Guilt.

I see the darkness creep up on me.
Slowly, so slowly it barely makes any sound.
I think about the past, present, and future.
All of my choices.
Nothing Works.
There's a lot on my mind.
Things I still regret.
Things I wish that I could change.
Like spend more time with my friends.
But crying about it won't change what is,
What was, what will be, or the present,
All that I can do right now,
Is just enjoy the moment.

My True Hidden Hope For The Future

Even if things seem hard now,
I promise it will all pay off,
If you bully me, I promise,
You really wanna just lay off,
I get sidetracked sometimes and go loco on people,
doesn't make me bad; it makes me human.
Sometimes I listen to Billie Eilish; her stuff really helps me in the dark moments.
I love my friends, I care about them like they're all my family,
Be all you can be, and always have a plan B

Valentine's

Today is now,
Tomorrow is the future,
Yesterday's past,
I think I need a booster.
I'm wishing everyone a happy Valentine's.
Let's hope we hold this spirit in our hearts,
Until we die

Here We Go Again

Here we go again, the year is almost over.
Here we go again, I still don't have a phone.
Here we go again, the fun is almost over.
Here I go again, now I'm all alone.
As the parchment paper burns against the stove cooking the chicken,
I stop and listen,
And think for just a minute.
If things were different, maybe it wouldn't end this way.
But I'll find a way to survive.

HereWeGoAgain (Full)

Here we go again, the year is almost over.
Here we go again, I still don't have a phone.
Here we go again, the fun is almost over.
Here I go again, now I'm all alone.

Something's in my way,
I can almost taste it,
The way the feeling lingers,
Something isn't right,
One day I'm gonna be famous,
Stupid and Contagious,
Standing on a stage, screamin' "Goodnight Adeline."

Here we go again, the year is almost over.
Here we go again, I still don't have a phone.
Here we go again, the fun is almost over.
Here I go again, now I'm all alone.

Sitting in my room,
I see hallucinations,
Thinking of my friends,
I wanna go to sleep,
Imaginary friends, they all keep me company,
As I hit the bed, my eyes finally close

Here we go again, the year is almost over.
Here we go again, I still don't have a phone.
Here we go again, the fun is almost over.
Here I go again, now I'm all alone.
Ooh, now I'm all alone,
Yeah, now I'm all alone.

Goodbye Kitty

Goodbye kitty, the stray i found.
you brought me light when none was found.
As you go to a better home,
I'll still be here, all alone.
I'm 16 and my folks don't understand my depression,
I really enjoyed those nice and quiet petting sessions.
So as you leave my life just like my mom and dad and everyone else,
I'll always keep an imaginary picture of you on a mental shelf.

....Goodbye....forever.....my one and only kitty

Radio Madness

This nations in the gutter,
There's pain wretched on our faces.
Ice agents taking over,
This f***ing world's exploding
Demolition,
Self Destruction,
Planet Earth is dying theirs a whole eruption.

Push us down, shut us out,
But we're never gonna let go
Try to shut us up but we're never gonna let go
Hey!
Hey!
Hey!
HEY!!
