because I've been here, in this horrible place, until the day I fully accepted the reality of Gods saving grace, if you just let those suffering in silence know that they're not alone ,
By a hug , a kind word or even a call on the phone , can work wonders in this state of mind , letting them know that there is a way to be set free and leave this emptiness behind , suffering in silence is never a easy thing to do , please open you're hearts and let them know that they are not alone and have you

Lost

Without you I feel like I'm lost , but I will never give up no matter the cost , Lately I've been feeling down depressed and blue , because of how much I need you ,
I keep moving on because I know that I must ,
it is only you that I will forever trust , my heart feels empty and I feel so alone, only in you can I feel the love that only you have shown ,
I know I must keep going and I must stay strong, because that is what you would say to me because it's with you that I belong , I know that you love me and will always support all that I do , which is one of the many reasons that I love you

Phoenix

The phoenix rises from the ashes stronger than ever, Built from fallen dreams and promises that seems to have broken her,
They have put her down and counted her out,
They thought she was silenced and full of doubt ,
She was silently gathering her strength to become something great,
Instead of dying inside from a lifetime of hate,
She seemed broken and alone-suffering in darkness and shame,
Used to being walked on and always to blame,
Risen from the ashes of faded memories and shattered pieces,
She will never be silenced for she is a Phoenix
