My poetic Side

Dedication

Once you were mine but you left the train of my life

Dedicated to all the memories I have with you

Acknowledgement

I am grateful to the universe who meet me with all the lovely people I had in my life, without their presence all these poems were impossible to write. Thanks to all those memories we had shared once. Thanks to all my friends who always encouraged me to write and believe in me. A special thanks to Madhurima, Tiyaasha, Triasa, Sumedha, and Aviree who helped me with my grammatical issues and increased my vocabulary. Thanks to all those suggestions given by Prajeet to make the poems more bright. Last but not least thanks to my boys' gang who are still invisible by name but show their presence through their comments.

About the author

An upcoming writer of a novel who has fallen in love with writing just the way he fell for her. Currently, I am a student pursuing Bachelor of Technology in computer science and engineering. Writing was never been my passion but a way to express my thoughts. Besides writing I love to paint not only on canvas but also in people's hearts. Hopefully one day I will be able to publish my first book.

In the Shattered Universe

All my dreams scattered across the endless skies,
No one reached to light my fading stars.
They only saw the black hole in my soul,
A vessel of every sorrow and shadowed scar.
But no one spoke of the light I craved,
The quiet need for a spark,
So I searched for a moon to guide my way,
In a universe, cold and stark.
Yet all they did was tear my world apart,
Trying to forge a sun from my black hole.
Now my universe crumbles at its core,
As the sun's heat spirals out of control.

A life full of joy in a world of pain

You and me under the moonlight
Whispering under the night sky
Just like the way we did in the class.
Getting older with you,
But heart remains the same.
This is how my life is sailing
In a world full of pain.
Just like a student
In a class full of friends,
But lacks teacher just for some seconds.
Living the moment to its best
This is how I am enjoying my present.
Faced many storms,
But my boat is still sailing
With all its sails wide open.
Because you guys were there
To heal my pain.
This is what I call a true friend.

A Purpose To Live

You need a purpose to live.
I had three
One for love,
One for friends,
One for family.
How could I lose everything in a swift?
Was it a dream?
I asked, with a heart so broken,
But there was no one to answer long for seconds.
So I wanted to sleep.
Where is my home?
I asked so sweet.
At last, I realized
I lost the purpose to live.

A random guest

I know you never wanted me,
Neither was I invited,
I was just a random guest,
At your birthday party.
I wanted to see you smile,
Wanted to give all the gifts,
Which you wanted,
But I was not the person of your choice.
Seeing you smiling once again,
I exited from your life once again.
Hopeful we will be together,
In a parallel universe again.

A tale of friendship

You entered my life like the wind
On a hot, dry summer day,
To help me relax,
And to tell me,
"We are all by your side,
Just move forward and follow the path of your life."

All I want is a happy you

A breakup does not hurt that much,
But losing that person does
All the trust shatters away.
The deep conversation turns into dry words;
A fake conversation they both know
Their polite nature hurts you,
Making you regret the person you have lost.
Their rude behavior hurts you too,
Making you realize how they changed so quickly.
Whatever they do, hurts you.
All you will put in their life now is
Pain and negativity.
You no longer make them happy because
You are not happy yourself
So, you cut them off.
It tears you but you do it anyway.
All you want to see is a positive person in them,
Not a negative one
You sacrifice your love to see them happy.

Anxiety

A wall fell on my chest
Overthinking takes my mind away
Suffocating to death

Are two days enough to judge you?

There are 365 days in a year,
But people remember only two days
When you were at your worst.
They don't know your condition
They don't know your thoughts
They don't know how you overthink.
All they know is,
That was your true nature
Rest of 363 days you were an actor
Then why
Didn't I get selected for drama club last year?
You used to understand me so well
Maybe that will again happen in a parallel universe once again
Where I am a professional actor for years again and again.

Autumn

When leaves fall on the autumn grasses,
Time stops for a while.
Your shadow covers me everywhere,
Please tell me why?
O honey you are my beautiful nightmare,
Shaking my soul for a while
How can you do this without touching me for a while?
Grasses are dead
Just like me.
Greenery has disappeared in the name of mine.
Autumn has come to tell me why
It is not just a season,
But a pain of mine.

Broken Friendship

I still remember the time
6th February at 6.47 AM
An earthquake struck,
The land of Turkey.
Building shattered like palaces of cards,
Making me recall,
The bonds that I lost in my past.
The walls have cracks now,
So do our friendship.
We tried to fix it,
Were we able to repair it?
With an earthquake,
Our friendship is almost broken.
Hope someday we get a good end.

Day We Met

I still remember the very first day I met you
You, in blue velvet dress
Me, as casual as before
Held my hand for a second
Did I ask you to stay?
Can we be friends this time?
You blushed and I took that as a yes.

December

Night wakes up longer than a day
It is cold at my place.
December has come with a breeze,
Year passing
Just wait for a couple of weeks.
You name it a year of lessons
Which you revised nine times a week.
Coldness spreading on the sphere,
Not only by weather, but by heart.
Year disappearing in the world of memories,
Just like our friendship.

Depression

Emotionally broken

All hopes burnt in the burning heart

Losing my soul in the air

Exiled Memories

1'o clock at night it is,
Sitting by the window sill
Looking at the dark night sky
With sleep gone from my life.
A sudden breeze shattered my pages of memories
Seeing her cry one more time,
Seeing her saying about my poem
Which was not even for her!
Glancing over so many memories at once,
But now the moon has vanished from the sky.
A thin cloud has parted the sky in two
One full of stars not as bright,
But enough to fill my vision with;
Another full of void just like me
A reflection of my life I see in it,
How can I jump from this part to the other?
Feels so near, yet so, so far.

Humanity disappears

Conversation ends,
With a sunset.
Giving a night full of darkness,
Not a winter
By nature,
But
By heart.
A time I missed you the most,
But you didn't care anymore.
A humanity disappears
From the world,
In the sake of love.

I am there

I could have never walked,
Until you told me,
There was a door behind the dark.
Yes, it was dark,
But you were there,
To give me courage in my heart.
You told me
I am there beside you,
Give you all my courage.
Just promise me once,
You will never stop to walk,
Until we open the door.
We struggled together
We are almost there,
Just remember
I am your friend,
And I am always here,
Let's enjoy this life together.

I never told you

I never told you,
Your smile makes me smile.
I never told you,
You look cute
When you are angry.
I never told you,
You look beautiful with long curly hair.
I never told you,
Your happiness is my priority.
I never told you,
Don't leave me.
All I told you is,
Don't care about society
Don't care about me
Even if it breaks my heart
Do what makes you happy
That is my untold priority
A gift I always want to give you.

Innocent

Staring at the night sky,
Thinking loud in my mind,
Why that star is shining so bright?
Maybe that is my grandfather watching me,
That is what mom told me
When I was a little child.
Innocent by heart as well as my mind.
Missing those moments of my life;
When happiness was in every second,
Not on a single day.

It all ends with me

You took the train a long time ago,
Saw you happier in someone's arm,
Wish it was no one other than mine.
But I am standing at the station, right?
Remembering what happened a year back,
Helping you to pack your bags.
Hope I could say you goodbye,
But you took the train without a bye.
Still standing at the station,
With all the memories falling apart.
Hope I can catch the train
Once my heart feels light enough...

January a new hope

January gives a new beginning
Hope I cherish your memories this time
Maybe you will forgive me.

Killed Me

I still remember the day you left me,
A part of me left me too
I screamed, I cried
Needed a shoulder to lie.
Nobody came to rescue me twice,
I wonder why?
Maybe that day I died thrice.
I murdered myself one more time,
Just to save me one more time.
It pained
But had no medicine to inhale.
I murdered the love inside me,
Just to save me one more time.

Loneliness

Darkness surrounds me everywhere

Need a pair of ears to hear

Found me in the mirror

Love in Pain

I love you so much,
Then why I am in so much pain
Why everything is falling apart?
God, please help me!!!
Why my heart is burning???
I know you are not mine,
But I am all yours.

My First Date

Me walking on a crowded road,
You hold my hand tight.
Don't leave me,
You told me twice,
Or else you will get lost,
In the world of fake smiles.
I laughed and smiled,
Told you in a cute voice
It seems to be my first date,
With a cute laughing friend of mine.
This memory will never get faded away,
Because you will always be a cute friend of mine.

My Journey

For the last couple of weeks, I feel so exhausted,
All my power has been absorbed by someone else.
Let me assume that person to be X.
How can they do without touching me for once?
I wish I had a power bank to recharge me once.
Unfortunately, I am the only model left in this world,
So the company decided to shut my power off.
Once I was useful,
Now I am in the storeroom to become nostalgic memory of someone.

My Moon

So near yet too far,
I can sense you near,
Yet, your touch eludes a whisper, a tear.
Seems like the moon,
Which I love to see,
Just like your eyes where I fell down.

Pain

You lost a friend,
You lost a person,
You told me you are in pain?
Have you seen my pain?
In a moment,
I not only lost a friend and a person,
But my love too.
Have I ever told you I lost an emotional attachment?
It seems to me like physical pain.
I lost my trust,
Everything was destroyed in front of my eyes,
All I did was see it and cry.
Out of control,
I hurt my friends.
You are telling me you are in pain?
Time has passed,
Pain has absorbed me,
Sill I pray,
Let her get all my smiles,
Give me the pain of hers
I am still in love with her.

Parallel lines are beautiful

900 are the days that come to my mind
When I hear the word angel
600 days were so beautiful
30 days were a little tough
But you judged my true character in a span of 2.
My conditions were unknown,
My thoughts were unknown
Just like an iceberg.
Height was what you saw
But you couldn't find its depth.
Though it is past
I know you don't think me as a friend.
I am just a known stranger to you
But I still think of you as my friend
You may think what kind of self-respect I have
But few peoples are above self-respect.
That is where I put you.
Your strange behavior doesn't hurt me anymore
Because I don't expect a single drop of respect too.
A friendship so pure,
A friendship with no expectations,
I know our paths will never cross
But we can be parallel lines.
They are the best
Always beside you to tell whether you are going straight.
I don't know what you think
But if a day comes
When the whole world is against you,
You will find me by your side.
Like a parallel line.

Peace

In the path of searching you,
I got wounded.
My scars told me how badly I tried,
With all hopes vanished from my heart.
I sat under a shrub,
Thinking where I went wrong.
A little kitten sat on my lap,
Made me feel a little relaxed.
Peace is found when you stop searching for it,
That is what the chirping birds told me,
With beautiful sunbeams falling on my heart.

Raindrps

*Stumbling down the window sill,
Reaching the bottom shore of it.
Making the drop bigger as it could,
Until it breaks into pieces.
And the process repeats itself,
Raindrops showing me life once again.*

Sea of Memories

Running through my thoughtful mind,
Crossing the river of my brain from left to right,
Recalling all we shared once,
From a strange beautiful breeze,
To an ever-lasting sea of memories.
Wish we could all last forever,
But the end gets nearer,
As the evening gets darker.

Simple

My love is too simple,
In a world of long drives,
All I can give you is a simple long walk
On an unknown road
That is how I explore life with you.
All I can give you is a simple garland on your head,
Make you feel like my princess
In the world of platinum necklaces.
All I can give you is a poem,
In the world of costly gifts.
All I can give you is my simple love,
In a world of complex.

Spices

In the world of spices,
Nobody loves simple dishes.
The world is complex,
How can you expect yourself to be simple?
The world tries to break you,
To make a complex you.
Still, you try to stand brave,
With a simple heart and tell it aloud
Spices make everything delicious,
But it takes your health apart.

This Day, That Year

Another ordinary Monday it was,
The cold was still not there,
But the nights were getting longer.
It was 6'O clock in the evening
When You and I decided to go on a walk.
The road was narrow
Surrounded by grasses,
A road so straight that no one took,
All I knew I was there with you,
Moon lighting the sky a little.
It was such a romantic weather
We decided to dance a little
Your blushing No was a cute yes to me
That time was so good.
Our eyes tell more than our words,
Holding you in my arms
We started to dance
Me singing in a low voice
"Baby, I'm dancing in the dark
With you between my arms
Barefoot on the grass
Listening to our favorite song
I have faith in what I see
Now I know I have met an angel in person
And she looks perfect
I don't deserve this
You look perfect tonight"
That was a beautiful moment
How can I forget this moment in my entire life?

Trust

I wish I could run a hundred miles per hour,
To escape this world beyond the line,
Where trusting people is not an issue.

War

Two months have passed by,
Dried words have fallen down.
Now it is time to burn them all,
But I can still feel you in my blood.
Will I be able to free my soul,
In the war of loneliness and love?

Wings To Fly

God gave you wings to fly.
Do you know why?
To make her smile one more time.
Hiding in her heart,
Making a beautiful love story in this world.
But it is time to wrap the story up,
Breaking the glass one more time;
Walking on shards of yours,
Waking the poet up inside me
It is all because of you, you see.
That is the reason
Why God gave wings to fly.

Wish

I saw your tears,
When the world saw your smile.
You know I was there,
When you needed a shoulder to cry.
I wish you could see my pain,
When I hurt you with my words.
I wish you could call me once,
When I told you I don't need you anymore.
I wish you would want to stay,
When I decided to let you go.

World Of Evil

I am in the world of evil,
Kindness is killing me everywhere.
Telling me why the hell you're here,
Go and grab your chair,
Until you kill yourself there.

Your Eyes

Your eyes shard my heart
Every piece is praying for you
While falling apart
Side by side time falling aside
Maybe we will meet again in the next life
Your eyes took my mind
Tell me how to get it back into my life.
You were the beautiful character in this story
Where I fall apart.

Your Path

Path you follow spreads greenery
Your dream will come true within time
God has blessed you child.
