I am here

I hear all the pain in your voice
That your trying to hide
Where I want to take all your pain away
It tears me up
Seeing you this way
With so much hurt
Not wanting to let people in
Breaks my heart
I am here...
I'm willing to do what it takes
To help ease all your pain
I want to support you
Not to judge your pain
We all have pain
I am here...
Willing to do the effort
When you feel like you got nothing
Let me
Be your rock
When you're about to crumble
I am here...
If you need a cheering squad
Let me Be the one cheering you on Building you back up
Giving you the praise, you deserve
I see all your pain
So, lean on me
I am here...
For as long as it takes
To ease all your pain
Let me
Be there for you

More time

How is it that when a friend dies
You wish that you could be there
Just so you could tell them
How much you they truly meant to you
There were days we didn't see each other
However, you never wanted them gone
It has you wishing for a little more time
So, you could tell them
How much they were loved by you
There is a void in your heart
That was shared by your friend
They were the ones you had to argue with
They were the one that helped put a smile on your face
You are now not able to tell them how much you loved them
God came and took you too soon
The memories that we shared
Will always be carried near my heart
They were the ones that helped me become me
They were the one that kept me going
Now here I am wishing we had more time
Just so I could tell you how much you meant to me
I hope that they knew how I felt
Even though it was never spoken
However, it was implied every single day
Now the tears are rolling down for you my friend
For all that you're going to miss
Knowing that you're not going to be there to put a smile on my face
Wishing that we had more time
To tell you what you meant to me
Has me sitting here with my tears
Hoping that you knew how I felt
You were a good friend to me

There will always be a space for you in my heart
You will never be replaced
You will always be my friend forever
Even though we may have not liked each other a lot of the time
We were still friends till the end
Nothing mattered more to me
Even though you were taken away too early
You will always be in my prayers
Forever you will be my friend
We will meet again one day
So, we can share our laughter together once again
I miss you

Promise you

There are a few promises
That are always guaranteed in a relationship
I can promise you
We're going to have good days
Where we're going to be blissfully happy
Nothing could break the bond
That the two share
All that is needed is
A simple kiss
It will fix everything
I can promise you
We're going to have bad days
Where we're not going to like each other very much Hitting all the bumps along the way
Makes us stronger
I can promise you
My love for you will never die
I love you for you
For all the good and all the bad
Through all of this
We became a team
We are the only two members
That truly matter
With all of this
We became each other's Partner in crime
This is my promise to you
My one true love

Chance

You came to me in a strange way
I'm not sure why you did
I thank you every single day
For taking that chance you did
I lie awake
Thinking about you
Always wondering, why I must Have you making me feel so brand new
I have given you my trust
On my cloudiest of days
You can put a smile on my face
Always knowing just what to say
It makes me feel all covered in lace
I hear your voice ringing through my soul
It makes me feel whole
I'm left wondering how this can be
From the very first moment our fingers met
I have given you my heart
If this is a dream please don't wake me
It feels so right
Is this meant to be
Just like the stars at night
Shining bright in the sky

Wind Kisses

Every time you feel the wind brush against your cheek
That is me sending you a kiss
Sent via wind express
I made a deal with Mother Nature
She agreed to deliver each of your kisses
To you my darling, Sunshine
I can't give you them to you myself
In my dreams your always covered in kisses
Being my one true love
Has me wishing
I could deliver all these kisses
You solely deserve
I love you, Sunshine
Till that day comes
Please let Mother Nature do her job
Let the wind brush against your cheek
So you can have my kisses
You solely deserve
Let me grant you with this gift
That mother Nature agreed to do for me
Via wind express

Regret and Pain

How am I so stupid
I broke the heart of a man
I love with all my heart
By being stupid
Not realizing the pain
I was about to cause
By my own selfless act
I caused us both pain
He is my entire heart and soul
All that I am is because of him
How could I be so stupid
He is my entire soul
I want to show him
How sorry I truly am
I regret it all
All because I love him
I will spend every day
Proving my love for him
He is my everything
I want him to know it every day how much he means to me
I was the stupid one
That caused all of this
I just want for him to forgive me
All the pain that i caused him
Fills me with so much regret
He didn't deserve that I do truly love him
He is my everything
I want to make him see
He is all that I want
I want to fix everything
Regretting every single moment

Has me feeling lost
Without him by my side
I will never want to see that pain again
He is my everything
My heart and soul isn't complete
Till I'm forgiven once again

Let me in

I sit here
Listening to the sound of your tears
Breaks my heart
You're not willing to let me in
When you need me the most
I could wipe away all your tears
Giving you all the strength
From within me to give
You're the best part of me
It kills me to see you this way
I need for you to know
I'm here for you always
No matter what
Whatever is bringing you down
Is bringing me down too
I've been your emotional punching bag
I'm still here
Supporting you in every way
I need you to know
I'm always here for you
You've been my rock
It's my turn to be yours
I will be here
To wipe away your tears
Forever Just let me in
So, I can be your strength

Right Now

I don't know what tomorrow may bring
What I do know is
That I'm happy with you
I can't make you any promises
That I will be here forever
Right now, I want you to be by your side
Going through each hurdle together
Hand in hand
As I look into your eyes I can see your thoughts
Being in your arms
I know I'm alright
Making me feel safe and at home
Knowing that our hearts can beat as one
Means everything to me Right now
I'm where I'm supposed to be
I have never loved anything so completely
As I look towards the future
I see us heading in the same direction
Hand in hand
Happy as can be
Going through the journey together

Feeling blue

There is so much distance between us
My thoughts keep coming back to you
I'm wondering why I must
I always feel so blue and not true
There has been so much hurt between us
Our hearts are always true
What I'm trying to say is a must
I'm feeling blue
When we are apart, I feel lost
I know we can't be together
Since there is a huge cost
The price is the bigger matter
Your smile sends shivers down my spine
It makes me feel so whole
I wish you could be only mine
My heart will always be true
To what could have been
I will not always feel blue
I know you know what I mean

Cheering me on

Through all the bumpy roads
We have journeyed on You've always been there
Cheering me on
Not sure why you even cared so much
However I was grateful
That I had you in my corner
Cheering me on
You always spent the time to listen
No matter what
Always giving encouragement
While journeying on these bumpy roads
You never said a thing
You've always been my friend
Through it all
I am grateful to have you
Cheering me on
You are the best friend I could ever have
Thank you
For cheering me on

I thank you

I want to thank you
For coming into my life
You taught me some valuable lessons
That had to be taught to me
You gave me what I was needing
I may not have seen it at the time
I'm going to be ok
You filled me with so much understanding
I am not regretful of our time together
It has given me my strength
You gave me growth
I didn't know I needed
Til you came into my life
You're going to be a part of me
I thank you
For being what I was needing
As much as it may hurt
You are blessing to me
The lessons you taught me
Are the most valuable gift to me
I will never regret our time together
You filled a void I was needing to be filled
With a lot of new lessons learned
You are a blessing hidden in a nice package
I will never regret a thing
Thank you for coming into my life
I am leaving here
With so much gratitude
That you gave to me
It was a special gift only you could give
Thank you for coming into my life

I don't know what tomorrow may bring
What I do know is
That I'm happy with you
I can't make you any promises
That I will be here forever
Right now, I want you to be by your side
Going through each hurdle together
Hand in hand
As I look into your eyes I can see your thoughts
Being in your arms
Making me feel safe and at home
Knowing that our hearts can beat as one
Means everything to me right now
I'm where I'm supposed to be I have never loved anything so completely
As I look towards the future
I see us heading in the same direction
Hand in hand

I see you

I see you
Standing in front of me
Lost and confused
I see all of your pain
You're trying to hide within Hiding behind your smile
Though you wear it well
It's just a mask you're wearing for protection
I see you
Being on guard all the time
Consumed by all your own thoughts
Causes you to be afraid
To let people, see the real you
I see you
I see beyond your mask
You aren't wanting people to see
You're not invisible
You got to trust what i see
I see you
A caring person
Beating himself up over the past
Letting it consume you
You're willing to brighten anybody's day
By just being present in their world
Sharing your bright smile
Brings smiles everywhere you go
Can you shed the mask
So, others can see what I see
I see the real you
I see you
The real you
So, toss the mask
Give the world the real you

I see you
So, will they

Heart, body and soul

I don't know how to get through to you
I know you are the one
I want to spend my life with
Can I be the one you lean on
The one that wipes your tears away
I want to reassure you with a kiss
You have touched every place in my heart
That has been empty
Nothing has been the same
Since you became a part of my world
I want you to know
I'm always with you
Heart, body and soul
Can you let me there
To be there on the rainy days
I have never wanted anything with so much passion
You are the one
I want to complete me
Heart, body and soul

Promise

I promise to to be by your side
Through all the good and the bad
My arms would always be open
Can I be the one you lean on?
I want to take care of you
On all the rainy days
I would do anything to make you happy
Let me be there in the middle of the night
To guide you through today
We have nothing to lose
I'm reaching out to you
I'm standing here
With everything to lose
I promise to be here for you
I will never leave you
If you give me the chance
To show you that I'm true
I will love you everyday
For the rest of my life
No matter how my heart may break
I'm willing to take that chance
You drive me crazy
I love you
I promise to always be here
Waiting for you to take the step
Towards my heart
I'm standing here with everything to lose
I love you
The way that you are Trying to find the right words
To tell you
I'm willing
To take that step

I'm here
Willing to lose everything
Just for a chance
To be with you
This is my promise to you

Living in a world of chaos

Growing up in a world of chaos
When everything seemed to be normal
In this unrealistic world
Where there were so many secrets
That was not allowed to be spoken
There was no real love
It was a game of pretend
Where there were no lessons being taught
Just a lot of secrets kept
All being locked behind closed doors
Where nobody knew where to find the key
Living in this world
Where there were no true emotions
Nothing expressed or spoken
After many years of living in this abuse
Brought growth and awareness
That I didn't have to be trapped
In this unrealistic world
Fleeing this world
It was not an easy journey
Climbing up this mountain of growth
Brought up a lot of emotions
That was all unfamiliar
Within time the emotions that were being felt
Did not feel so strange
They were feelings that I never knew
I had to learn on my own
Away from the chaotic world
That I found out to be toxic
For me and the ones I love
I had to shatter that world of chaos
It was not a healthy place
It kept me trapped

In a world that I did not belong
As I climbed up the mountain
The emotions grew bigger within
I had to fight against
The familiar world that I had always known
Knowing that I had to escape
For my own sanity
It brought me nothing but misery
Now I know that I am able to protect The ones I love
Now I have found my strength
To grow into the person
I was supposed to be Living in that world of chaos
Was the worst place for anyone to live
Now I Know that I don't want to be
In that place again
I am now safe in a world
That does not have to have chaos
Knowing that I'm free
Makes me feel a lot stronger

Masks

Feeling torn with all the faces
That must be worn in a day
Is very exhausting
Is there a face that is truly mine
Not a mask
I have to put on for the day
Does this person have a name
Which they are are called
Are they a pigment from the mask
That they had to wear
Is this person even real
Each mask has a different title
How is it placed throughout the day
Without collapsing with exhaustion
From wearing so many different faces
For the world to see
None of them are real
Who is this person
Behind all the masks
That is the real mystery
Who are you
Come out and show me
Who is behind the masks
I would like to meet you

His pain

Today, I see a man
In so much pain
Not in the physical aspect
He is emotionally broken
He is beating himself up
Over things that are out of his control
Making him withdrawn from everyone
Fearing that he will be judged
Makes me want to reach out to him
To let him know
He isn't alone
His fears aren't deeper than himself
He can rise above it
I wish he could see
Beyond all of his fears
Here I am willing to listen
To all his pain
My shoulders are strong enough
To handle the weight of your fears
I see a man
That can overcome anything
I'm offering you my hand
In hopes that you will reach out
I can be his crutch
When he is about to fall
He needs to know
That somebody is willing to be there
I know he can get past it
He just needs somebody to support him
By letting him dump all his pain onto Without being judged
It's breaking my heart
Seeing him in so much pain

I wish that he would let me
Be the strength he needs
He is so much more
Than all of his fears

Crying eyes

I see all of your pain In your eyes
I feel all your sorrow
That is found within those eyes
That is usually is so pure
Are now filled with so much pain
This tears me apart
All I want to do is give you a hug
That you are needing at the moment I hear your desperate cries
That is found within you
Which nobody is supposed to see or hear
But you Shutting yourself off Like a light switch
From all that loves you
Breaks my heart
All I want to do is Give you a hug
That you are needing at that moment
Now I'm here
Hearing your silent cries
Now willing to listen
So, I'm asking
Please take my hand
So, we can release your pain
That is within you
Because now I am here and listening

Echoing voice

Hearing your voice
Echoing in my head
Of you begging for mercy
On a night of total disbelief
That haunts my nights
Now and again
I feel your pain
All your anger
I'm not sure where it should be released
Wishing that this would just go away
But it won't
The sound of your echoing voice
Tears me apart
I have never heard you sound like that before
I never want to again either
Wishing that i will wake up from this dream
To find out that it was only in my dreams
Where none of it was real
Unfortunately, that isn't the case It was real
But...
The echoing voice doesn't want to go away
It is a reminder
That I couldn't save you

Without a word

It is amazing
How you can speak to my heart
Without saying a word
You don't have to say or do anything
When you hold me near Nobody else exists
When your smile
Says everything I want to hear
The smile on your face
Let's me know
That you need me
The touch you give me
Tells me
That you will catch me
If I'm about to fall
The look in your eyes
Say that
I'm yours and you will be here
Forever and ever
Without saying a word
Gives me all the reassurance
Without any spoken words

Blue line

Goal line to goal line
There is nothing but empty space
Til you come onto the ice
Sends my heart a racing
The excitement builds as you skate to the blue line
As you glide across the ice
I imagine how you would move off of the ice
Where I want to take you to the penalty box
For a ten minute major
When you you move across the ice in so much grace
Playing with so much passion
Makes me want to have you
Right on the blue line
When you score
We are both winners
As I imagine you would be
As I want to take you to the penalty box
For a ten minute major
When you score the winning goal
I know we both won the game
Makes me want to have you even more
Where everything begins and ends
As you glide off the ice
I sigh in relief
I know that we shared the game

Angels

When I was looking for a angel
To give me some guidance and hope
I was sent more than I could count
Each angel bearing gifts
Each gift brought more joy
Ever imagined
Hope was brought back
To this lifeless body
Giving thanks to these angels
Is not enough to just give thanks
Right now theses angels
Are worth more than gold itself
They want to stay annonymous
Since their kindness
Was meant to be kept a secret
With every blessing
More hope was given
Proved to me that there are angels among us
Whom are wanting nothing in return
Except that one day
I will be able to do the same
When the time is right
Theses angels brought me back to life
Even though they didn't know
I can only thank you
For all the kindness
That you have given me
Each gift will be saved in a place near my heart
Thank you my angels

Hearts and arms

Take my hand
Let the dream flow
Let us follow our hopes and desires
Give me a little love
So, our love can grow
We will be nowhere to be found
Lost in each other
With nothing holding us back
But our dreams
Wishing that our dreams
Will be answered
By working as a team
Not looking farther than our hearts
Our hearts and arms always open
I welcome you full heartedly
Sharing the day to day
With a touch and smile

I want

I want to hear your voice say my name
I want to hear your voice change as you try to hide from me
I want to feel your touch against mine
I want to feel your breath against my skin
I want your thoughts to indulge me
I want you in my dreams always
I want to have the shape of your tongue memorized
I want you inside my heart always
I want to be fluent in your body language
I want to know what smell like when you get out of the shower
I want for your love to complete me
I want you to be mine
I want you entirely

Carrying on

Whenever I'm at my lowest point
I think about you
All that you have gone through Reminds me that I can carry on
No matter how hard it gets You're the one that picks me back up
A friendship like ours is hard to find
Your courage to carry on Always gives me a push
I sometimes forget
You always remind me
That I have you as a friend
We may be very different
However, we are very much the same
Reminds me that I have strength to carry on Thank you for being my friend
You gave me the strength
When I needed you the most
By just being there
You showed me how to carry on
Thank you for being there
When I needed you the most

Living without you

If I have to live my life
Without you in it
I want you to know
I would never ask you to change
I want you to know
How much I love you
I will never want for you to change
I love you
Just the way that you are
This isn't what I wanted
Now my life is empty
Without you in it
I will be ok
Just because I had the chance
To know you
Thank you for that chance

Longing to see you

When I close my eyes
I see a face
All I know is that I must find you
You are in my dreams and in my thoughts
Do I know you?
Have I seen you before?
Did we meet once?
Wherever you are I will find you
My heart will not be complete
Till our hearts finally meet
I can feel your touch
It is like I've been reborn
All I know is that I must find you
If it takes me till the end of time
We will finally meet
Even if it's only in my dreams
There is so much freedom knowing
That you are out there somewhere
When our hearts meet
It will be like changing of the seasons
When I see you
Where we will meet is uncertain
But we will
I will find you
Wherever you may be

So much promise

In the eyes of stranger
I see so much promise
Within those eyes
I want to be able to guide
The eyes of this stranger
To the promise I see in them
Beholds promise of something new
I can see there is something
In their eyes
That have drawn me in
They are wanting and needing guidance
Here I want to be your guide
To a place that is happy
All the promise I see
Within this person
Makes me feel hopeful
That I can show this person
This world of so many desires
To this stranger
With all of this promise
That is found within this person
Whom, only needs a little push
In the right direction
Where all of this promise I can see
Can be put to good use
Come look within
To see all the promise that I see
Within you
All this promise is just for you

Because of you

I was happy living my life alone
Til you came along
You opened my eyes
To all the things I was missing
I never thought that it could happen to me
Now i can't imagine
My life without you
I don't know what I would do without you
You're in my dreams
My heart knows
All of this is true when you're in my arms
I have everything
This is all because of you
You have opened my eyes
To all that i was going to lose
I have everything now
This is because of you

Your voice

Being mesmerized by the sound of your voice
It is echoes so loudly within my head
I hear your voice within my own thoughts
You never asked to be there
I have just expected you to be there
Now I depend on your voice
To always guide me through the day
Even though we have never truly met
You have given me so much insight
Of, who I want to be
You are always there to listen
However, your voice is so intoxicating
That I get swallowed up
With the sound of your voice
Is the first thing that i hear
When the new day begins
Then your voice continues throughout my day
More I try to fight it
The louder the voice gets
Why don't you come and put this voice to rest
Just come and be in my day to day

Two worlds

Feeling like I'm being torn
In between two worlds
The one that i live in
And the one that I want
I'm feeling like I'm living
Two very different lives
One is just going through the motions
The other is the happiest place imagined
Right now the two worlds
Are crashing into each other
My head is just spinning
In every which direction Bur where I want to be Wishing that I could be guided
To the world I want
Not the one that I'm in Wanting my head to stop spinning
My head is aching
For the world that I want
Help me stop
These two worlds from crashing
Into one another
I want to get off
In the world
That I want to be in

Unasked prayer

From the very first moment
I saw you
You changed my world
Not aware of how
It all happened
However, I didn't care
I liked how it feels
When I'm with you
We are connected
Heart and soul
We have formed an unbreakable bond
That nobody can break
You are the answer
To my unasked prayer
You brought me to life
The day you said hello
From that day
My unasked prayer was answered
When I was given you
Now everything is complete
Thank you
For answering my unasked prayer

Three dreaded words

Every single girl wants to hear
Them, three dreaded words
I love you
To change her world
She always yearns for
To hear them words uttered
From her one true love
The day she hears
Them, three dreaded words
I love you
Sends her into panic mode
Not knowing what to say
In a state of disbelief
Has her world changing
Them three dreaded words
I love you
Means so much
Has her spinning in every which direction
Not sure where to stop
Everything is changing so quickly
Them three dreaded words
I love you
Has her world changing
From what she knows it to be
Why are them words so powerful
Them three dreaded words
Once they have been spoken
They can not be taken back
Has her afraid
For what it all means
Yet she is willing to Venture out into the unknown
To see the beauty

That lurks around the corner
She wants to hear
Them three dreaded words
I love you
If your going to say them
I truly hope that you mean it
Them three dreaded words
I love you
Are so powerful

Nonsense

Your words don't mean a thing
Since there is no truth
Within the words that are spoken
Just hollow sounds of echoes
Bouncing off all the nonsense
That is in the untruth
Unaware that you didn't speak the truth
Makes it even harder to hear
The sound of your voice
Just makes me want to hurl
Nothing about you was real
You were just a fantasy I imagined
All the words that you spoken
Were all fake
The echoes of your nonsense
Is hard to hear
None of this is real
You're full of yourself
Nothing you say is even real
Where do you get off
Filled with so much hurt
Never hearing the truth
It never really existed
You are a fantasy
To the world I thought I wanted
I can't hear, no more nonsense
I'm tired of all the untruth
That is bouncing in my head
I'm fed up of all the lies
You have spoken
All the broken promises
That you have said

You are full of yourself
Not one word is even real
All the sounds of the echoes
Are bouncing off all the nonsense
Now please stop talking
I'm not listening anymore

Eye candy

How can a girl be good?
When there is so much eye candy
Everywhere she may look
Here, there and everywhere
How can she contain herself?
Looking without touching
Seems like a crime
When there is so much eye candy
Now that there is Chippendale's
That is a complete crime
Having so much eye candy in one room
How can a girl be be good?
When the devil is playing his part
Being such a tease
With all the eye candy
Dancing around everywhere
How can a girl be good
When it would be a crime
If she didn't behave
Resist the temptation
Of all the eye candy

My little angel

To my crying little angel
I want you to know
That it is ok
For you to spread your wings
You have done your job
Giving me strength
When I didn't have any
Now it's time
For my little angel to fly
To spread your wings
Go on your own adventure
I am telling you to go
It is time
Go fly my little angel fly
Just know
That every time I cry
It's a thought of you
You will always be in my heart
It is time for me
To set you free
Go fly my little angel fly
Spread your wings
Share your joy everywhere you go
That mommy will always love you
Cry no more
You are free
My crying little angel
Fly, fly, fly

Hardest thing to do

As I look into my children's eyes
The tears are rolling down my face
I know what I have to do
However, it is the hardest thing
I've ever had to do in my life
I got to let you go
Not because you weren't loved
That wasn't the case
It's all the love that I have for you
Is the reason why I'm doing this Times got really hard
Where I couldn't give you what you deserved
Knowing in my heart
This is the right thing to do
Even though it is tearing me apart
Letting you go wasn't a choice I made easily
I looked deep into my heart for my guidance
Then I knew what I had to do
Don't ever think that you weren't loved
You were loved very much
I will always carry you in my heart
Forever you will always be there
Giving you up
Was the hardest thing I ever had to do
In my heart I know that I made the right choice
Even though I will carry you in my heart
Every single day
You will never be forgotten
My one wish for you is to have a better life
Than the one I could give you
You will always be my baby forever
Even though we are in different worlds
We will always be connected

I want you to know
What I did is because I love you
Not because you were not wanted
You are blessing to me
When times got really hard
I knew I had to give you up
So you could have all you deserve
All that I couldn't give
Not for a lack of trying
You will always be in my heart
That is where you will always stay
The connection we share is like no other
You are always going to be my baby
No matter how far apart we maybe
I will always love you
Please don't be sad
Mommy will always be here for you
I'm really sorry that it had to come to this
It is the one gift I could give to you
A better life that I wasn't able to give to you
You will never be forgotten
I will always have a thought of you
Every time I hear the birds chirp
Will be a thought of you
Just know me giving you up
Was out of love
I hope that one day you will be able to understand
I will love you forever

Tug a war

I'm feeling like I'm in a tug a war
With thoughts of you now and then
Driving me crazy
Being pulled in both directions
How far can this rope stretch
Just hearing your name
Sends goosebumps down my body
I've tried hard to forget you
However you always in my thoughts
Which makes it really hard
To fully let you go
I'm being pulled every which way
In this tug a war
Feeling like I'm in a losing battle
Where I want to surrender
When I think I'm finally over you
You reappear like nothing happened
All the good and bad feelings
All resurface again
Makes me feel
Like I'm in a tug a war
With my own thoughts and fears
You bring out the good and bad in me
Why why why
Are you pulling me in all directions
In this tug a war
I'm almost ready to cut this rope
To end the tug of war

My hero

Today you are my hero
Protecting me from harm
Tomorrow you could be a villain
Shattering all my hopes and dreams
With a single word
You're the one that I want to share
All my ups and downs with
You're my hero everyday
The one that inspires me
To be the best that I can be
You're the spark to my fire
That gives me hope
Our future will be forever bright
We are going to hit some bumps in the road
Where I'm not going to like you very much You're always going to be
My super hero
That keeps me grounded
You're my other half
You're the better part of me
Without you
I have nothing
All I need is you
Being on this journey with me
Seeing all the good and bad
Hand in hand
Side by side
Supporting one another
Through all the ups and downs
You're my hero everyday
Even on the days
I don't like you very much
You're the one I choose

To stand beside me
Through all the good and bad
I love you
I need you
This is our journey
Together we can make it beautiful
Hand in hand
side by side
Every single day
You're my super hero

These arms

Today all of my dreams
Are held within ones arms
This person gives me hope
To where I can imagine
What the future holds
Where dreams become reality
Being in these arms
Makes everything seem reachable
The unimaginable becomes possible
Once I was held in within these arms
All my hopes that were unimaginable
Became a reality
These arms hold the future
Where the unimaginable
Doesn't exist anymore
All that is present
Is all the imaginable dreams
That are now reachable
Within these arms
Holds the future
Where everything becomes reachable
Being in these arms
Makes all my dreams a reality
In these arms
I learnt that dreams
Can be reachable
If you can imagine it
It will be possible
Within these arms
That have given me
So much hope
For what the future holds
Within these arms

Anything is possible

My dreams of you

My dreams are full of you
I even daydream about you
I dream about your touch
While you are away
I dream about your smile
That melts my heart
I dream about falling asleep in your arms
Being safe and secure
I dream about hugging you tight
I find myself hugging my pillow
To feel your warm embrace
I dream about our future
Being happy and complete
There is no escaping you
You are everywhere
I would never change that
All of my dreams are coming true
The day you come into my dreams
My heart was never full
Til you filled my heart
My dreams are only meant for you
Your the reason
My dreams are always sweet
I want my dreams to be a reality
Where I don't have to dream of you
You will be here
Making all my dreams come true
Til then
My dreams will stay sweet
Cause they are all of you

Dreams of you

My dreams are full of you
I even daydream about you
I dream about your touch
While you are far away
I dream about your smile
That melts my heart
I dream about falling a sleep in your arms
Being safe and secure
Finding myself hugging my pillow
Feeling your warm embrace
I dream about our future
Being happy and complete
There is no escaping from you
You are everywhere
I would never change that
All my dreams are coming true
The day you came into my dreams
My heart was never this full
Til you filled my heart
My dreams are always sweet
I want all of my dreams to become reality
Where I don't have to dream of you
You will be here
Making all of my dreams come true
Til then my dreams will stay sweet
Cause they are are of you

Empty rooms

Here, I am on my own
But there is still
So many empty rooms
How can they be filled?
All the hopes that I have
Isn't even enough
To fill some of these rooms
The echoes in the hallways
Is so deafening
With all the love
That I could share
Isn't enough to fill the rooms
I would love to have a full house
Not an empty house
Where a family can grow
Come fill these empty rooms
So it isn't so lonely

Without regret

There is one thing that scares me
It's not what everyone may think
It's once you break my trust
How cold and shut off I become
It is like you never existed
There will not be no memory of you
It is very scary
How easy it is for me
To completely shut you out
You choose to hurt me
So, I choose to forget you
There is no space in my heart
For anyone that breaks my trust
I'm completely done with you
There is no looking back you will regret not having me in your life
You got to live with the consequences
Of your own actions
I'm protecting myself
From things I don't need in my life
Farwell and good riddance

Foreign person

As I sit in front of the mirror
I notice there is a person
Looking back at me
From behind the mirror
I don't recognize this person
Has me wondering
Who and why they are there
Why are staring back at me?
This person feels so foreign
Yet at the same time
Has me feeling refreshed
Has me wanting to know more
As I place my hand on the mirror
To touch this foreign person
To realize that this person
Who has me in awe
Is me
Looking back through the mirror
Has me wondering
Why I have never seen you before

Everything you do

Everything you do
Shows me what you truly feel
If you can go days without talking
Tells me that I'm not important to you
If your words don't match your actions
All you did was say another lie
Which makes me not to trust you
All the disrespect you give me
Shows me that I was never the one
Tearing me to shreds just to see me cry
Doesn't make you a man
It makes you look like a fool
If you don't have pure intentions
You might as well keep walking
I'm worth more than just a few dates
One day you will realize
That you lost something special
Who knows her worth
Keep walking if your going to waste my time
You won't be missed

Sunshine

Yesterday was a mystery
Til you brought out your smile
Sharing it with everyone
With a dance or song
You brought out the sun
With the sound of your voice
Nothing seems out of reach
When you are near Sharing your day
With all that will listen
All you need to know
Is that I'm listening
You brought me the sunshine
By sharing your life
Now the sun is shining
Because of you
Bring the best in everyone
Thank you
For being my ray of sunshine
That always brightens my day
Now each day is not a mystery
No more
Thank you
For being you
You are amazing
Thank you for being my sunshine

In your honor

With each yellow ribbon
Blowing in the wind
Is a reminder of all
We have lost
All those brave men and women
Who fought to keep us safe
Each yellow ribbon
Reminds of what
You all have done
For each one of us
You never knew any of us
Yet we are so proud of you
That is why we wave
The yellow ribbons
In your honor
To show you how proud
We are of all of you brave people
That is why we wave
The yellow ribbons
In your honor
To show you how
Proud we are of you
For everything that you have done
To make sure this place is free
And a safe place to live
We thank you
You are in each of our hearts everyday
That is why we wave
The yellow ribbons
We miss all that is lost
Who fought so long and hard
Thank you
For making me feel safe and free

Emotional mess

Today, I realized that my heart
Is missing you
You're my one true love
I find myself feeling sad
For no apparent reason
With tears rolling down my face
I can not stop the tears
You're the beat of my heart
That keeps me grounded
Right now...
I find myself feeling sad
For missing you so badly
With me missing you
I find myself arguing with you
Over things that that don't matter
Has me feeling like
I'm the one being selfish
When I know you are off doing your job
I know that it isn't forever
I find myself missing you
More than the day before
No words can express
What I truly feel
I dream of you
In my arms safe and sound
Right now all I see
Is us arguing
Over things that don't really matter
Breaks my heart
All because I don't have you near
To rest my head upon your shoulder
To have the reassurance
That everything is going to be ok

Having me feel stressed out all the time
Has me..
Missing you even more
You're the one person
That sees the real me
You call me out on my behavior
I never realized I was doing
Til today
I'm feeling alone
Because I love and miss you
You're the one that keeps me grounded
You're the reason
I feel so deeply
I am sorry
That I miss you so much
Where I've hurt you
That was never my intention
Once you are in my arms
Everything will make sense again
You're my everything
I know I will not feel alone forever
I only miss my my one true love
I am sorry for being so emotional
It will get get better in time

Becoming one

In the early hours of the morn
I lie awake thinking of you
Like I was reborn
You are a part of me that I always knew
I dream of sleeping in your arms
Being happy as can be
Knowing that you would protect me from harm
Means everything to me
You can put a smile on my face
With your gentle touch
It is like being cover in lace
With a gentle brush
Now our paths have to meet
So, we can be one
Without any defeat

Quiet man

When a man goes quiet
It is a him telling you he is done
He is being a coward
By not telling you he is done
He is afraid of your tears
When a man is quiet
Then disappears
He is too busy looking for better
Which makes him a bigger coward
He doesn't know what he feels
For him not to use his words
Is the most hurtful thing he can do
When he is quiet
He is telling you
That you are not enough
Listen to his silence
He is speaking to you in volumes
The unspoken actions
Tells you everything you need to hear
A quiet man
Is a scared man that hasn't grown up
Let the quiet man go
He isn't ready to be the man
You deserve

I give up

I'm feeling like going out of my mind
Since nobody even cares
How I'm being treated
Who gives a damn
How I feel
Go ahead treat me like a doormat
I guess that is what I deserve
Since nobody sees me
It's like I'm not even here
I should stop caring
I should just let everyone do what they want
Since my feelings don't matter
I give up
Everyone can just go straight to hell
What does it truly matter
How I feel
Since nobody cares enough to even notice
Now I know that my feelings don't matter
Just call me doormat
For now on

Competing with video games

Oh, do I hate video games
I wish I could ban them all
Since I have to compete
With them all on a daily basis
Why?
Is it because I'm that boring
That my company is not worthy enough
Those stupid video games
Get way more attention
Than I will ever get
What makes them so special?
Somebody tell me please
I'm so tired of fighting video games
I can be in the same room
As the stupid video games
Nobody would even notice
I could disappear
Nobody would even notice
That I was gone
It makes me wonder
Why?
I have to compete
With stupid video games
I have had enough
I'm so ready to toss them
Right out the window
Just so I could see a reaction
Now that would be entertainment

Reaching for the sky

If I could reach for the sky
I would bring you with me
So I wouldn't be alone
Without you being there
With that sparkle in your eyes
Saying you will catch me
When I'm about to fall
Being with you
Is like being in heaven
Where I feel the happiest
When I see you smile
I can feel all of the love
That flows through you
As I reach for the sky
You're always at arms length away
Just at my grasp
Not wanting to let you go
So you don't drift away
Take my hand
So we can see
Where this journey
May take us
As we reach for the sky

Haunted past

As I listen to a song on repeat
This song is bring back so many memories
I'm having a lot of memories of you
Back when we were kids
It reminds me
How awful I was to you
When I was in a very bad place
In my life
First of all I was in a place
I never wanted to be Causing me to have outbursts
That you never deserved
If I was able to have the words
To express myself
Like I do now
I would've changed how it was handled
I carry all of these memories with me
The guilt of the past haunts me
I know that you didn't deserve how I treated you
If I only knew
That my actions of the past
Would come to haunt my future
I would've never had done them
You didn't deserve that
Now I know how wrong I was Where all of my fears were directed at Weren't directed at you
You were just the closest ear at the time
It wasn't meant to be like that
My fears were just so strong
I apologize

Dating a Workaholic

Dating a workaholic
Is the hardest relationship to be in
When you feel that you are alone
In the relationship
Where a lot of promises get made
Yet them same promises get broken
Which breaks your heart
The heart gets broken because it belongs to them
Sacrificing your heart
Just because you love them
Knowing that they're doing it to better themselves
They say it will benefit you too
Which makes you feel very proud of them
For all that they have accomplished for themselves
Yet they don't see the pain in your eyes
Waiting by the telephone to ring
To know they are on there way home
Safe and sound
They forget that all you want is their undivided attention
With no distractions
Yet work will always come first to them
More broken promises made
More tears shed
They really don't see the pain caused
All because they are thinking about the future
How it will be better
All they see is you annoying them
When they are busy
Not wanting to drag them away from work
Breaks your heart even more
They don't realize that you feel unloved
When that isn't the case
They love you very much

They have to be taught
That work and home life are different
You didn't sign up to be a part time partner
All you want is for them to really see you and for them to know how proud you are of them
For all that they have accomplished
Yet they forget
That you are there cheering them on
Yet they forget
To make a little effort in the relationship
They think you will always be there
Even though you think about out leaving
Your heart won't let you leave
What keeps you going is knowing
That it isn't going to be forever
Dating a workaholic is rough
It just made you stronger and more supportive
They are grateful for all that you sacrificed for them

He's yours

Hearing a man say I'm yours
Is more powerful than I love you
He's yours means
He is committed to the relationship
Nothing is going to waiver his thoughts
He is expressing his deepest desire
He would move mountains for you
Just for you to know
How he truly feels towards you
He wants you and everyone else to know he is taken
He is 100% committed
He is madly in love
He knew that them words
Were a game changer for him
You would never see him
Not meaning what he said
I'm yours
Is a commitment between two
You are lucky
When a man says that to you

Mere chance

I never knew.....
How important you would be in my world
We met by mere chance
Like we were supposed to meet
I wasn't looking for anything
Til you showed up at my door
Just to see how I was doing
My life started to change that day
By you taking a mere chance
You helped me find myself
Everything about you
Made me feel completely comfortable
Which I never thought could happen
Yet, it it did
All because of you
When this shy guy
Showed up at my door
Everything changed for me
If I only knew what I know now
I would've found you sooner
You brought this broken girl
Out to the land of living again
Just by giving a caring smile
That told me I would be safe
You'd protect my heart
That I locked away from the world
Just to keep myself safe
You brought back my smile
A real smile
One I didn't have to fake
I will never change
How we first met

It was magical
It's nothing that I would've expected
Now everyday feels like that
When I'm with you
Now that I know
We were supposed to meet
For everything to change
Now that smile
Will never disappear
All because of a mere chance
You became a part of me
Thank you
For taking that chance on me

Living in solitary confinement

Living in a lonely relationship
Where the computer is more important
It gets all the love and affection
I'm craving
It's getting everything I'm not
Yet I'm feeling not worthy enough for love
I might as well be living in solitary confinement
It would be more socially acceptable
Than not being given any form of affection
Then I hearing the computer beeping and sputtering
Getting all the affection I'm craving
It's being touched in ways I'm not
I could be stripped down to nothing
Still I wouldn't be seen
Living in solitary confinement sounds better by the moment
I maybe lonely
It couldn't be worse than this
Living in complete solitary confinement
Solitary confinement would be better than this Seeing all the affection the computer receives
Makes me feel so sick and alone

Losing battle

I have never felt so much anger towards one person before
I feel like ripping somebody apart
I'm just sitting and listening to all the comments made about a certain ex
Drives me completely enraged with anger
When I feel like I'm being downgraded to nothing
When I'm competing with the past
The present is worthy of their attention
I should just leave
If I can't hold their attention more than 5 minutes
I know I must go
Yet it is hard to leave
Being treated like you're not worthy of their attention
Breaks my heart
Nobody really sees the pain I carry or what is really going on Since I'm always wearing a mask
It may not be visible to the human eye
Yet it is still there
The pain of the scars can not be seen
I am tired and I mean really tired
Of all this competition
That I never wanted
It is driving me crazy
Feeling like I'm always in a losing battle
Where there is no chance of me winning
I'm so tired of their past haunting me
Living through the torment being done
The future could be brighter
If they could only get in the present with me
Man do I hate this life
That they have dragged me into Why did I let this happen
I must be stupid
Since I'm letting this happen

Their ex can have them
They won the battle I didn't want to fight
Now I'm out the door and not looking back
Now it's time for me to let this all go
Farewell to this losing battle

Giving up on you

With every beat of this weak heart
I feel like giving up on you
The more that you ignore me
The more I start taking two more steps
Out that door
I'm starting to slam shut
In your face
When you don't see the pain
That you are causing me
With all the neglect you are doing
Being hurt by the one person
You saw a life with
Who tears out your beating heart
With one swift motion
It is in your hands
Looking like a glob
Beating ever so weakly in your hands
Showing how helpless my heart is
It shows
That with every step I take
It is one more step away from you
But with your kind words
You swoop back in
Just to repeat
The cycle all over again
Gives me more strength
To finally Give up on you
You can't be the person
I wanted you to be
I am done
I have to give up
On all my dreams of you

I have to give up
So i can find me once again

Bad choice

Wishing that thing's
Could've been handled differently
One bad choice
Ruined everything
That was ever wanted
One bad choice made
All because of a bad decision
That decision was a bad choice
No amount of wishes
Can take back all of the pain
That one decision caused so much damage
Everything got destroyed
Now all the trust is broken
All because of one bad decision
With that very bad choice made
Now nothing can be changed
Damage has all been made
All because of one bad choice
Wishes and dreams
Are now all gone
All because of one bad choice

Regret's dark embrace

Regret swelling like a stormy sea
Haunting the soul, a weight to be
Fears creep in, a darkening shroud
As remorse festers, a heavy cloud

In the depths of the heart, a battle waged
Goodness struggles to break through the cage
But regret's strong chains hold tight
Dragging the soul down, into endless night

A glimmer of hope flickers, a spark of light
Longing to pierce the darkness, to take flight
Yet regret's barrier stands firm and strong
A formidable foe, where sorrow belongs

The weight of regret crushes, a burden to bear
Eyes swollen shut, as the heart struggles to share
The pain of remorse, a soul sucking sea
Drowning in regret, searching for liberty

A lifetime of sorrow

Self-destruction's heavy weight
Crushes the soul, a devastating fate
Past mistakes linger, impossible to undo
A shattered heart, with each shard, pierces anew

Guilt's burden drags me down
Into the depth of a river, with no turning around
A heart once full, now still and grey
Tears fall, but can't mend the shatter away

Lost dreams and haunting thoughts remain
A constant reminder of the pain I've gained
A lifetime of sorrow, my deserved fate
Regret's ache, a punishment that's simply too late

Beyond forgiveness

Being hated by the one you saw a future with
Is a pain that cuts deep, a wound that won't subside
The label of "cheater" now forever attached
A constant reminder of the trust I shattered and smashed

It wasn't intentional, but the damage is done
A hole has opened, and I'm being swallowed whole, one by one
The weight of the guilt is crushing me alive
A burden I'll carry, reminder of my mistake, my lie

If I could turn back time, I'd make it right
But life doesn't offer do-overs, only endless nights
I'm left to face the consequences of my actions
A future without the one I loved, a heartbreaking reaction

No amount of apologies can mend the tear
The trust is lost, and left to face my fear
I'll live with the knowledge of what I done
A regret that will haunt me, forever, under the sun

In hindsight

You never truly grasp what you had Until it's lost, you're left with past
Imperfections and all, it was yours
A sense of rightness that transcended flaws
There was always room for growth
For effort and commitment to show
But instead of nurturing, you let it fade
And now, the what-if's forever linger and shade
No regrets for the time you shared
For in it's magic, your hearts were bared
Yet, longing for a different end
Aches within, a wound that won't mend
The unknown beckons a daunting test
A future without what once felt best
Memories of what could've been
Now taunt, a bittersweet refrain

A canvas of mistakes

Reflecting on past mistakes, I ponder
The person I've become, the growth, I've wandered Through trials and errors, I've found my way
And with each misstep, a piece of me was shaped

Life's journey is tough, but I rise each day
With minimal regrets, I've learned to find my way
Mistakes, though painful, have been my guide
Helping me grow, shaping me inside

In hindsight, I've turned out pretty well
Considering the mistakes that once made me stumble and fall
Each taught me valuable lessons, Helped me to see
The person I've become, a canvas of mistakes, uniquely me

I'm grateful for those mistakes, for the wisdom they brought
For the strength and resilience that help me to be caught
In the mirror's gaze, I see a reflection true
A person, imperfect, yet whole, with a story anew

Regret's Heavy Weight

The weight of regret presses down on me
A physical ache that's hard to breathe
I'm lost in sorrow, unable to rise
Consumed by the pain of regretful eyes

My own remorse is making me ill
A self-inflicted wound that refuses to heal
The loss of trust, the shattered remains
All because of foolish mistakes and lingering pains

I'm trapped in a cycle of guilt and woes
Longing for forgiveness, but unable to let go
The silence is deafening, a scream in my soul
A cry for redemption, a heart that's lost its goal

I suffer in silence, though it is plain to see
The weight of regret is crushing me
But I still hold on to hope's glimmering light
The chance to make amends, to heal the hurt of night

Til you know you're forgiven, the hurt will remain
A constant reminder of the pain and the shame
But with forgiveness come healing, a new dawn's rise
A chance to start anew, to open tear-stained eyes

Beyond words

I've sought your forgiveness true
Many times, I've asked, but failed to get through
You don't see the pain, the tears I've cried
The hurt within my eyes, my hearts deep sigh

Behind each word, a tear falls like rain
Unseen by you, not just say, but prove
My actions will make my words, my heart's deep move

No hidden truths, no lies, no deception's guise
Just raw emotion, the truth in my eyes
You can choose to believe or turn away
But know that my heart's sincere, come what may

I'll wear my emotions on my sleeve, for you to see
No more hiding, just the truth, laid bare, in me

The Sunshine in my life

Yesterday's mystery fades away
When you unleash your radiant smile's sway
With every dance, every song you share
You bring forth sunshine, beyond compare

Your voice, a melody that sets me free
Makes everything seem within reach, wild and carefree
When you're near, my heart beats with delight
In your presence, all feels right

You share your day with an open heart
And I'm grateful to be the one who gets to play a part
All you need to know is that I'm here to listen
And cherish every moment we share, every whisper, every glisten

You brought sunshine into my life
By sharing yours, and making my heart thrive
Now each day's a gift, no longer a mystery
Thanks to you, my ray of sunshine, you set my soul free

You bring out the best in everyone you meet
Thank you for being my sunshine, my heart skips a beat
You're amazing, and I'm grateful every day
For the gift of you, and the sunshine you bring my way.

A plea for forgiveness

Pleading for forgiveness, a heart's deepest cry
To the one I love, who I've hurt, and asked to try
To trust again, though I've caused the pain
And shattered the bond, that once remained

I know I'm the one, who brought on this strife
But I'm fighting to make it right, to be your partner for life
I don't expect instant forgiveness, I know it's too much
But I asked for time, to prove my words, through my actions and touch

My world stopped turning, When I saw the hurt in your eyes
I need to fix my wrongs, and make amends, before I say good bye
Though memories linger, and scars remain
I hope we can work towards healing, and love again

I know I've broken trust, but I want to rebuild
To create something stronger, something that will fulfill
Our love, our hearts, our souls, I want to make it right
To be with you, to love you, through the dark of night

Forever your home

I yearn to be the reason you smile
The one who brings joy to your life, all the while
I long to be the reason you wake with glee
The thought of me, a love that's meant to be
I want to be your safe haven, your peaceful nest
A place where you can be yourself, and find your rest
I strive to be the one who brings you calm and peace
Not the reason for your pain, your heart's release
I miss you more each passing day
And long to make things right, to find our way
I want to heal the hurt, to mend the tears
To be the love that wipes away your doubts and fears
If only you could see, the love I hold for you
A love that's pure, and true, and forever shines through I'll wait for you, and hold on to hope
That someday soon, our hearts will cope
Until then, know you're not alone
My love for you will forever be your home

Forgiveness denied

What is forgiveness, truly defined?
A chance to prove one's worth aligned
A plea to be forgiven, free from sin's stain
Without judgement's weight, repeated in vein

The purest of hearts, with intention true
Seeks forgiveness, and a chance to anew
To right the wrong, and mend the tear
And prove themselves, without a speck of fear

But forgiveness isn't always given free
A rejection harsh, without a second see
Leaves the heart bleeding, with a deep despair
A longing for a second chance, to show they care

What is forgiveness, when the heart is pure and bright?
When pleas for mercy, are met with endless night?
Is it not a chance, to prove one's worth anew?
A second chance, to rise, and see forgiveness shine through?

The gift of release

Forgiveness, a gift so divine
Heals the heart, and soothes the mind
A balm for wounds, a calm for fears
A path to peace, through all the tears

It's not forgetting, nor is it ignoring
The pain inflicted, or the hurt enduring
But rather, it's letting go of the weight
That binds us to bitterness, and endless debate

Forgiveness frees us from the chains of pain
And releases love, like sweet, summer rain
It's a choice we make, a decision to take
To let go of anger, and the heart's ache

With forgiveness, we find peace of mind
And a sense of calm, that we'd left behind our hearts, once heavy, now feel light
As love and compassion, take flight

So let us choose forgiveness, every day
And let its power, show us the way
For in forgiving, we find our own release
And a sense of freedom, that brings us to our knees

Simple joys

Two eagles soar, a wonderous sight
Graceful, effortless, a pure delight
Their movements synchronized, a perfect dance
No mistakes, just harmony, a sweet romance

Their playful antics bring me joy and peace
A reminder to live in the present's release
No worries about tomorrow, just the thrill of the day
A carefree spirit, that's what they show the way

Their simplicity is a lesson to me
To let go of complexities and just be free
To soar on the winds of life, untethered and light
To find joy in the everyday, and make it feel just right

So I'll watch these eagles, and let their joy be mine
And remember to keep things simple, and make every day shine

The mystery box

In the depth of the internet, a place to share
A subreddit born, with secrets to spare
"What is this thing?" a question so fine
A community gathers, to unravel the twine

A hamburger surprise, a metal piece found
A mystery to solve, with answers, answers unbound
The crowd gathers near, with expertise so bright
Together they shine, a beacon in the night

The unknown becomes known, with each passing day
The mystery box opens, in a most fascinating way
The power of the crowd, a wondrous thing to see
A symphony of knowledge, in perfect harmony

So if you stumble upon something strange and new Take a picture, share it with the crew
Together we'll unravel the secrets of the unknown
In the mystery box, where the answers are shown

Consequences of a dirty hit

Dirty hits on the ice so cold
Consequences severe, a story to be told Injuries inflicted, pain and fear
A player's career, a future unclear

Penalties given, fines to pay
Suspensions handed down, games astray
Reputation tarnished, a label stuck
A dirty player, forever looked

Teams suffer too, a loss so great
Key players injured, a championship fate
Disciplinary action, a price to pay
A team's success, fades away

The NHL takes action, rules to abide Player safety first, a change to provide Concussion protocol, education too
A safer game, for me and you

But memories linger, of hits so bold
A player's health, a story untold
The hurt may fade, but never forgotten
A dirty hit, a lesson unspoken

Wanting something you will probably never get back

Is the most hurtful feeling ever imagined
A pain that cuts deep, a wound that's unexplained
That heart is completely shattered, broken and worn
By things that can't be fixed, a damage that's born

Time is only left with an empty hole
Where love and laughter once filled the soul
Nothing can fill the void in your heart
No amount of apologies can fix what's torn apart

Just time and hope, a glimmer of light
That maybe one day, the pain won't feel so tight
No amount of tears can fix the void
The pain is too unbearable, the heart can't be employed

Time is all that's left, to heal and to mend
To fill the empty hole, where love once did descend
So we wait and hope, for a brighter day
When the pain will subside, and love will find its way

Echoes of you

In the echoes of my soul, your presence remains
A lingering touch, a whispered promise, a love that still sustains
Every waking moment, I feel your absence deep
A hollow ache that gnaws, a heart that weeps

You brought solace to my darkness, a beacon in the night
A love that soothed my sorry, a guiding light
Your absence now, a heavy burden I bear
A grief that threatens to consume, a heart that's lost its care

Memories of you haunt me, a bittersweet refrain
A longing that cannot be silenced, a love that remains
In every waking moment, I reach for you in vain
Only to find an empty space, a heart that's lost its gain

Tears fall like autumn rain, as I mourn our lost way
A love that faltered, a heart that's gray
Regrets and sorrow, a heavy heart does bear
Longing for the love we shared, the memories we once declared

Yet, even in the darkness, a glimmer of hope does shine
A chance for redemption, a love that's still divine
If you could see the love I hold, the heart that beats for you
Perhaps you'd find your way back, and our love would shine anew

Take a chance, dear Keegan, and look into my heart
You'll find a love that's still burning, a love that will never depart
Let us heal the wounds of past, and forge a new way
Together, our love can rise, and shine brighter with each new day

A blessing in disguise

You came into my life, a unexpected gift Teaching me valuable lessons, I needed to shift
At first, I didn't see the worth in the pain But now I'm grateful for the growth you brought my way
You filled a void I didn't know existed With understanding, strength, and lessons insisted Our time together, though challenging at times Gave me the courage to face life's rhymes Though it hurts to let go, I know you're a part Of the person I've become, a work of art You're a blessing, hidden in a fragile frame A reminder that growth often comes with pain I'll carry the lessons you taught me, deep in my heart And though we're apart, we'll never be far Thank you for being a part of my journey's stride A blessing in disguise, forever by my side.

Haunted by Regret

If only I had known the weight
Of actions that would forever haunt my fate
I would have chosen differently, I swear
But fear and doubt led me astray, and I didn't care

I ran from love, from joy, from what was true
Blinded by my own insecurities, I didn't know what to do
Now tears fall like rain, as I look back in time
Regretting every moment, every choice that was mine

Fears that once seemed justified now seem so vain
For they stole from me the love that could have remained Trapped by my own thoughts, I relive the pain
Wishing I could turn back time, but it's all in vain

If only I had known the harm I'd cause
I would have acted differently, with a loving pause
I'm sorry for the hurt, the tears, the sleepless nights
Sorry for not seeing the love that shone with all its light

You deserved so much better, a love that's true and kind
Not the fear and doubt that I left behind
My apologies, dear one, for not being brave
For letting fear consume me, and our love, I couldn't save

In hindsight, I see the truth, the love that was real
But fears and doubts obscured my view, and I couldn't feel
The love that was right in front of me, the whole time
A love that I regret losing, a heart that's still mine.

Echoes of longing

I never wanted things to change
But fate had other plans, and now you're gone.
It pains me to let you go
To live your life without me, though I know.

I want the best for you, always
Though my heart aches with every passing day.
I dream of you, and my heart beats true
Longing for what we had, and what we once knew.

The way it ended still haunts me
A bittersweet reminder of what could never be.
My heart, already broken, breaks anew
Knowing I'm just a memory, and no longer true.

I check my phone, just in case
Hoping against hope that you'll reach out, and we'll reconnect in this space.
Though I know it's unlikely, I hold on to the thought
Of that someday, when you'll call, and my heart will be whole.

Trapped in your affection

I don't want to play this game
Cat and mouse, where love's the pursuit
Someone always ends up hurt and blue
This isn't a game; my heart is true

It's not about winning or losing face
It's about the love we share in this place
I want to love you now and forevermore
Not play hot and cold, leaving me poor

Your distant heart, a puzzle I've tried
To decipher the clues to reach your side
I'm here for the long haul, through every test
My love, don't you see? I'm always at my best

I see the love you have, the love you hide
The fear that grips you, makes you step aside
But I don't want to chase; I want to be caught Held close in your arms, where love is brought

So let the mouse be caught, let love be real
No more games, just you and me, let's seal the deal
Our love, a flame that burns, a heart that is true
Forever and always, my love, I'll be loving you

Unveiled

In the rain, I stand before you
Exposed and vulnerable, yet unafraid.
I yearn for your gaze, your eyes alone
To see the real me, stripped of pretenses shown.

You are my solace, my heart's reprieve
With one glance, my soul skips a beat.
I bare my soul, with all its fears
And find my strength in your loving tears.

Beneath my façade, I'm fragile and worn
Longing to scream, to let my emotions torn.
But with you by my side, I feel protected and safe
Your strength uplifts me, a shelter from life's raging wave.

As rain and tears entwine, my face stings with pain
Yet, in your eyes, I find love's soothing rain.
Baby, I want to show you, to reveal my true self
To stand before you, naked, and be loved for who I am, no wealth.

The one who completes me

I've found my missing piece, my soulmate true
The one who makes my dreams feel reachable too
He never doubts my choices, always by my side
Lifting my spirits, being my guide

With no expectations, he entered my life
From that first hello, he became my strife
An ordinary man with an extraordinary heart
Always knowing just what to say to keep us smart

He's the voice of reason, my partner in every crime
My hero, my everything, forever intertwined
When I need a push or a gentle nudge
He's there to offer wisdom, being my soul's refuge and judge

This is why I cherish him, my soulmate, my friend
Together forever, until our journey's end.

Beneath the surface

Sometimes I worry, though I know you're tight-lipped and strong
Secrets kept, thoughts that you don't share, where do they belong?
I try to read your mind, but it's a mystery to me
Leaving me to wonder, what's hidden beneath your energy?
What pressures do you face, beneath that steadfast guise?
What weight do you carry, behind those resolute eyes?
I yearn to lift the burden, to take your stress away
To give you peace and solace, come what may
But I also see the strength that's forged in every test
The power that you've gained, from facing every challenge best
It's a paradox, a balance of vulnerability and might
A resilience that's born, from walking through the dark of night
In this quiet moment, I hope you know I'm here
To listen, to support, and to calm your every fear
And though I may not fully understand what you're going through I'm here to stand beside you, as you see this journey through.

Electric touch

Every time you're near, I feel the spark,
A whispered promise of your touch in the dark.
Before your skin meets mine, I'm already high,
Anticipation building, my heart skips a beat, and I sigh.

Your fingertips graze mine, and I'm undone,
A rush of endorphins, my soul is won.
No substance can create this kind of bliss,
This natural high, this love that we kiss.

In your presence, my senses come alive,
Every nerve ending tingles, my heart thrives.
Your touch is my escape, my happy place,
Where love and joy entwine, and time stands still in this space.

Unspoken truths

In the quiet moments, when words are few,
You echo loudly, forever true.
A gentle hum in the silence of my mind,
A love so deep, it's hard to leave behind.
You are the sunrise that paints my day,
The stars that light the night's dark way.
In your eyes, my heart finds a home,
A love so strong, it forever roams.
Though words may falter, and moments pass,
Know this: you matter more than the last.
In every breath, in every heartbeat,
You're the love that makes my heart skip a beat.

Forever blue and green

In blue and green, the Canucks take flight
Their passion ignites, the crowd's delight
With every pass, a story's spun
Of grit and skill, the game's just begun
The rink's ablaze, with cheers and sound
As Vancouver's pride, hits the ice bound
Bieska's hits, a force so bold
The Canucks' spirit, never to grow old
Through wins and losses, the fans stand strong
Their blue and green hearts, beating strong all day long
For the team that wears, the colors with pride
The Canucks are the hometown team, where hearts reside

A ball of fluff

A ball of fluff comes, sits in my lap
Gentle purrs, a soothing trap
Relaxed and calm, without a care
Peaceful moments, beyond compare

As you stretch, every bone in sight
You resemble jello, a delightful sight
Playing with wool, a joyful mess
Laughter ensues, as you're tangled, I confess

A ball of energy, unstoppable and free
Nothing slows you down, wild and carefree
My ball of fluff, loved and adored
Faithful companion, forever implored

In time of need, you're always near Reliable and true, dispelling fear
My feline friend, dear to my heart
Forever cherished, we never part

Mixed signals

Love and doubt, a toxic blend
In your eyes, my heart contends
With every smile, a hidden pain
A relationship tainted, love in vain

We've shared our dreams, our laughter too
But now, I'm left with just a clue
A feeling that something's amiss
A heart that's breaking, a love that's dismissed

You say I'm all yours, but I'm not sure
If your words are true, or just a lure
I'm torn between the love I feel
And the suspicion that's real

In your arms, I find peace
But in my mind, a war will cease
Trust is broken, love's on trial
A verdict uncertain, my heart in denial

Unseen

The hardest thing to do
Is love someone who doesn't see
The best of you, the real you
They take and take, but truly never see

Their actions chip away
At all the good you hold dear
You give and give, but they don't care
Leaving you drained, your heart unclear

You deserve so much more
Than love that's unappreciated and worn
Don't give them the best of you
For in return, they'll only see it through

Their lens of indifference and pain
Leaving you to wonder if love's in vain
But know your worth, don't let it fade
You are seen, you are loved, in someone's gaze

Many faces, One Soul

I wear many hats, play many roles
A chameleon of love, of heart and soul
As a mother, I nurture and guide
A gentle touch, a loving stride

As a girlfriend, I'm devoted and true
A partner in dreams, a heart that's new
I cheer and support, through every test
My love for you, forever at its best

As a friend, I'm constant, through thick and thin
A listening ear, a helping hand within
Through laughter and tears, I'm by your side
A bond of trust, a friendship that won't subside

But some may see me differently, it's true
A force to be reckoned with, a spirit anew
As a "bitch," I'm fierce, untamed, and bold
A protector of mine, a heart of gold

As a daughter, I'm dedicated and strong
A pillar of support, where I belong
Reliable and true, through every phase
A love that's unconditional in every way

Who I am depends on who you are to me
A multifaceted soul, a complexity
Of love, of heart, of strength and might
A woman of many faces, shining bright

Fleeing the pain

Trying to escape the ghost that haunt
I run, but shadows follow, taunt
From all the pain that I've known
Futility grips, a heart turns to stone

I'm chasing freedom, but it's hard to find
A fleeting dream that leaves me behind
The pain I've known, clings to me
A heavy burden that refuses to be free

I run day and night, a desperate cry
But anguish keeps pace, a sorrowful sigh
No matter how far I flee, it stays
A constant echo that refuses to fade

I run through darkness, searching for light
But fear and doubt, they haunt my night
No matter how fast I run, I'm still the same
A heart weighed down, a soul in pain

Unvalued

When someone's presence in your life
Diminishes your worth
Through actions and words that cut deep
Leaving you feel unseen and unheard

They claim to love, yet show disrespect
Prioritizing their needs, not yours to detect
No quality time, no effort to understand
You're taken for granted, left to withstand

Their selfishness consumes, leaving you dry
A relationship that's unbalanced, hard to deny
No nurturing, no growth, just stagnation and pain
A bond that's worn, frayed, and in vain

Love's true meaning

Love's not just a feeling in the heart
It's a choice, a commitment to never depart
It's being mindful of every word and deed
Considering the impact on the one you need

Respect and empathy, the foundation strong
Thoughtfulness the glue that holds it all day long
When you truly love, their feelings matter most
You prioritize their heart, and the love you've lost

Consistency is key, a steady pace
Effort made with love, a warm and gentle face
Inconsistency shows, a noticeable strain
When love's not nurtured, the bond starts to wane

You reap what you sow, in love and in life
Your actions trigger responses, a delicate strife
So choose to love with intention and care
And nurture a bond that's built to share

When love's real, it's a beautiful work of art
A dance of mutual respect, a beating heart
So let's love with awareness, with kindness and might
And build relationships that shine with delight

Being a priority

To be a a priority, not a chore
A person cherished, forever more
Not a task to check, or a duty to bear
But the one they seek, with love to share

Not an inconvenience, or a burden to bear
But the joy they crave, the love they declare
The one they want to be with, through laughter and tears
The safe haven they seek, through all their fears

To be the one they choose, above all else
The love they nurture, the heart they bless
Not just a presence, but a cherished place
In their heart, in their life, a loving space

To feel valued, not just tolerated
Loved, not just obligated
To be the one they turn to, in every need
The love they prioritize, the heart they feed

Dolphin's delight

In the distance, on the waves so blue
Dolphins dance, with leaps anew
In and out of the ocean's sway
They play and splash, on a sunny day

Their joy is contagious, it's plain to see
With each jump, a smile breaks free
They converse, in clicks and whistles too
A language all their own, pure and true

Their happiness radiates, far and wide
A symphony of delight, they reside
In the ocean's vastness, they find their glee
Free and wild, as wild can be

Anchor in the storm

When work's demands weigh heavy on your mind
And life's chaos leaves you left behind
I know you pull away, shut the door
But know I'm here, forever more

I'm not here to add to your stress and strife
But to be your safe haven, your partner in life
Your rock, your shelter, your guiding light
When darkness falls, and you're lost in the night

I miss you dearly, feel your absence deep
A part of me is gone, my heart does keep
But I'm here waiting, patient and true
To support you, to see you through

When you need strength, just reach for me
I'll be your anchor, your safe melody
I'll help you weather life's stormy sea
And be the calm, that's meant to be

I'm here for you, through every up and down
To lift you up, and turn your frown around
So lean on me, when you're feeling weak
I'll be your fortress, your heart's unique

Heart of a hero

A firefighter's heart, a desire to serve
To protect and save, a noble reserve
On duty or off, his spirit remains
A guardian angel, with a hero's refrains

In uniform or not, he's always on call
A protector, a defender, standing tall
His sense of duty, a guiding light
Shining bright, through day and night

When flames arise, he rushes in with might
A savior's instinct, a hero's sight
But the toll it takes, the stress and the grind
Weighs heavy on his heart and mind

The calls, the trauma, the weight he bears
The memories that linger, the scars that show
But still he rises, with a courageous might
And finds solace in our love, our gentle night

In my arms, he finds a peaceful place
A refuge from the flames, a calm within the space
He shares his stories, his fears, his doubts
And I hold him close, with a loving shout

Together we face, the stress and the strain
And find strength, in each other's love and pain
I'm grateful for his love, his heart so true
A hero in every way, through and through

A Rogue's lament

I went rogue, and my world did crash
One stupid move, and love did dash
I wish to turn back time's hands
Erase the mistake that brought us to this land

My heart beats with regret and pain
Longing to fix I couldn't sustain
I yearn to make amends, to right the wrong
To prove my love, and make the bond strong

Can you find it in your heart to forgive?
To see the sorrow that I truly live?
I'll work to regain your trust and love
And hope that together, we rise above

I'd rewrite the past, If I could
But all I can do is make a new road
One paved with promises, and a heart that's true
Hoping you'll join me, and love anew

My eye's were opened

Before you, love was unknown to me
A mystery that I couldn't see
But you opened up my eyes to it's might
And showed me what it means to love in the light

Life's journey has its bumps and bends
But you taught me how to navigate our journey's trends
Through every test, you stood by my side
Guiding me forward, with a love that won't subside

In your arms, I found a place to lean
A safe haven where my heart could be serene
Together we face life's challenges strong
Supporting each other, righting every wrong

You've been my guiding star on the darkest nights
My ray of sunshine, banishing life's plights
From the moment I met you, I knew you were the one
My soulmate, my forever, my heart is won

I'm grateful for the love that we've designed
For the strength we've found, and the bond that's aligned
I'll love you til my last breath fades away
Forever and always, in every moment, in every way

Lost in limbo

My heart beats for you, my love so true
I've shared my feelings, thoughts, and dreams with you
I want us to heal, to mend and grow
But I need you to meet me halfway, don't you know

If you're willing to work through the pain
Let's face it together, hand in hand, and love again
But if your heart's no longer in this space
Please return my keys, and let me find my way

Holding on to hope, but feeling stuck in time
I need clarity, a direction to align
I'm hurt, and I need to know what's real
Let's talk about what you want, and how we feel

Either we're in this together, or we're apart
Let's be honest with each other, and mend our heart
I'm ready to move forward, or let go
But I need you to be clear, and let me know

The weight I bear

A weight upon my heart, I bear the blame
For the pain I've caused, and the love that's tamed
I know I hurt you, deeply and true
Whether meant or not, the ache is still in you

My words are hollow, without heartfelt pain
I'm sorry for the love that I couldn't sustain
Broken promises, and tears you've cried
I failed to show the love I held inside

You don't owe me trust, it's something I must earn
If ever given, I'll strive to prove my worth again
I see the hurt I've done, and it's weight I bear
Every day, I carry it, with no one else to share

You deserved a love that cherished and protected you
Not the pain and heartache that I put you through My love, I'm trying to make amends
To be the person who loves you with out ends

Blind sight

Blind by affection, I didn't see
The strings attached, the manipulation's spree
You showered me with words, a gentle rain
But beneath the surface, a toxic game

Your love was a storm, intense and wild
Leaving me breathless, yet feeling beguiled
I didn't know the signs, the red flags high
I thought it was love, but it was a disguise

You wove a web of flattery and praise
I got caught up, in the whirlwind's daze
But now I see, the truth unveiled
A pattern of control, a love that's failed

I'm learning to heal, to break the chains
To recognize the signs, the love bombing games
I'll rise above, with a heart that's wise
And find true love, with open eyes
