The Consumer Report - Fear of Reign-

Look around everyone seems to have their heads down, 'Caught Up in the Rapture' of Artificial Intelligence when it used to be that of Anita Baker,

The New Frontier, caught up in the web of Social Engineering and the undercurrent of what's current, The new Social Currency, of the Cons, Pirates, and the applied science of Grand Theft Wizardry, the Protocol of what was once thought to be a Conspiracy when literally this is High Def Piracy, The old yet updated Protocol from the so-called Elders of Zion, spoofing and the selling of personal data and information a total annihilation of the sentient being, The Consumer Report, AI IOI, the I Of I, deguised in the Anomaly of better lives, Surrogacy the Straw Man and the Avatar the real players of the Game, but of course never believed Social Media could go this far, The Addict and the Addiction, a Game of mutation, multiple choice, and addition complete with a tuition, yet here's a few question for those on the Psychic kick, that Para, Neo, Psycho analytical, psychiatrically bullshit, Is this possible, Is this real, Is anyone else reacting, Well judging by my calculations once again look around everyone has their head down in a Fukking phone or some other electronic device suspended in social automation, social assimilation, the motive social alienation, and the end game social eradication, a cyber crime of Grand Theft Larceny, the taking of life, liberty, property and mainly that of personal choice and free will, Black Matter Lives, a Dark Matter In-Deeds, the perps, The Illegal Mr. Deeds, perpetrating under the auspices of the Adopting Parents/Guardian's, Rogue Ass Confederate Soliders under the guise of Big Government's, Corporations, and Pharmaceuticals, The Civil War, hell you know the deal they're all the same just different names playing the same game out for the same thang total control of the population or should I say Unsanctioned Globalization the apparent reality facing the Nations, Can't never Could, but it goes to say, "I wish a Ni$$a would" look behind the screen and peep the real scene, OZ the Wizard will appear, the fictitious entities with artificial intelligence telling us what to think and feel when in all reality only less than half of the shit is made up or let's just say make believe because one or two things can happen either your are made to believe or you make believe, now breathe.

?Linez of Communication?Signz of Ad-Diction?

Linez of Communication, the Diction's of an Addict, for more learned than the lectures of many academics; signs of Ad-Diction, an analysis of Racism, Poverty, Police Brutality, Child Psychology, Politics and other dope topics, based on the collective street-wisdom of a grassroots experience.

Beneficiary of scattered remnants of a broken culture, adolescent eyes, blindly molded with a vivid imagination, guilty by reason of being incapable of articulating the ominous contradictions, convicted in a ward of a court outside parental jurisdiction, exposed to a multitude of ambiguous corrupt negative influences, lacking understanding due to a lack of effective communication, a child, sentenced at birth, spooned fed an immature perspective serving as wisdom, unable to dodge Con-frontation with the Con-forming double standards of a toxic environment and society, rife with poverty, filth, crime, drugs miscarriages of justice and illiteracy, not to mention the blunt trauma from the police brutality;

Street therapy, mental and physical intoxication, a classic product duped and Con-sumed within its moral pollutants, high and dry, paralyzed in a social vacuum riddled with revelatory behaviour, a bastardized prodigy, so absorbed in a distorted sense of self-preservation, diagnosed a shiftless, inferior, promiscuous, illiterate flunky and Con-signed a member of the underclass, left as a subject to be subjected to psychotropic drugging and testing, a project of the projects, sedated into a delusional dream of capitalism's false hopes and aspirations, terminal conditions, Linez of Communication, Signz of Ad-Diction.

Overdose on a technicality, a false sense of what's real due to faulty information, sheer ignorance to a misuse of drugs to escape reality, more bang for your buck!, Wake your Ass up!, Relapse, here take another look into this mirror of reality as I chop some more of this raw shit up, out-lining some more hits, this dope man's blessing, these Linez of Communication, taking it to the head, in addition to reading between the lines, overdosing the mindscape of the human thought with a drug called reality, a street-pharmacists prescription, refined from the mind of a realist, no Whodini, so there's no escaping it, don't fight the feeling, you might as well inhale, swallow and relax as I detail the next phase of these Linez of Communication and its Signz of Ad-Diction.

Sizing up the game, introducing you to epic mind trips, taking your awareness to higher levels of this social epidemic, a hustler's ambition, higher levels of survival, a thug's rendition, "all money is good money," money, sex, power and fame, an empire state of mind, the framework that holds the roots to everything the hustler do or refrain from, master of its curriculum of thievery, deceit and robbery, The Street Institution of Higher Learning, The Skhool of Hard Knocks, graduating there from, Summa Cum Laude, underprivileged with a Ph.D. in Criminality, ruthlessly competing for the theoretical crumbs of an AmeriKKKan Pie proportionately served to all based upon their ambition, street-smartz, and perseverance;

Ghetto Mind-Tricks to Street politics with the prevailing motifs being aggression and a daily battle of violence to survive within the afforded equal opportunities of society's underbelly, an equal opportunity employer, employing street thugs, ex-cons, con men, corporate thugs, gamblers, theives, pimps, prostitutes along with many other hustler types, who's code of ethic is "might is right," as they seize the equal opportunity to succeed in a broad and deadly template for failure, not out of aspiration but out of desperation to survive the monstrous inequities that show no mercy to young or old, and as the story close, don't allow yourself to be confounded by your Ad-Dictions that you fail to identify the Signz of Ad-Diction out-lined in these Lines of Communication.
