my last wish

I got my dreams washed out of my eyes,
Felt the pain of those colorless butterflies,
I thought I didn't deserve to be alone,
But I know now everything has gone,
I want to one more chance,
My last wish, one more demands.
Oh! I hold my breath for this thing to happen
I just want to spread love, no need of weapon.
I tried to do my best but could not
It doest not mean that I have lost
I want to one more chance
My last wish, one more demands.
I got hurt long by everyone forgive me for the things that i have done well i wish soon everythings gonna fine once agian the rays of hope will shine because i wanna one more chance,my last wish, one more demand...

my sweetest dream

I saw roses smiling
Heard the birds singing lovely songs
What is this happening and for how long?
I saw the twigs dancing and all I can imagine
Oh! That was an amazing scene
I am talking of my beautiful dream
That was my beautiful dream
I was holding her hands and we were dancing around
Just looking into each other's eyes, moving on musical sound
She was my everything as we both were in love
Oh! That was an amazing scene
That was my beautiful dream
Yeah! That was my beautiful dream

i am alone

Oh god! You made the beautiful smile
Then why did you give tears in eyes
I have been lost somewhere
When the sun will ever shine?
And I feel so lonely
When will I get my dreams come true?
Why this happiness is always to be stolen?
Why the dreams are always to be broken?
I just closed my eyes to feel the pain inside
But my heart is always wide open
And I feel so lonely
When will I get my dreams come true?
Why did I cry when I was in pain?
Why did then it started to rain?
I prayed to god to make me strong
Still I am shouting again and again
And I feel so lonely
When will I get my dreams come true?
I put the wishes on fire
And I have just got tired
I hate to be alone
Every time I don't want to be a liar
And I feel so lonely
When will I get my dreams come true?
When will I get my dreams come true?

i can never satisfy

Like those old memories those pictures and broken petals those thousands broken words one pure heart and innocent eyes,
Some careless whispers,
My life is going dark,
I can never satisfy,
That rose have been died,
And I've just cried,
For the pain I saw in eyes of butterfly
As she lost colors from her wings,
And cursed her luck,
God's will never be challenged against,
But I prayed a lot of time,
And all I know I can never satisfy
A bird lost her wings and said now I cant fly
And all I know I can never satisfy
Just now I got out of my house
Saw the sky with clouds of rain
Thought would be happily rain
But they turned dark became black
And moment turned panic
Because I have lost and I cant try
All I know I can never satisfy
Last night I was in a dream
With my head high going running on my way
A thing came to me and don't know what did it say Eyes got tired now I can even cry
But all I really know that I can never satisfy

why do people say

When we are in love
Why do people say that we are blind?
But god says we can see what those people cant
When we are in love
Why do people say we are dumb?
But we can hear lovely sweet songs
When we are in love
Why people say our time is not ours
But we share the most beautiful moments of life in togetherness
When we are in love
Why do people say?
That we cant understand
But we share the most sensitive relationship of this world
When we are in love
Why do people say we have lost our senses?
But we have the most amazing power of imagination in love
When we are in love
Why do people say we are unable to speak with our mind?
But in love god speaks from our heart
When we are in love
Why do people say we have gone mad?
But in that madness we feel the most understandable person of the world
When we are in love
Why do people say.....???????????????

where are you going?

once again I walked on my own but I felt sick of you much you might have forgotten but I still know that your footprints lead to my way lets just come back I need you here in my life lets be back forever don't make cry you are my life and still beating in my heart
But oh damn you forgot me I just cant sing alone
The sweet song which you composed for me on my birthday
And remember those candles over the cakes
I wish these make you remind the past
But please don't remind those days when we fought with each other
And you were crying upstairs
You only think of the times when we first met in garden
And it was raining that time
I held you in my arms and you were looking into my eyes
Please come back and hold my hand
I need to walk on the wet sand
Like the way we did it before you like it very much
Please god let her back don't do so with me
Whets wrong with those promises and my prayers
Why have you become so hard?
With on heart and no love
I just keep waiting for my dream life
I thought of her every day every time
Why its so dark let the sun shine
I am not feeling well please let me be fine
Oh god I pray to you please give my life
Oh god I pray to you please return back my life.....
Dear do you think that I am dieing
Because its been long and I am praying
I give my breath and make your heart beat
Please don't leave me alone
Please come back for me
Please say again that you love me
Please do it for me.....

yes i would do this.....

I would keep on dreaming
Only if they come to be true
Only if they are not meant to be broken
Yes I would make my heart pound
Every time to the full rhyme
Only if it beats on my own
But every time I ask myself
Do I really meant to be the one
Or I need some one's hand to walk more
Do I really share my pain?
Or should I enjoy my life on my own
I would love every one on this earth
Only if no one cheat me
Yes I would kiss those millions faces
Only if they hug me for free
But every time I think that Why are they keep fighting with each other
I would trust everyone
Yes I would tell everyone
The secrets of me but Every time something's remains in-between Its enough to say that m there to be with you
But its not true to prove this Because overtime time they lost the hands of their loved ones
I remember the time when you were there
And we had spent some memorable moments
But tonight I cant get up because I need your hand I cant just look you but I really need your loving hand to walk on That's why I cant do everything what I would like to do Because every time I was cheated by everyone
And still I trust this hell
Because I wish that one day
They will change and the moment
Will come when everyone will Hug each other with full love.....

my those days.....

When I was with my baby
We both were walking along the river
He was singing in his sweet voice
That was the pleasant moment
And then it rained
But I was not there
I felt like missing my those days
Some best moments of my life
When my dad was my superhero
And my mom's love was my world
When my elder brother hugged me
I felt so much secure
When drink was just milk to me
And girlfriend? I never meant that I lost my those days
Like the colorless petals
When I was chasing a butterfly to catch Every time I felt like a child again when I think of this Those were the time when I was the loved one
And was the most handsome
But now those days are just in photo albums
And mom is not with me now!
Now I have my baby
Who always make me remind my those days
When I was in infancy and full of craze
I remember the time
When I used to spill my coffee on my dress
And used to be late for school
And teacher used to say me I was a fool
And the time spent with my grandpa
Sitting in garden chair like this one
Those were the days when my tears were called pearls
But now they have lost values somewhere else
Now I have grown old and cant remind all what I was before
What I was like my baby
But my baby makes me remind of this
Which sometimes makes me happy?
And sometimes this feeling hurts very much
As I know I cant go back.....

flash back

And it hurts so much when she asks me to look back
But still m doing this all
As she is happy and I love the way she smile
But she forgot somewhere in my heart's dark corner
I was crying with the smiling face.....
That day was like the worst time
Because it hurt so much but that Was my own fault as I did it I spent my day with out thinking faith

I have broken a pure heart and have broken the faith apart my wish was to stay longer but what went so far I realized I have gone wrong and the pain was because of me and the panic moment you see I was no longer the same but I have forgotten your name now I don't wish to be the damn hell and please do something so that we can be well.....

tears on smiling face

Life seems to be a burden which is to be just pass on so many problems so many hurdles and I tried to smile in my hardest and found the tears on my smiling face life is going dark like night without stars what to follow don't know what to trace after singing sweet song voice became harsh lost everything in life's race
Once I started to go on the people's mind
They didn't get me and called me blind
I too decided to kill the feelings inside me
And I got the idea to do it
But I felt missing my heart
Why did it beats in my body
While it beats for somebody
Still I take care of it to show my love and sacrifice
Playing with the all time cheaters of life's dice
And I found the tears on smiling face
I even did the way they asked me to do
And they were lying but I was only true
And I know I was the only one with you
All I really know is the pain inside
And one dark night and the sky so wide
I just tried to say hello to everyone
But I got my dreams out of my eyes
Still I have tears on smiling face
I have tears on the smiling face
I have lost my breathing race
I have tears on smiling face dark night

Oh! This is so much dark night
But who could see the tears in my eyes
I want to come in the sun shine
But my tears were shining in my eyes
Baby may be I am trying to smile
But you have stolen my life
You have stolen my life.....
I may be praying for you
May be I am not saying true
But this is the all you need to be known
I have tired of hurting
I have fired out of this heart beating
My pain has been grown
Oh! My pain has been grown
I want to go in the sun shine
And my tears are shining in my eyes
This is so much dark night this is so much dark night
May be I am not the one for you dear
But please for just this time let me clear
I have no place to go
Just a broken heart to show
All I need to know
I want to go in the sun shine
But my tears are shining in my eyes
Oh! This is so dark night
Baby this is so dark night
I got lost somewhere my own smile
Still baby I never made you cry
Escaping from this shadow
I came in the dark
With being away from you and apart
Oh! This is all wrong in my heart
You never think of making me out of this hell Try to being happy may be I shall Oh! I want to come in the sunshine
But my tears are shining in my eyes
Oh! Dear this is so dark night
Please sit and hold
Make me feel some cold
Think about the past
What we had was not so lost
The greatest story was told
In my heart was not more that a fold
Oh! This is some much dark night
Even my tears are shining in my eyes

I want to come out in this sunshine
But my tears are shining in my eyes
Baby my tears are shining in my eyes
..... (To be continued)

walking alone

One day more, I've to wait long,
Seems so hard just tried to hold on,
Eyes are open but my sight closed,
Just because I'm walking alone on this road....
Right now but before the time,
Moon hides it self & the sun don't shine,
My silence wants to make me shout loud,
Because I'm walking alone on this road,
Walking alone on this road,
I'm alone no hands to hold,
Road seems twisted into fold,
Some memories are left here,
To look into them, I don't dare,
I've to just cover those layers,
Because baby I'm walking alone
Some easy things are completed in my life, want to cut the grief's on the time's knife,
I have just got tired to try,
I had never fleet like this so cold because I am walking alone on this road.
I got my pictures behind the mirrors,
Because I have afraid too much of terror,
I got this time to make it out,
But I found nothing more than to shout,
I forgot my face and asked the others,
But they too told me, its me vision's blur,
I was under my memory's load
Because I am just walking on this calm road.....

Shadows of Our Memories

One last word from this broken heart,
Feeling the pain of being apart,
I've killed the shadows of our memories,
Smile out my dear now you are free.
I know its hard to forget about you,
I love you forever and you know its true,
Those moments are fading which we used to share,
I wished you on your birthday but you were not there,
I take back all blames baby please forgive me,
Smile out my dear now you are free.

DID I MAKE YOU CRY

Did I make you cry?
Or disturbed your life?
May be this is wrong
Still I beg for a try.
Baby, look I still the same,
Same is my name.
Why don't you see my tears?
Do these make you cheer?
Please don't leave me,
Stay with me I'll not fear.
Why are you leaving?
Why are you going away?
Why it's turning dark in the day?
Did you listen me now?
OR ignored to what I say?
It's all for one thing.
See that's our love's rig.
Look into my eyes,
You'll find that I'm lucky to get you
Now don't push me back.
I can't fight with you,
I only know that I love you,
Our love has been lost,
Who's turning like a ghost?
My mind is thinking of you.
Where have you buried your thoughts?
Say just one last chance I need
It's my life but you have to lead.
It was just one day before,
Everything was so true and sure,
When you kissed me on my forehead.
But now what has happened?
Its all seems to be dead.
I apologize for the things I've done,
Why don't you come around, its just nonsense.
Come, sit with me, see the moon is shining.
Like those days when we were not fighting.
But now the atmosphere is so panic,
You always keep shouting,
And I lose counting,
How many times we were together?
Why don't you stay forever?
Look in to my heart.
Its still beating for you.
No matter you love me or not,
But I'll make you smile that's true.
Why did you leave my hand?

Why did you not understand?
Is it called love or something?
That I cant pretend?

may be

may be we have fallen apart may be our world have broken may be you have gone so far I still remember words you have spoken may be its the way you are may be you are still in my heart
I don't forget you my heart still beats for you may be you don't remind me may be I have lost my faith in you may be what I say is not true but the truth is I still love you may be its the last chance may be I don't find ways for a glace may be its hard to move but I know I still love you may be heavens fall down may be angels give up their crowns may be you don't know what to do all I know I still love you.....

The Lost Shadow

I'm running behind,
Those things that I don't know.
I know I've got blind,
The situation I'm passing through
And all those things
That I got involved into.
What more do I need to Make it clear to you?
What should I do to prove?
My way has been turned back.
I came back from where I started to move.
In this world of broken dreams,
I have lost my life's theme.
I have lost my realm.
There's a smile outside on my face,
But inside is dwelling a scream.
I have created so much big space,
Now I have got tired.
I put my wishes on fire.
Because it's been long,
Every time I don't want to be a liar.
Wish that I should not go,
Behind those lost shadows...

I am not a prefect person

I'm not a person,
So many times I have made mistakes,
I know I have hurt you,
And don't know the truth or fake
I think I should tell you
What is true?
I should learn new things to continue.
As life goes on
I can't hold this stress.
That's why I need to confess.
To you that I' the same
Still I have not changed.
Changing is the time.
Changing is the life,
Still I'm the same.
I still remember your name,
I have not forgotten those games,
And these make me go so insane.
I'm not a prefect person,
There's so many wrong things that I've done.

I hope that you understand
Things behind us have changed.
I know sometimes those Things are misarranged.
But I'm not perfectly trained
To handle them on my own.
I need your hand.
Life is so uncertain.
I cant figure it out
Where things went wrong?
Why is this moan so loud?
Why there is feeling of being alone?
Life is full of chaos.
There's so many things that I shouldn't do.
But what should I do to prove?
Why I have become so numb?
There is a reason behind this all.
I got up so high
But have to fall.
I'm not a prefect person.
I never meant to hurt you.
I could not make you smile.

I know I have made you cry.

I'm sorry your life turned out this way.

But I have got nothing more to say.

That is why I am running away.

Away from your way.

You won't see me like this any way.

All I got is just to pray.

I know what have I become now?

But I don't know this and how?

I am not a perfect person.

Time is collapsing from my hands.

As I became too late to understand.

A destructive psycho path,

I cant escape

From Life's race.

I have to run.

From where this all have to begun.

And I can't turn the way of sun.

And that's the reason

I have to say

I am sorry

I have lost the glory.

Escape

What is this all?
I don't understand.
So many times I tried but it was not changed.
It's not easy to say
I find it so hard to get away.
You can't imagine the pain inside my eyes and I believe on your lies its not like that I depend on you
But I find difficult to get out through,
Now I am lost in a way and I can't escape
From the boundaries

till the end of time

When your world collapses
In your mind
I will be standing there
Till the end of time
When you lose your dignity
When you lose your vanity
When you are at vintage
Still you don't find anything
You may be in dilemma
Or may be an uncanny
A situation, a state of mind
May be unbosom or unbridled
So hard to define
I will be waiting for you
Till the end of time
When you are devoid of liberty
When your vision become blur
Things turned out dirty
When you find no place to run
When you have nothing to regret
On the things you have done
When you feel alone and find
You are the only one
You are playing your role
But surrender your soul
When you feel now you are tired
When you feel you need to unwind
I will be looking for you
Till the end of time
From the heavens to the hearts
Dwelling in this empty world
You feel like killing yourself
Your feelings got disturbed
And got dissolved
You can not retain
The way of disdain
Nothing to restrain
You can not break the protocol
You are in a line
It's all about you
It's not mine
I will be looking for you
till the end of the time
When you are standing in hurricane
When you cut yourself but no pain

When you tried hard to escape
But all in the vain
From the eternal sky
TO this land
From the inception of light
To the end
When you find hard to walk
When you find no one to talk
When you can not stand against iniquity
When you feel unsecured
And can not face the almighty
When you feel like being in a crime
I will be there for you
Till the end of time
Till the end of time....

Bring Light to MY Life

I am always wandering around,
Searching for my life,
I am lost in those lost shadows,
Please be my guide.
Here I stand helpless in the dark,
Breathless with a broken heart,
No one listens when I shout,
I am tired of my dark life,
Someone come and please,
Bring me to the light,
Bring light to my life.
I have no stars in my night,
With my ownself, I have to fight.
Flying with fireflies to unknown mountains,
I hide myself from the pain you gave,
I am lost in your crowd.
No one listens when I shout,
I am sick of my dark time,
Someone please come and bring light,
Bring light to my life.
