The color Blue

The tender rain fell gently upon her.
Calming the raging storm inside.
Blurring lights and a surging pain.
Crystal blue tears washed away.
She's now floating on clouds all day.
She's soaring thought the sky.
On her way to Paradise.
Splashing here, crashing there, laughter flying everywhere.
Diving down deep she can't see.
Breaking free she sighs relief.
She is now forever free.

4 friend\\\\\\\\\\\\'s

Magic flows with a wave of a hand.
In coursing veins nature reside.
Innocent beyond compare.
See intelligence and beauty as radiant as a flare.
Apart their flickers,
together their a flame.
Power without meaning, but meaningful all the same.

Spring poem

Clear blue skies with budding flowers.
Stormy weather with crackling laughter.
Dreams soaring through the air, babies crying everywhere.
Families together, families apart.
A love lost, a love found.
Celebration or mourning.
A new start and an ending.

Radiant

Passion burning; shooting stars.

Crescent fallen smiles; twinkling no more.

Aching from the core; impact everlasting.

Shadows

I hide in the shadows and watch curiously. I often wonder if other notice me. If they can see through this heavy blanket of darkness to the other side of this dark oblivion and see the girl on the other side.

What do you see? Is it me or just my image. Is the image you gaze upon happy, excited, smiling and laughing with "friends" or is it a sad and broken image of a young girl sitting in a dark corner alone crying and screaming for someone anyone to come, but never does or someone or thing sitting their devoid of any true emotion and posses alot of masks.

I hide among the shadows watching curiously. I am a chameleon pretending all the time and no one ever notice. No one noticed the hollowness in me which I keep so well hidden behind cage after cage and lock after lock and yet still something always manages to seep through to the surfaces for anyone to see and when they do they recognize it not. But every time I worry that they might discover what they truly caught a glimpse of. A glimpse of the darkness that existed within me.

Twin

As vibrant as a sun kissed sea; With open arms that greet me.
She is the light and I am the darkness.

Together and apart for all eternity.
Run and hide as fast as you can;
but sooner or later it must all come to an end.

Phoenix

Sweet-and-sour like the wind.

Always within reach yet; So far away my sight can't see.

A love gone wild and A love gone wrong.

A lost chance and a forgotten song.

Inspired

I wake up in the morning to a blasted alarm.
I walk through the house, and what do I see.
Not a person in sight, and no lights in the room.
I can't complain, it's just the way things got to be.

Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness rays of light wash over me.

I saw Susie on the street, and knew it happened again.
Her hair was a mess and clothes weren't neat.
Book bag on her shoulder, band on her wrist.
She's going to our hideout, to cry herself to sleep

Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness rays of light wash over me.

If you end up in no mans land, better forget the rules of man.
It's me, myself, and I; nothing else matters.
The kids don't mess around; they leave you for dead.

Next thing you know you're on your way to heaven.

Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness wash over me.
Let your happiness rays of light wash over me.

Let your happiness wash over me.

Let your happiness wash over me.

Let your happiness wash over me.

Let your happiness rays of light wash over me.

Fallen

Through the heaven and the hell
I've been right here right here for you
As the wind keeps blowing
I fight to be right next to you
I've got a mind of my own and a heart the keeps breaking
For you took and took just to throw me away
I don't know if you've recognized the signs
But it's getting harder and harder to resist
For when my world is crashing down
I know you'll vanish from my sight
For as long as our hearts keep beating I'm in agony

Snowy weather

Cloudy sky and chilling Frost
Welcoming slumber; darkness blanketing
A glowing light; breaking icy breath
Soft and fluffy; frigid touch
